CLOSING STOCK LETTER.

(From F. B. McCurdy & Co's Private Wire.)

CHICAGO, Dec. 21—Wheat—Opened weaker on disappointing cables from Australia and larger Russian offerings. Rains were forecast for winter wheat belt and stocks at Minneapolis increasing rapidly, they gained 675,000 for four days against 50,000 last year. Outside trade dull and continued bull support required to sustain prices, and as the latter was not forthcoming today prices are easier.

Corn—Ranged higher on lack of pit offerings but weakened later with wheat. Export demand is slight. Country offerings to the east a cent below Chicago but no selling. Country offerings here somewhat less.

Oats—Gars here more than double last year. Deliveries yesterday 285,000. Provisions—Sharply higher and active in sympathy with advance of 15 to 20 cents in hogs. The feature today was the covering by shorts of January lard and good investment of many Longs took profits on bulges, the market scored a good advance nevertheless.

CLOSING COTTON LETTER.

(From F. B. McCurdy & Co's Private Wire.)

NEW YORK, Dec. 21—The cotton market has been very quiet today but has ruled steady for while there has been scattered liquidation there has been plenty of support from spot interests and the bull leaders on every little dip and quotations have held some five to six points above the closing figures of last night. The cables were a little better than due. The English spot sales large. Exports continue liberal and southern advices have reported firm spot markets at the best prices of the season. Otherwise there has been no news of any importance and nothing has developed of sufficient importance apparently to inspire fresh speculative buying on the eve of the holidays. All three of the big speculative markets will be closed from Friday night until Tuesday morning and Liverpool will remain closed until Wednesday morning. It appears that the strong spot interests who are taking up cotton on December contracts and who are believed originally to have been short of January are covering their January hedges on all favorable opportunities, and from time to time selling Spring months instead. This may reflect a desire on their part to retain control of the local stock for while recent arrivals have been of a less desirable grade, it is a pretty good lot of cotton on the average and the indicated deficiency of supply would make it seem a desirable property from the standpoint of almost any one able to finance and distribute to the best advantage.

CLOSING STOCK LETTER.

(From F. B. McCurdy & Co's Private Wire.)

NEW YORK, Dec. 21—There has been a feature in the stock market this morning that in my judgement is worthy of note. It is the hungry way in which people have been seeking news. We happen to have one of the many Philadelphia private wires and our telephone booths on the stock exchange were crowded for an hour preparatory to the announcement of the Lehigh Valley Dividend rate, while the narrowest and most uninteresting market prevailed in every other quarter. It seems to me that this is significant and indicative of a spirit which shows that the people are waking up and really want to trade if they felt themselves in position of evidence that would give them a basis for forming an opinion. The advance in the Lehigh Valley rate is very significant. We have been hearing for a long time about increases in gross and decreases in net going on while these depressing figures have been discussed. One reason that I think prices have remained just about where they are for so long is that the public at large felt that the market has pretty well discounted the bad news and the good news and up to a comparatively recent period there was unmistakably a feeling that stocks were selling for just about what they had a right to sell for. There are evidences which come to me daily that the market is slowly showing a hardening tendency. In the last three or four days a good many people have called me up on the telephone who for a long time had been indifferent to the market and they have all been putting in orders to buy stocks. It is quite true that these orders have been moderate in character but it is also true that in a good many cases they have been supplemented by orders to buy on a scale down thus showing in my judgement faith in the ultimate course of the market. Undoubtedly shipments justify the assumption that the total figures for the excess of exports over imports for 1910 up to limits that were regarded last summer as absolutely impossible of attainment and the somewhat startling decrease in the import figures as compared with the import figures of November and October is a further evidence of a tendency on the part of the people of this country in the matter of economical living. The Christmas spirit down here is distinctly significant. People are more normal at this Christmas than they have been for a Christmas many years. This is not casual information, it is information which is apparent to the eye and which some people connected with the largest stores inform me is reliable. There is no better indication of the temper of the American people toward economy than their attitude at Christmas time, and it is evidence of the fact that a much more economical method of living is now in vogue than has been the case for a long time past. I don't think it is hurt anybody in particular, for the tendency of American life for the last few years has not been to enjoy life normally, it has been to wallow in the mire of a surfeit of luxuries. Everything also is quiet out at Oyster Bay, I think this is the time to buy stocks. Total sales, 336,000. W. W. PRICE.

James Callaghan sees the best 220 College Overcoat in the city, made with reversible collars. This coat is good value at $24.00, but as an advertisement he will sell a limited number at the above price. It will never pay you to buy ready-made clothing in Charlottetown, where you can buy made to order clothing so cheap. There is no other city in the Provinces where you can buy made to order clothing at anywhere near the price that they can be bought for in Charlottetown. In New York city the centre of fashion, they consider a made to order garment is worth twice the price of a ready made one, in fact there is no comparison between them. ttdrtf.

A. A. McQuarrie, K. C., Summerside was a passenger to the City on the western train last evening.

Leigh Constable, the young lad who was operated on for appendicitis at the Prince Edward Island Hospital a few days ago, is reported doing nicely.

The photo plays at the People's Theatre last evening were splendid. The Hagenback Menagerie, while in the Ghost story was most pathetic and many followed the pictures with intense feeling. The western story of The Taming of Wild Bill was exceedingly good and as usual a woman did the taming this time in a winsome and amusing fashion. Mr. Stewart has a fine voice and Miss Bertha Dudley was very cute in her catchy little ballad.

NERVES NEED Scott's Emulsion the same as babies. Babies can't take care of themselves, nor can nerves. Babies cry for attention—so do nerves. Probably both are half-starved for proper nourishment. Give them SCOTT'S EMULSION.
