

GRANDMOTHER KNEW

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard plaster burned and blistered while it acted. Get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister.

Compliments of the Season from BAYER STUDIO

THE WESTERN GUARDIAN

SHOP from Holman's Catalog

SUMMERSIDE BUSINESS COLLEGE will re-open for the Spring term on Wednesday, Jan. 2nd, 1924.

HOCKEY—The first hockey practice of the season was staged Saturday night at the Summerside rink.

SUMMERSIDE AGENT—Mr. Byron MacDonald of the MacDonald Drug Co. is now Guardian representative in Summerside and will be pleased to receive news advertising, new and renewal subscriptions and Job-Printing.

HOME FOR HOLIDAYS.—Many pupils from the several provincial institutions in Alberton for the Xmas holidays, among whom one notices, Messrs. Henry and Gerald Keefe, P. B. Fielding, Miss Dorothy Waugh, Isabel Clark, Catherine Gordon.

ELMSDALE WON.—The Elmsdale Boys and Girls Swine Club carried off the first prize for car lot of swine in the recent contest. The prize was $100.00. In this contest out of fifty-four swine, thirty-five were graded "Select."

A PRIZE WINNER.—Mr. Herb Fraser was the winner of the $10.00 cash prize offered by H. J. Larkin for the buying contest ending on the 21st December. Mr. Herb Fraser was second and received an appropriate gift.

S. B. C.—A special six months training course by mail. Write J. Pogson Box 145, Summerside.

GRAND LEAP YEAR DANCE—Britannia Club rooms tonight. Special music. Admission 50 and 25 cents.

FIRST STORM OVER.—The first snow storm here this season of any account came on Saturday, when about nine inches of soft snow fell, the street men promptly turned out when the storm subsided, and plowed off the sidewalks, making good travelling for the evening traffic.—H.

HIGH TIDE.—The tide of Saturday afternoon was the highest seen here for many years and much speculation was given as to the cause. Some predicted a heavy storm near at hand, but it would appear that the weather prophets knew very little about it.—H.

WELL KNOWN RESIDENT DEAD.—The death of William Pridham occurred at Montrose the first of the week after an illness of two weeks. The deceased had reached the age of 77 years and was well and favorably known. Active and industrious, he followed the business of blacksmith and was most adept in his line. He leaves several brothers to mourn his passing away.

SUMMONED HOME.—Mr. William Gaudet who has been for several months engaged at Gardiner Mass. was hurriedly summoned home a few days ago owing to the serious illness of his mother. Mrs. Stephen Gaudet, Cedar St. On his arrival home it was found that the condition of the patient was somewhat improved and her many friends are anxiously looking forward for her complete recovery.—H.

EASTERN AGENT—Mr. J. W. Murdoch is now Guardian Agent in Montague, and will be pleased to receive news items, advertising, Job Printing, new and renewal subscriptions.

CHRISTMAS TREE AT ST. CHARLES.—A very successful Christmas tree and examination was held in St. Charles school on December 21. The program was as follows:—Welcome Song, By Classes. Recitation—Peters Parley. Recitation—A Clean Face. Dialogue—The Quarrel. Recitation—When Papa's Sick. Recitation—The Aspiring Dishwasher. Song—Old Jolly Santa Claus. Recitation—A Severe Alternative. Step Dance—By two Pupils. Dialogue—The Sick Doll. Recitation—In Trouble. Song—Christmas Time. Step Dance by Miss Madelin Gauthier, also class work visit from St. Nick. Much credit is due Miss Irene Grant, teacher, on behalf of her school work and her numerous presents to her pupils is worth mentioning. Remarks were made by the chairman and Mr. James McDonald and a vote of thanks was tendered her by Mr. Joseph Warner. The teacher in turn thanked the people for helping make her work a success and also for their large attendance, so a happy evening was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.
