The "Ross Rifle" Action is the Speediest Known

The wonderful accuracy of the Ross Barrels is not the only reason why sportsmen who can shoot straight should give preference to this arm.

Speed in unloading, loading, shooting, etc. is an equally important factor and the Ross with its straight pull is not only unsurpassed in speed of fire—but its magazine loads more quickly and easily than other makes.

A trial will quickly convince.

Ross Sporting Rifles are sold at from $25.00 and upwards.

Leading dealers handle them. Write for free Illustrated Catalogue.

—A fashionable throng filled Christ Church for the marriage of Miss Eva Blanche Weart and Alfred Alexander Lefurgey, which was celebrated there at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The bride is the daughter of J. W. Weart and the groom is the son of the late Hon. J. Lefurgey and Mrs. Lefurgey, of Summerside, P. E. I. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. C. Owen, and was fully choral. The bride entered with her father, by whom she was given away. She wore an exquisite gown of soft white satin, draped with ivory silk marquisette. The short bodice was fashioned in a surplice effect with yoke of Limerick lace, wide bands of net heavily embroidered in pearls and cut steel were carried down the front and back in a fichu effect, and the same banding was applied on the short kimono sleeves. The skirt was made with panels of the rich Limerick lace, and heavy garnitures of the net embroidered in the pearls and steel formed the lower front panel. A girdle of satin was caught at the side by a rosette and cut steel ornament. The long court train fell from the high Empire waistline, and was embroidered down the full length with pearls and cut steel bugle trimming and beads. Her long tulle veil fell from a mob cap, edged about the face with the same lace as was used on the gown, the cap was laid in place and caught at the back of the hair by a row of pearls, and at each side by a small spray of orange blossoms. She carried a showery bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Her bridesmaids were Miss Aileen Weart and Miss Edna Lumsden. Mrs. Weart, the bride's mother, wore a costume of party green satin. Mrs. J. E. Lefurgey, sister-in-law of the groom, was wearing a gown of white marquisette with pink coral embroidery, and white hat with coral plumes. During the signing of the register Charles Case of Seattle sang "Oh, Perfect Love," and following it the party left the church to Mendelssohn's wedding march, and drove to Victoria Court, the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John F. Bel-yea, where the reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Lefurgey are going abroad and intend remaining away some six months. The groom's gift to the bride was a bow knot of diamonds and white pearls in platinum setting. The bride's gift to the groom was a pair of cuff links.—Vancouver Ex., Sept. 7.

BARE-FACED.

"What is the best job you ever did?" inquired the first barber.
 "I once shaved a man," replied the second barber.
 "Go on."
 "Then I persuaded him to have a hair-cut, shampoo, facial massage, singe, sea foam, electric buzz, tar-spray and tonic rub."
 "What then?"
 "By that time he needed another shave."—Tit Bits.
