HUNDREDS are taking advantage of the excursion trips to Rocky Point via the S. S. Elin. They will be continued on Monday and Wednesday, leaving for Rocky Point at 7:30 and returning at 9:30. This is an excellent opportunity of viewing the warship after night.

In the letter of Messrs. Johnson & Johnson published in Saturday's Guardian the last words of the first paragraph were wrongly made to read, "including the holiday season." They were written, "excluding the holiday season," and should have been printed in that way.

The August number of Canadian Life and Resources to hand contains a number of very interesting articles relating to Canada, its resources and growth. The illustrations are splendid and stamp this publication as one of the most influential in the work of making Canada well known to the world at large.

The Carriage Manufacturers are evidently determined to make Carriage Hall one of the interesting features of the St. John Exhibition, as their entries are taking the capacity of that large building which is 200 feet long and 80 feet wide. The announcement of suitable medals for worthy industrial exhibits applies to Carriage Hall, and such concerns as The McLaughlin Carriage Co., The Nova Scotia Carriage Co., Frank Cooper and A. G. Edcombe will be putting their nicest vehicles in competition. There is still a little room in Carriage Hall for any Carriage Manufacturer who thinks he makes as good as the best.

MISS ANNIE McDUGALL of Sanderson & Co. has gone to Agyle Shore on a two week's holiday.

MEADOW Bank School, with midsummer vacation wants a teacher—see ad in classified column.

Two poodle dogs owned by James Callaghan, Bayfield Street, met sudden by poisoning on Saturday. Other dogs in that neighborhood are reported to have narrowly escaped similar fates.

The Marine Department is placing at Orwell Covea beacon, diamond shaped, on a spar fifty-one feet high. This is for the benefit of the steamer City of London and other vessels going into that port. The beacon will be in position next week.

A VERY neat and comfortable motor boat was launched yesterday for C. Clarke Mt. Stewart. She was built by Andrew Hennessey of this City, and engine with 15-horse power motor by R. E. Mutch & Co. The trial trip was most successful, the boat proving to be speedy and seaworthy.

A row that assumed large and loud proportions occurred on Saturday between two residents of Euston Street. The noise of battle was heard afar and there was a general turn out of neighbors, and a crowd soon gathered. But it appears that it was more a wordy war than anything else for no damage was reported.

THOSE who want work of any kind or are looking for help of any kind should send their names and addresses with all particulars or call at The Guardian Employment and Information Bureau, New Prowse Block, Charlottetown. Telephone 132a. Those who do not desire to advertise will please send 25 cents with their request, which amount will be returned to them on application if they do not get what they want.

FROM Bungay the Guardian's correspondent writes Farmers are busy at the hay and killing potato bugs. All other crops look well. Miss Fannie Watkins, New Bedford, Mass is spending her vacation in Bungay, the guest of Mr and Mrs John Crew. Albert Andrews has returned to the States, after spending a few weeks here with his parents. George Davis of Charlottetown is visiting in Bungay at the home of W. Wall.

The Guardian's correspondent at Head of Hillsborough says: John F. McDonald, teacher, is spending a few days at the North Shore. Geo Douglas of the P. E. I. has been visiting his parents here. Miss Humphrey, Free town, is the guest of A. and Mrs Jardine. The hay crop in this section is a very heavy one. After a lot of delay about the procuring of a site the new hall for Head of Hillsborough is to be started on September first.

It is understood that Dr. McDonald's paper—"Dental Suggestions" read before the P. E. I. Dental association meeting held at Charlottetown Aug. 1st inst., has, by request of the associate editor—Dr. Bagnall—been secured for publication in the official dental organ of Canada. The Dominion Dental Journal—and will appear in the Sept. number. Dr. McDonald is to be congratulated on this recognition of his contribution to Canadian dental literature.

As The Guardian Employment and Information Bureau, established some months ago, has been so greatly appreciated, and has been the means of securing employment for so many people and help for so many business houses and housekeepers, it has been decided to establish in connection with this paper, an Advertising Agency. Thus any persons or firms desiring advertising in any newspaper outside of this city, can have same placed by The Guardian. They can thus secure the same rates as if they placed their order direct, and have each advertisement checked to see that it gets the proper number of insertions and appears as desired.
