LEAVES FOR MONCTON.—Major D. A. MacDonald, who spent the past month at his old home in Wheatley River, leaves this morning for Moncton, N. B., where he has accepted a contract with the Department of Transport for building an equipment garage at the Air Port. Major MacDonald built a Radio Beam for the same Department during the summer at Fredericton, N. B. and also worked for the Canadian Oil Company at Sussex and Bristol.

REGIMENTAL BADGES.—Canada's armed forces from the Atlantic to the Pacific are represented in a series of postcards bearing exact reproductions of the regimental badges in color of all the units, now on sale. The designs have received the approval of the College of Heralds in London, England, and have been faithfully reproduced down to the most minute details by the publishers William Scully Ltd., Montreal. They can be obtained at regimental armouries and barracks or at most good stationers in every large city of the Dominion and have been priced to be available to all.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.—A large number of friends gathered recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gordon to honor Mr. and Mrs. James Gordon, newlyweds of the district. After the crowd had assembled, Miss Jean Gordon, Mr. John Gordon escorted the bride and groom to seats of honor, Mrs. John MacBachern explained the purpose of the gathering, while Mrs. Homer Provencher and Miss Reta Farrar carried in a well filled basket which they proceeded to open. Mrs. John MacBachern read the accompanying verses which caused much laughter and Miss Annie Gordon arranged the gifts on the table. Lunch was served by the ladies. The remainder of the evening was spent in music and games followed by a sing song. At a late hour everyone wended their ways home after wishing the bride and groom many years of happiness.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.—On Thursday night November 30th, a large crowd of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Corney, 170ppin Road to tender them a miscellaneous shower. After the crowd had assembled, the bride and groom were escorted to seats of honor by Miss Edna Farrar and Mr. John Gordon. Mr. James Gordon capably acted as Chairman and after a few words called on Miss Mildred Cudmore and Reta Farrar who carried in a prettily decorated basket laden with gifts. After opening the gifts, Mrs. Homer Provencher read the accompanying verses while Miss Edna Farrar arranged them on the table. The groom on behalf of his wife thanked the people and invited all to visit them in their home. The ladies then served a dainty lunch. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in dancing and card playing. At a late hour everyone wended their ways home after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Corney much happiness.

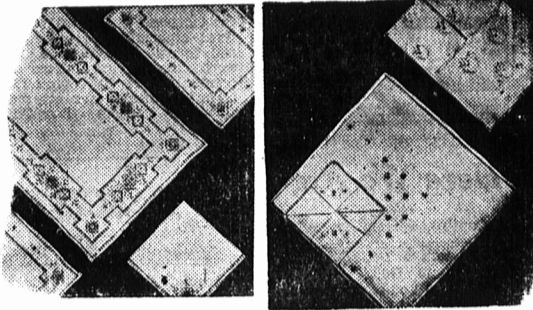

BURGLARS AT WORK.—Burglars were at work in the City over the weekend. Late Saturday night the seals were broken on four freight cars in the Railway yards here. The cars each contained a quantity of merchandise but none of it was touched. It is presumed the burglars did not find what they were after or were scared away before any loot was obtained. Railway detectives are investigating the case. Some time Monday night burglars were successful in entering the warehouse of Carrell Bros. "A few cartons of cigarettes were taken" Chief A. Birwhistle of the City Police said last night. The thieves gained entrance by climbing on top of the C. N. R. box car and prying open the shutters which protected the window. It is presumed that the shutters were "sprung" sufficiently to allow a thin stick to be inserted with which the bar was lifted. Authorities are of the opinion that both "breaks" were the work of juveniles.

PRESENTATION.—A very enjoyable evening was spent recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Livingston, Kingston when upwards of a hundred and twenty-five neighbors and friends from Kingston and surrounding districts met to do honor to Mr. Everett Clow and his bride (nee Vera Irving). To the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. Livingston, the bride and groom were escorted to the seat of honor by Miss Vera Livingston and Mr. Ira Auld. Mr. Edgar Newson acted as chairman and called upon Mr. Chalmers Newson to read an address to Mr. and Mrs. Clow. They were then presented with a beautifully enameled Enterprise Range. Mr. Clow on behalf of his bride and himself thanked all present for their beautiful gift and after singing for They Are Jolly Good Fellows, Mr. and Mrs. Clow were then honored by some of the ladies and gentlemen present. A dainty lunch was then served by some of the ladies present and the remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in music and social inter-

In Memoriam

MR. JOHN H. SEALEY

Mr. J. D. Jenkins yesterday morning received the sad news of the death of his brother-in-law Mr. John H. Sealey, who passed away in Washington D. C. There were no particulars. The late Mr. Sealey who was in the employ of the American Government, resided with his wife, nee Miss Winnie Jenkins, a sister of Mr. Jenkins, in Panama for the past twenty years, retiring on pension last June.

Mrs. Sealey and the late Mr. Sealey spent the past summer at Mount Albion, returning to Washington where they were making their home.

Mr. Samuel Sealey, Mount Albion is a brother
