Sunset Over Malpeque Bay

(Written for J.H.B. on his birthday)

Oh, 'tis long since I have wandered from the Place-of-many-boats Malpeque Bay. Oh, 'tis many years since I have been away. And my heart is hot with longing, Just to see the sun go down o'er Malpeque Bay.

Oh, the redness on the calmness! Oh the beauty of the hour! Curtain Island dressed in golden-bright array. Still I see the old Sir Louis upon the middle-ground, While the sun sank gently down on Malpeque Bay.

I remember Captain Willie, Captain Tidy's house perched crazily upon the quay. I remember the old Corporal with its smell of tar and ropes, And the evening sun upon a glossy sea.

Oh, there was wildness in the white caps, There was madness in the foam, There was temper in the tempest all the day. When the oyster boats beat gamely in against a gathering storm.

And an angry sun went down across the Bay. Oh, I've had my share of happiness, Of worldly goods—a wealth Success has crowned my efforts all the way. But I'd give it all and welcome Just to be back home to-night, To watch the sunset over Malpeque Bay.

Hirtle-Lecky Wedding At St. Mary's Church

—Attractive arrangements of chrysanthemums and greenery in the St. Mary's Anglican Church, Summerside, was the setting on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock for an unusually pretty wedding when Catherine Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lecky, exchanged vows with Murray Frank Hirtle, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. G. Hirtle of Mahone Bay, N. S. before Archdeacon G. R. Harrison.

The wedding music was under the direction of Mrs. Creelman MacArthur and previous to the bridal party entering the church the choir sang "O Perfect Love." Miss Muriel Hirtle, sister of the groom, sang "Because" during the signing of the register.

To the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She was charming in her train length model of white bridal satin with French lace trim, featuring a high neckline with cape effect and long sleeves. Her full length veil fell from a satin band, trimmed with pearl ornaments and lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of chrysanthemums. The matron of honor, Mrs. W. C. Lecky, was frocked in a formal gown of embroidered organza over leaf green satin styled with off-the-shoulder neckline, sash ending in bow at the back and hoop skirt with slight train. She wore a matching headdress and carried a cascade bouquet of chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids, Miss Frances Lecky, sister of the bride, and Miss Jill MacKay of Charlottetown were attired in gowns of bluish pink broadcloth, combined with net. They wore matching headdresses and carried cascade bouquets of chrysanthemums.

Mr. William Hirtle was best man for his brother and the usher were Messrs. Claude and Alan Lecky, brothers of the bride. Following the ceremony a reception for eighty guests was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the rooms were decorated with a profusion of chrysanthemums. Assisting in receiving with the bride party were the bride's mother, who wore a floor length gown of wine velvet with matching hat in feather trim and a corsage of Talisman roses; and the groom's mother chose a floor length dress of dove grey with sequin trim, a silver fox scarf and corsage of silver roses. The candlelight table was centered with a three tier wedding cake and the tea cups were presided over by Mrs. S. G. Merriam, while Mrs. R. S. P. Jardine cut the loaves. Among those assisting in serving were Miss Muriel Hirtle, Mrs. A. S. Hopkins, Mrs. Leslie Simmons, Miss Margery Lecky, Miss Wanda Wyatt, Mrs. W. P. Callaghan, Miss Marie Bowness, Mrs. W. A. Allen, Mrs. Sinclair MacKay, Mrs. Robert Nicholson.

Archdeacon Harrison proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom responded. Mr. and Mrs. Hirtle left on a honeymoon trip to Boston and New York, the bride travelling in a three piece suit of Majolica wine gabardine with grey accessories. On return they will reside in Mahone Bay, N. S. The groom received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Acadia University. The bride also attended Acadia University.

Out of province guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. H. G. Hirtle, Mr. William Hirtle and Miss Muriel Hirtle of Mahone Bay, N. S.; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hirtle, Halifax, N. S.; Mrs. (Dr.) Leslie Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Merriam, Wolfville, N. S.; Miss Adelaide Colpitts, Mrs. W. M. Humphrey, and daughter, Mrs. Morris Moncton, N. B.; Mr. George Ruffee, Wolfville, Mr. Ross Friars, Moncton, —S.

WACKAY—MACPHEE

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the United Church, Mansie on O'Leary on Thanksgiving day, Oct. 10th when Rev. W. G. Dickson united in the Bonds of Holy Matrimony Marjorie Irene MacPhee of Coleman and Mr. Neil Crockett MacKay of Coleman. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Marion MacPhee and Mr. Gilbert Beer was best man.

The bride wore a wedding dress of blue crepe with navy accessories. The bridesmaid was becomingly dressed in aqua with black accessories.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh MacPhee, Brae. She is Vice-President of the Brae United Church Young People's Union. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Bradford MacKay, Coleman. They are two of the most popular young people of the district and their legion of friends wish them God's richest Blessing as they embark on the sea of Matrimony.—O
