..*THE S.S. LADY SYBIL docked Wednesday night at 5.30. She had several passengers and took on board a large consignment of lathes.—

..*BRIDGE IMPROVEMENTS—Mr. John Boer, the Montague road master, is busy with his gang of men every day on the concrete work of the approaches to the Montague steel bridge. The South side of the east end has been faced, and they are now busy on the South side at the West end.—B.

..*NEW FOXES—Mr. N. J. Nicholson, returned home from the Western part of the Island this week with a beautiful pair of Silver Black Foxes, eligible to registration in the P. E. Island Standard Classification. It is understood there is being a new company organized and that Mr. Nicholson is building a new ranch for the same and will take care of the foxes. Their friends congratulate the company on securing the services of Mr. Nicholson as he has had several years experience of successful fox raising and no doubt the new company will have every success under his management. The Guardian is pleased to note that in spite of the hard times and the war, there is still some who have faith in the future of the fox industry. This is what is needed.—B.

..*ACCIDENT AVERTED.—What might have been a very serious accident took place in Souris a few evenings ago. While Mr Roy Crockett, in the employ of Sterns Bros, was preparing to close the store, he had the misfortune of falling down the elevator shaft. He was picked up unconscious and medical aid was hastily summoned. It was found on examination that no bones were broken and that Mr Crockett suffered only from a severe shaking up and will be able to be about again in a few days.—
