

Boston Continues To Head N.H.L. As Result Of Week-end Games

BOSTON 2, MONTREAL 1
BOSTON, Dec. 5 (AP)—Boston Bruins took advantage of the only penalty against Montreal Canadiens, called on defenceman Cammy Reardon, to score twice in 37 seconds for a 2-1 win tonight before a packed 13,900 crowd at the Boston Garden. That triumph enabled the Bruins to continue atop the National Hockey League, a full game ahead of Detroit Red Wings.
 Canadiens, who have lost all four games to the Bruins to date, outplayed them by a wide margin from start to finish. The Flying Frenchmen had 28 other shots that goalie Frankie Brimsek handled in sparkling fashion.
 The Bruins had only 15 shots against Bill Durnan. Durnan was yanked for a Detroit Red Wings skater with 11 seconds remaining but the time ran out before Canadiens could take advantage of their extra manpower.

Rodney Named Harness Horse Of Present Year

CHICAGO, Dec. 5 (AP)—Rodney, speedy giant striding stallion owned by the R. Horace Johnson Stables of Charlotte, N. C., Saturday was named harness horse of 1948 in a vote of 181 sport writers, radio experts and turf writers.
 Rodney, four-year-old son of Spencer Scott—Earl's Princess Marsha, did not lose a race all year. He set a world record for the mile and a quarter of 2:31 3/5 and raced the fastest mile of the year in harness, 1:58.
 Runner-up in the balloting was Demoa Hanover, 1948 Hambletonian champion.
 Dr. Stanton, the only Canadian-owned and Canadian-driven horse on the Grand Circuit, placed sixth in the experts poll.
 Owned and driven by W. L. (Lindy) Fraser of Forest, Ont., the seven-year-old bay gelding won 14 of his 21 starts.
 Rodney's selection was announced by E. Roland Harriman, president of the Trotting Horse Club of America.
 The balloting attracted votes for 23 horses, but Rodney finished 58 points ahead of the field.
 Rodney, who lost only one heat the entire season, began his string of victories at Santa Anita, Calif., with a triumph in the $50,000 Golden West Trot and then swept through Grand Circuit competition at Goshen, Springfield and Duquoin, Ill., and Lexington, Ky.
 In every race, Rodney was piloted by his 70-year-old trainer-driver, B. Shively.
 Rodney piled up 398 points, on a basis of five points for first, four for second, three for third, two for fourth and one for fifth.
 Demoa Hanover, outstanding three-year-old trotter of the year, garnered 340 points. The Demoa is owned by Harrison Hoyt, Bethel, Conn.
 Third place went to Knight Dream, three-year-old pacer and winner of the 1948 Little Brown Jug. Knight Dream is owned by the Gray Armstrong Stable, Providence, R. I.
 Proximity, swift aged mare owned by Ralph Verhurst, Victor, N. Y., was fourth. Fifth was Good Time, brilliant two-year-old pacer owned by William Cane. Goshen, N. Y., who broke all existing money-winning records for two-year-olds.

Saints Defeat P. W. C. In Hoop Game 45-17

After being held to a one point lead at the first half by a stubborn P.W.C. defense, the Saint Dunstan's University hoop squad outscored their City opponents 31-4 in the last half to win the exciting game by a count of 45-17 at the Prince of Wales College Auditorium Saturday night.
 Lack of field goals because of very poor shooting was the main downfall of the less experienced Prince of Wales squad. On the other hand the boys from the Hill were very sharp on their shooting as they accounted for 21 baskets during the encounter.
 Leading the point parade for the winners was a new player to City basketball fans in the person of Billy Buckless, United States youngster who scored five baskets and sank two foul shots for a total of twelve points. Johnny Bradley and Roche also of the winners accounted for eight points each while Kennedy, another newcomer, had six points.
 Garth Crockett was high man for the losers with seven points and "Red" Altken was second with four points. "Red" Howatt, although not accounting for any points, gave a nicely display of ball handling during the game.
 Prince of Wales were charged for eight personal fouls while Saint Dunstan's had seven called on them. The game was capably handled by Bob LeClair and Bob Noble.
 It is not known at the time of writing when the local League will open and another meeting of the League executive should be forthcoming in the near future.

 The first eight players in the balloting represented three teams—the Indians, Yankees and Red Sox. Cleveland had four players among the first eight—Boudreau, Lemon, Joe Gordon and Gene Bearden. In addition to DiMaggio placing second, the Yankees had Tommy Henrich placed seventh and the Red Sox, in addition to Williams, had Stephens placed fourth. Detroit's Hal Newhouse, the league's leading pitcher with a 22-12 record for the fifth-place Tigers, placed eighth with a mere forty-eight points.
 Bob Evers, heretofore a strong candidate for the award, was twenty-third on the list. Feller won three ninth-place votes good for six points."

Mt. A. Takes Hoop Game From Abbies

SACKVILLE, N. B., Dec. 5 (Special)—Mount A. Varsity won their second straight exhibition basketball game of the season Saturday night when they downed the Charlottetown Abbies by a 53-36 count in the final half.
 It was the first time this year they met the Abbies.
 There was not much to choose between the two teams during the first half as the lead saw-sawed back and forth many times but finally ended with the Mounties on the long end of a 24-21 score but they pulled away to win easily by the 53-36 count in the final half.
 Gordie Eastman led the Mountie scorers with twenty-five points and was followed by Gord MacCoy with fourteen. Michelson led the Abbies men with nineteen. LePage was second with nine.
 Referees Bud White and Rollie Cooper had a very busy night as they dished out a total of twenty-nine personals and one technical foul. Seventeen of the personal fouls along with the technical went to the Garnet and Gold, while fourteen were netted out to the Abbies.

Opponent For Louis May Pop Up In Fights Scheduled This Week

NEW YORK, Dec. 5 (AP)—Joe Louis' opponent for a June defence of his heavyweight title may pop up in a series of heavyweight bouts to be staged during the next five days.
 Dormant since the 34-year-old Louis stiffened Jersey Joe Walcott and announced his "retirement," the heavy blow into the picture with a big show at London tomorrow, a "name" scrap at Cleveland Thursday and two major programs Friday.
 Lee Savold believed by many to have the inside track on the Louis shot goes - Monday in London against Bruce Woodcock, the British champion; although Lee, the ex-barkeeper from Paterson, N. J., is the underdog in Britain, many here expect him to score a knock-out victory.
 The gay Savold, who once never allowed business to come before pleasure, is taking things seriously now. Billy Daly, his manager, made the trip for the important scrap with a half-promiser of a date with the Brown Bomber.
 Joe Baksi gets another chance at the big cash in a 15-rounder with Ezzard Charles at Madison Square Garden Friday. At various times, Louis has made conflicting statements on his personal rating of Charles but he is on the record as saying he might meet the Charles-Baksi winner if he puts up a sensational fight. Joe also mentioned Savold as a possibility.
 Louis was to have met Baksi in 1947 but the easygoing Bear from Knappton, Pa., was trimmed by Ullie Tandberg in Stockholm. That upset was even more astounding because Tandberg came to the United States and looked like a prelin boy in losing to Joey Maxim.
 Despite the Tandberg loss, Baksi, now down to about 216 pounds, is a dangerous big man with a stiff punch. He knocked out both Woodcock and Freddie Mills, now the light heavy champion of the world. Cleveland's Tuesday pairing of Bivins and Maxim also carries a great deal of importance. A sensational victory for either boy in the 16 rounds on the Cleveland News' Christmas show would move him into a good spot.
 It looks like the most important week for heavyweights since the Louis-Walcott fight and Joe's subsequent decision to "retire."

Whooping Crane Falls To Increase
NEW YORK, Dec. 5 (AP)—North America's tallest bird, the whooping crane, has come off even in another round of its battle against extinction.
 Thirty-three of the whoopers have returned to their winter refuge on the Texas coast, a story from Austin, Tex., to the New York Herald Tribune, says today. That's the same number that flew bravely north last spring to an unknown nesting ground.
 Bird lovers had hoped for an increase. Instead, three disappeared, to be replaced by three immature ones.
 Such a remnant of flocks that once roamed along the Mississippi valley flyways in vast armies provides too small a margin against oblivion. They must increase, the experts feel, or dwindle to nothing. Then the majestic black and white birds, standing five feet high, will be seen no longer, and their shouting cry heard no more.

Beavers Edge Arrows 6-5

SAINT JOHN, N. B., Dec. 5 (CP)—After trying three times late in the third period, big Charles Phillips finally scored the winning goal as Saint John Beavers edged Dartmouth Arrows 6-5 Saturday night in a rough, ragged fixture of the Maritime Senior Hockey League.
 The tally, deflected off a leg of Arrow winger Don Larlee, added to Beavers to a second-place tie with Dartmouth, seven points behind the leading Moncton Hawks and the same number ahead of Halifax St. Mary's.
 Beavers will have a chance to gain sole possession of second place when they play Hawks at Saint John tomorrow night.
 After 13 minutes of the third period Arrows tied the count before Beavers netted the winner. "We want hockey," chanted the crowd when play was delayed for 15 minutes because of confusion regarding penalties. Eleven minors, three majors and three misconducts were called by referees Neil Sanford and Spike Larabee during the game.
 The rough stuff began in earnest with 10 minutes left to play. Dartmouth's Eddie Sorel clipped Joe Szabo with his stick and both players tangled. Then Sorel and Ed Vigneau engaged in hostilities.
 With Szabo serving a major, Sorel a minor, major and misconduct, and Vigneau a major and misconduct, Arrows put McEwan in the penalty box to serve Sorel's minor and major.
 When Szabo's major penalty time expired McEwan also left the box without serving the minor and play was held up until officials straightened the tangle.
 There were two casualties. Johnny Myke suffered a cut over an eye and Smith had one under his lower lip.
