Moreside and Cantwell Win Men's Doubles Crown

Wednesday evening Bill Moreside and Art Cantwell defeated Frank Hansen and Ned Wran to win the doubles crown in the Charlottetown Tennis Club tournament. It was a very close and interesting match, and excellent tennis was seen throughout the whole game. Although the courts were a bit soft, the pace was very fast with all players playing at their best. A good number of spectators were on hand to cheer for both winners and losers, and for a while it looked as if the last years title holders, Hansen and Wran, were going to

Grand Circuit Results

NEW YORK, Sept. 1 — (AP) — Paul Vineyard and Frank Brooks drove two winners apiece at today's Grand Circuit twilight harness racing at Empire City, the former accomplishing his feat with Steward in the featured Oxford trot and the latter with Her Honor.

Steward, six year old bay gelding owned by Joseph F. Burke of Plainfield, N. J. had too much power in the stretch for his rivals, coming up each time to win in 2:06.

Her Honor, four year old Bay mare owned by H. C. Rouleston of New Rochelle, N. Y., returned 2:06 in an exciting mile test and 2:15 1-2 for the 1-16th miles. Her Honor had won five straight at Empire before losing in higher class company last week.

Hon. Dr. MacMillan

Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, O. B. E., president of the Island Division of the Red Cross has been concluding speaker and in eloquent words thanked again the people of Prince Edward Island who to every Red Cross appeal have made most generous and hearty responses, leading the whole of Canada time and again and now are ready and fully equipped to contribute of their blood.

A message was read from Premier Jones stating that he had been unavoidably detained from attendance at the opening ceremonies and expressing his congratulations and good wishes.

Miss Iphigene Arsenault, Red Cross Commissioner then presented His Worship Mayor Holman with a pair of scissors with which His Worship severed the ribbon across the main entrance door and entrance thoroughfare of the various rooms of the magnificently equipped and tastefully furnished clinic.

Description of this has already appeared. The whole ground floor of the large modern remodeled and renovated building is utilized, and it is a credit to its owner, Mr. Wilfrid Jordan who has cooperated fully with the Red Cross in making it completely suitable for this special purpose. It has a reception room, registration room, waiting room, with its spotless coats, rest room, kitchen,
