NEWS FROM THE OTHER SIDE

Interesting Letter From Woman in South Africa

Johannesburg, South Africa.—I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness and because I felt run down. I tried a lot of medicines before I tried yours. One day I was standing on my stoop when a boy came up to me and handed me one of your little books. I read the book and the next day my husband went to the chemist and bought me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken the medicine ever since and I feel quite strong and well now as I am on the sixth bottle. I have written to my sister and told her all about the wonders it has done for me, and I am quite willing for you to use my name as I can not thank you enough for what it has done for me.—Mrs. W. F. RUSH, 123 6th Ave., Mayfair, Fortsburg, Johannesburg, South Africa.

A CHANGED POSITION

Chapter 97. Patty found herself in a very curious position as soon as news got abroad that Mrs. Mann had adopted her. At first paragraphs appeared in the city papers. "The well-known society leader, Mrs. Grainger Mann (why are people who appear in print often called society leaders?) has adopted Miss Patricia Parke of Wisconsin," and so on with many details, most of them about Mrs. Mann's town and country life and her social success as a young woman.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

for Sick Headaches

The editor was not certain whether he was to congratulate or condole and succeeded in doing both in one paragraph.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

for Sick Headaches

Another excited item appeared a few weeks later in the same paper. "An unexpected event," announced much excitement among the local circles this week. This was the arrival by the 1915 Express of Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey Buchanan who have taken a house on Elm Avenue, pending negotiations for their old home. If these fall through, it is rumored that the Buchanans will build a house near the country club where so many of our influential citizens are now putting up palatial residences.

Germany Expects

Other Nations to Aid in Recovery

Berlin, March 9.—Dr. Walter Rathenau, Minister of Foreign Affairs, addressing the main committee of the Reichstag today, expressed the hope that the nations, including the United States, would reach an understanding among themselves under which Germany with the assistance of other states would be able to realize a large loan to satisfactory creditors. He said the Government agreed to an effort to be made at all costs to show former enemies that Germany was prepared to discharge her reparations liabilities to the limits of her capacity.
