Able Speech By Dr. A. A. MacDonald At Morell Meeting

King's County Liberal Candidate Scored For Failures During Term At Ottawa.

A tremendous ovation greeted the National Conservative candidate, Dr. A. A. MacDonald at the joint political meeting held in Morell Hall Friday night while Dr. MacDonald's Liberal opponent, Dr. T. V. Grant, received a decidedly cool reception from the overflowing audience which braved bad road conditions to attend the meeting.

Scheduled to start at 8 o'clock the meeting did not get under way until 45 minutes later, due to the late arrival of the Liberal candidate.

Loud applause and much cheering greeted the Conservative speakers while their opponents failed to get a word in support of Dr. MacDonald while Hon. J. P. MacInyre, Minister of Public Works, supported the Liberal candidate.

Mr. Oliver Jay the chairman, kept the meeting under control, throughout a lengthy session.

Dr. MacDonald, speaker of the evening, spoke of the wretched condition of the country as he was canvassing for the King's County people in his canvass. He expressed satisfaction at being able to keep in contact with the people in all sections of the County.

He stressed the need of action by the Government in the present situation which faces the world at present and accused his opponent of dodging the real issues by continuing to harp on the subject of the Bennett Government. He labelled the tactics of Dr. Grant in this respect nothing more than "dragging up the dead issues of the past."

Mr. Bennett, Dr. MacDonald said, had been falsely blamed for the depression but it had begun under the reign of Mackenzie King. He went on to enumerate the many "benefits" which the people of Canada are enjoying today as a result of the "New Deal" program which was negotiated by R. B. Bennett. He termed this Agreement "one of the best pieces of legislation made for the farmers of this country" and as an example cited the increased prices for pork. Dr. MacDonald pointed out that many of the promises made by Mackenzie King on the eve of his election and of his complete failure to implement a single one.

Many Liberal Promises

Mackenzie King had promised to end unemployment, he reminded his listeners, yet there were more unemployed people in Canada today than there were in the darkest days of the depression.

"The fishing industry in this Province is in the worst condition that it ever was," Dr. MacDonald continued. "Prices are so low that the fishermen are compelled to get relief benefits across the board, standing that Dr. Grant had promised them better prices for their product."

He denounced Hon. Mr. Michael Minister of Fisheries as "incompetent and inefficient" and not capable of looking after the interests of the fishermen. Such was the extent of the incompetency of the Minister that it brought the condemnation of the Hon. Mr. Nova Scotia Liberal, Senator Duff.

Dr. Grant Failed

The speaker blamed Dr. Grant for not obtaining a share of the $500,000 voted for the rehabilitation of Fisheries and the fact that he had let $500,000 go to the wheat farmers of Western Canada. (Loud Applause.)

Speaking of the benefits received by the hog shipments to the United States under the Ottawa Agreement, he stated that the people are being misled by the fact that the United States are buying millions of pounds of Canadian bacon which is being shipped into Canada. He charged that this American product was inferior to the Canadian type and in time would determine the product of this country.

Liberal Laxity

The speaker also charged the Liberals of the Maritimes with laxity in their attitude towards the reduction on the freight rates of feeds for live stock. "It will be remedied after March 26th," he said. (Applause.)

Dr. MacDonald said that Dr. Grant's idea of serving the people was obtaining a few public works and relief from Ottawa without trying to remedy the existing evils of unemployment. On the other hand he stated that the Government was to find a way for the people to utilize the industries and natural resources of Canada to their own advantage.

Increased Tax

He referred to the Sales Tax under the Bennett Government and reminded the audience of Dr. Grant's words on the Morell platform in the last campaign, "that the babies were going to starve because of this tax" (laughter). "And the way he kept them from starving was by increasing the tax by 2 per cent," he said. (Applause.)

He spoke of the thousands of promises of jobs on Government boats made by Doctor Grant and never fulfilled. He stated that the Government had not kept its promise to give jobs to the returned soldiers and that they were still waiting for a job. "They Tories anyway and I won't lose a vote by firing them," he added.

Dr. Grant with a great deal of respectability had been a candidate running for the Conservative party in the last campaign. "You know that March 26th," (applause.)

He ended with the people to keep Mackenzie King in power till the war was finished and concluded by praising the Liberal Chief Minister, Mr. Edward J. Peaker's Station, one of the eleven Civil Service employees dismissed by Dr. Grant and a returned soldier who had been twice wounded in the Great War, was the next speaker.

Before beginning his speech, he paused and observed a few moments silence out of respect for one of his

RECEIVED—The late Eucene Rossiter, Morell, also dismissed from the City Service by Dr. Grant. He had been employed as a potato inspector.

He then told of receiving a letter shortly after the last election informing him that his services would be no longer required as potato inspector as Dr. Grant had charged him with political partisanship.

He met Dr. Grant in Charlottetown and said to him, "You did it at last and the Liberal candidate replied, 'I'm sorry for you, but what else could I do, they were after me.' The reason for the dismissal was that he was a returned soldier and had been in the military service."

He also stated that the present Government had let out contracts without any bidding, permission and that the financial sabotage to let contracts to Government friends in wartime in this manner.

In conclusion, Dr. MacDonald appealed to the electorate for their support on March 26th, and promised to restore all the interests of the county if elected.

Dr. Grant

Dr. Grant in his opening remarks charged that his opponent was not a National Conservative but a National Government candidate.

He was anxious to know who Dr. Manion was elected in his cabinet and added "I only wish there had been an investigation."

He declared that the Liberal Candidate had dismissed 11 potato inspectors—7 of them returned soldiers—on the same charge.

"Dr. Grant said that the 7 dismissed had taken an active part in politics but he didn't say that they had taken an active part in the war of 1914-18," Mr. Jay said, (applause.)

Mr. Jay said "Sure you are and I am too."

Mr. Jay: "I have a boy who is going overseas and Dr. Grant had given him several excuses for the dismissal but had laid the only charge that could not be investigated and added 'I only wish there had been an investigation.'"

ST. PAUL'S ANGLICAN CHURCH

Yesterday being Palm Sunday Rev. Mr. Gardner's message to the boys and girls was appropriate for the occasion. As the boys and girls sang praises to God after He had cleared the Temple of the money changers and those who bought and sold, so should the boys and girls be free to sing to their hearts' content on this Palm Sunday.

Taking his text for the morning from Jeremiah 23: 5 and 6, The Rector viewed briefly the history of Christ riding into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday. He showed that those who do not look beyond the crucifixion of Christ for the fulfillment of the prophecies of Jeremiah, do not believe that these prophecies will ever be fulfilled but God's promise made to the mother of Jesus before the birth of Christ, was that to her a Son would be born who as a King "shall reign and prosper and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth." Christ's best coming was to redeem the world, His next coming will be to restore all things and to establish His throne and reign in peace and righteousness.

The special speaker at the evening service was Rev. J. M. Murchison who spoke in the interests of the British and Foreign Bible Society. At the morning service Mr. Charles Barle sang very acceptably "The Palm Tree" —Psalm. At the evening service the Church under the capable direction of Mr.

women's place to the cooking wash the dishes, mop the floors and do the laundry. She looks him over with an eagle eye and woe is me if one of John's buttons is missing. Naturally all of this has got on my nerves and while I have so far managed to keep my tongue and just pass it up as one of those things I don't know how much longer I am going to be able to stand it. What am I to do? PERPLEXED.

Answer: It is so hard for people, and especially for women, to discuss any subject about which they disagree without getting into each other's hair and snarling things up worse than they were before. But I am a great advocate of settling differences by mail. So if I were you I should write my mother-in-law a very nice, kind, affectionate letter in which I would tell her that I was sure that she had never stopped to consider that the wife who worked outside of the home had an entirely different status from the one who worked solely in the home.

Tell her that you agree with her that the woman who has nothing to do but to keep house should not expect her husband to do any of the cooking or dish-washing. That as soon as you get your house paid for and give up your job that you are never going to let John so much as put a salt-cellar on the table. But that if she will stop to think she will realize that you are doing as hard a day's work in an office as he is, and that it is nothing but fair for him to help you get the dinner.

I think that sort of letter will make her see how right you are in your position and that you are not imposing on her darling little boy.

Wedding Anniversary Duly Celebrated

(Rosaland Exchange, Feb. 28)

To commemorate the 25th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. MacDonald and to pay tribute to their admirable "Community Spirit" and "Good Fellowship," 150 friends met in the Community Hall, February 12 and enjoyed a delightful program of organized games.

Mr. MacDonald came to Alberta from Ontario in 1915 and after a season of harvesting worked for John MacDonald who operated the first Spring Lake store. On Feb. 8, 1916 he married Miss Margaret Weller of Spring Lake. They moved to Bawlf where Mr. MacDonald had bought a store, in early 1919 Mr. MacDonald and Stanley McKay built a store at Kelsey and one at Rosaland. The Rosala store was located on the site where our school now stands and was the first building in Rosaland. Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald moved here from Bawlf in 1916 and that fall the present store structure was erected on its present location and the former building was used as a school. Mr. MacDonald has been an integral part in the community's up-building, always lending a helping hand where one was needed, and filling positions of responsibility for which his business ability suited him. He has been a member of the Board since the Kingston school was moved here 18 years ago, a member of the Hall Committee and Sports Ground Association, now Secretary of the Camrose large School Division, No. 20. Throughout his stay here Mr. MacDonald has been an active church worker and along with others including C. J. Hendel and J. A. Enright presided over the erection of St. Elizabeth's Roman Catholic church here in 1920. Wm. R. Day, first elevator man in Rosaland and who with Mrs. Riley presided over the erection of the school by several months paid tribute to both Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald and for their friends in the community presented them with a beautiful silver tea service and serving tray in Coronation Pattern and a silver Rosalind. Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald received graciously. Other gifts were a silver carving set from their family and a gravy boat in Coronation pattern.

Following a grand march, Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald were escorted to places of honor to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Ellen Holmberg, and were seated at the bride's table which was centered by a three-tier wedding cake, made and led by their daughter, Jean.

Kathleen Krueger, Peggy Wiseman, Doris Benz, Muriel Endres, Cecelia Weller and Pearl Dolan, wearing dainty heart-shaped aprons in the valentine motif served the refreshments. They were assisted by Kenneth MacDonald, Bud Hendel, Stanley Gould and Harold Endres. The hall was suitably decorated with red and white streamers and white wedding bells.

Among outside visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Murphy, Kelsey (Mrs. Murphy was the bride's maid), Mr. and Mrs. Weller, Monsignor Lyons and Mrs. MacDonald, Daysand, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Zimmerman, Kelsey; Mrs. J. S. E. Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Helmik and Vic Campbell of Ankerbon and Geoff. Brimacombe, Kelsey.

Mr. MacDonald referred to above is a son of Mrs. Ronald MacDonald and the late Mr. MacDonald Travellers Rest. His brothers and sisters are Dan of Travellers Rest, Major and Colin, Sherbrooke, Frank of Sealton, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. MacNeil, New Annan, Hubert, D. S. Detroit, Mich.; J. Herb, Boston, Jennie, Mrs. John MacNeil, New York City.

Slur On Senator Duff

In answer to his opponent's statement that Senator Duff had published a condemnation of the Minister of Fisheries as incapable of his position, Dr. MacDonald said that he had had to spend so much time trying to refute these insinuations that he did not have time to talk of other matters.

He boasted of all the poll meetings he had held in different parts of the counties.

Dr. Grant

Dr. Grant in his opening remarks charged that his opponent was not a National Conservative but a National Government candidate.

He was anxious to know who Dr. Manion was elected in his cabinet and added "I only wish there had been an investigation."

He declared that the Liberal Candidate had dismissed 11 potato inspectors—7 of them returned soldiers—on the same charge.

New Glasgow And Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Norman, having returned home after spending the winter in Florida, and are receiving a cordial welcome from their host of friends.

Mr. Edgar Stevenson, Westminister, Mass., is at present on his home here, having been called home on account of the death of his mother, Mrs. James Stevenson which occurred on Thursday evening March 7th.

Misses Ruth Stevenson and Doris Cavender were visitors to Charlottetown on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Sinclair McKay representative for the Room Hood Flour Co., paid a business visit to this place on Tuesday.

Friends of Mr. James C. Stevenson will regret to learn of his continued serious illness.

The Ladies Aid and Missionary Society of the Christian Church met at the Parsonage for their March meeting on Tuesday afternoon, March 5th. Quite a large attendance of members and visitors were present; after the meeting refreshments were passed and a social hour followed.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Jas. Stevenson was held on Sunday at 2 p. m. a short service was held at her home followed by a service in the Christian Church which was filled with sympathetic friends and relatives of the deceased. The Pastor Rev. I. Cavender conducted the services. She leaves to mourn her
