CATARRH

Every fourth person you meet has catarrh. It begins with running at the nose, the result of catching cold. If neglected it soon becomes chronic. Then it passes to the throat, the stomach, the bowels. It causes asthma, deafness, huskiness, hoarseness; it sets up dyspepsia and bowel troubles—there is no end to the dangers of catarrh.

Veno's won the Grand Prix and Gold Medal, International Health Exhibition, Paris, 1910.

You can cure a cold in the head in one night with Veno's Lightning Cough Cure; you can cure catarrh with it. For old-standing chronic catarrh use Veno's Nasal Tablets along with Veno's Lightning Cough Cure. These two in combination work miracles. Thousands have proved it. IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JANE HALL.

The death occurred Sunday morning at the advanced age of 82 years, of Mrs. Jane Hall, widow of Mr. Samuel B. Hall, after an illness of two months at the home of her son, Mr. John W. Hall. She was a native of Charlottetown a daughter of the late Mr. Joseph Weeks, and leaves to mourn four sons and one daughter, Messrs James B. and Alfred in Seattle, Fredrick in Huntington, Oregon, and John W. at home, and Mrs. A. W. Lea, Calgary. One brother W. A. Weeks, Charlottetown and two sisters Mrs. P. C. Lord, Tryon and Mrs. Passmore Medicine Hat surviving. The funeral will take place Tuesday at 2 p. m., to the People's Cemetery.—C.

MR. LUCIEN ANCOIN

The sudden though not unexpected death of Mr. Lucien Ancoin, Mt. Carmel, came as a severe shock to all who knew him. The deceased passed away on February the 29th at the tender age of 18 years and one month. His illness lasted six months aggravating day by day until finally the conditions became alarming. All that medicinal skill could offer was found of no avail. During his lengthy illness the deceased proved a storic never emitting the least murmur, but on the contrary always trusted in his Maker. He belonged to the Society of the Holy Family and of Temperance. He leaves to mourn a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Zephirin Ancoin, besides four brothers and four sisters. One sister preceded him to the grave three months before. The funeral took place attended by a large circle of friends and relatives who all deeply mourn their loss.—R. I. P.—R.

ETHEL ORA BALLEM

Fell asleep in Jesus on March 12th, at the age of two years and six months, Ethel Ora Ballem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ballem, Cross Roads. Until three weeks previous to her death Ethel had always been a bright and lovable child the light and life of the home, where the children's voice will be sadly missed. Stricken with spinal meningitis, despite all that medical aid and loving care could do, the tender spirit passed away to Him who gave it. Beside a bereaved mother and father there are left to mourn the loss of a beloved little sister, one brother Earl and one sister, Mildred. The following floral offerings were sent:—

Wreath—Teacher and pupils of Cross Road school; crescent. Mrs. Frank Drake, Charlottetown; potted plant, Mrs. Alfred Stewart; potted plant, Dorothy Stewart; The services were conducted by Rev. D. McLean. The funeral was largely attended and a large cortege followed the remains to Birch Hill Cemetery. The sympathy of their numerous friends goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Ballem in their bereavement.

"Darling Ethel we shall miss thee in this transient earthly home. But a brighter world thou entered. When the Father's voice said come."

WATCH AND PRAY.

(Written for The Guardian.) "Watch and pray that ye enter not into temptation: for in such an hour as ye think not the son of man cometh." Matt. 26:41; 24:44.

Ye who are ensnared by the world's gay charms Whose minds to vain pleasures are given; Do you think you are treading the straight narrow path, The path that leads upward to Heaven?

Ye who will not give of your money or goods To the children who're crying for bread; To succor the brave lads who suffer such pain On the field amidst the dying and dead;

Ye who will not give except ye receive In return some amusement and fun At social or tea-party, picnic or ball; Think ye on what path do ye run?

The time draweth near, when your Lord shall return to watch and pray; He bade you to watch and to pray; And what shall He say when you've slighted his Word? When He finds you at dance hall or play? He'll return to the joy of the faithful who watch, But the worldly He will not regard;

ALL CHILDREN LOVE

"SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

GIVE IT WHEN FEVERISH, CROSS, BILIOUS, FOR BAD BREATH OR SOUR STOMACH.

Look at the tongue. Mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has stomachache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

They'll behold Him in terror, confusion and woe, And destruction shall be their reward.

Around you are weeping lone children and wives, And mothers whose sons have been slain; Do you weep not with them in their sorrow and woe? How can you light hearted remain?

One master or other ye are serving always? Is the meek, lowly Jesus your guide? Then take up your cross, be not servants of sin; For He scorns those by whom He's denied.

Ah! turn from the path of folly and sin, Lest you suffer the Belgians' fate; Turn now to the great God who looketh on all, Turn quickly before it's too late.

Gather often together, not for pleasure and fun, But to kneel at the Throne of God's grace And plead with Him there that His wrath be appeased, That the sword may be sheathed in its place.

Ah! mingle your tears with the sorrowing throng; Give freely of what you've received; Pursue not your own selfish pleasures and aims For God is not mocked nor deceived.

He has warned.— He has threatened destruction shall come To the erring by pestilence and word; Oh, heed now His words, be afflicted and mourn.

For firm stands the Word of the Lord. 'Tis said, man's a shadow and life is a dream, And all things that are earthly decay; Then follow the Saviour and seek ye by faith The joy that endureth for aye.
