

ACTIVE

This year a new committee has been added to our list of standing committees to co-operate with the Institute for the Blind and it is the hope that one of the Field Secretaries of that Institution will address us in the near future.

We regret that four members found it necessary to resign on account of their inability to aid in the work. Mrs. James Palmer, who has been ill for more than a year, was almost a Charter Member and Mrs. J. S. Morris of very long standing. I think we should have a Special Honourary List for veterans in the work who assure us of their sympathy.

In this looking back over the year it is always sad to note those who have passed on. In December, Mrs. J. R. Burnett was taken away after a long illness; always faithful, even when ill she was interested and willing to do her share. We shall miss her gentle presence. Another member, Mrs. S. C. Moore, (a Secretary of the Chapter for some years) who had been ill for six years, slipped away into the Unknown. Deep sympathy is extended to sorrowing families.

Sorrow has closely touched many of our members. Mrs. J. S. Bagnall, a faithful Vice President having lost her husband. Others have themselves gone through serious illness, or have illness in their homes. To all these and the sick and shut-ins we extend our loving sympathy.

I would like to urge upon you all your duty as members to subscribe to "Echoes." Besides keeping us in touch with the work of the Order, the magazine is well worth a place in the home on its own merits. This organization is not primarily a money making one though a safe balance in the Bank does make for greater service and so from time to time it is found necessary to add to our funds. Notwithstanding there are other things that count—sympathy and kindness. True happiness is only gained by self-forgetfulness in service. Nothing is achieved for oneself or the Order by letting others shoulder responsibilities which should be shared by all. Remember our motto—"Ever Loyal."

SECRETARY'S REPORT

Madam Regent and Ladies:

I have the honor to present the thirty-second annual report of Royal Edward Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. During the year we have held 9 regular meetings, of which 7 were presided over by the Regent Mrs. J. A. Mathieson, and during her absence from the province her place was filled by Mrs. H. R. Hillson. The average attendance at these meetings is the highest on record, evidencing either that the meetings are more interesting, or that members are more conscientious in the matter of attendance. Three executive meetings have been held.

The annual meeting of the National Chapter was held in Toronto in the last week in May, and we were fortunate to be able to secure the services of Mrs. F. S. Wilkins as delegate to that meeting. If time and space would permit, nothing in this review of the year's work would be half so beneficial as the reproduction here of our delegate's report of the National annual meeting. It seems a waste that such an intelligent grasp and presentation of the national scope of our many apparently unrelated activities, should be read once to the limited number present at one particular meeting and then never again referred to.

In educational matters our interests seem to broaden and take on more importance every year. Last year's overseas scholar, Mr. Bramwell Chandler, attending Edinburgh University has been granted a second term under the National War Memorial Fund; Miss Marie Clark is attending Dalhousie University and the Prov. Educ. Secy.—Mrs. Macmillan—receives satisfactory reports of the use these students are making of the opportunity thus offered them. It seems a pity there are no eligible applicants for Bursaries, the other provinces gaining by our loss. A number of the War Memorial Pictures are to be framed by the local Manual Training Dept. and will be ready for distribution. A set of these beautiful pictures has been offered for the new Prince of Wales College to replace the set destroyed by fire in the old building. Our Vice Regent, Mrs. Hillson has been served with the Prov. Ed.

ion under the War Memorial Fund. Interest in local educational matters was shown by prizes awarded in all public schools for Canadian History, and again by prizes to students making highest marks in a special examination in current history, emphasis being laid on the work of the League of Nations. While these prizes individually may seem trifling they form a very considerable percentage of our funds. We receive from time to time many encouraging proofs that the public does appreciate our efforts to stimulate interest in all subjects which tend to bind us more closely to the other members of the great British Commonwealth of Nations, but one such proof is of interest in that members of one family in this city have received Daughters of the Empire prizes on five different occasions. Patriotic calendars have been distributed in the public schools, and a tea was made to members to donate to the Public Library books adapted for children's reading; members were also reminded that the Child Welfare and Immigration Committee are continually asking for second hand textbooks.

Our national affiliations have not brought anything of special interest this year, possibly due to the fact that no undertakings of any size can be considered in view of conditions in the western provinces.

Within The Order

The Stewart Endowment Fund Committee of which our Regent is a member, in November acknowledged a contribution of $100.00.

The chapter has been asked to consider a contribution to the Susie Sorabji Memorial Building at Poona.

Child Welfare work has been carried on by the Immigration Committee because the interests of these two branches of our work seem to overlap. Every request has been met—these requests have been largely for reading matter, school-books, school supplies, and clothes. A College student has been outfitted with books and helped with clothes, and many parcels of warm clothing have been sent from this chapter to needy families, after circumstances had been investigated. Through the work of Mrs. Goodwill groups of members visited the Pure Milk Plant, helping the local Red Cross to supply free milk where it was urgently needed.

Co-operating with the Victoria League correspondence has been encouraged between our school-children and those in other parts of the empire. Canadian National Institute Blind has an efficient committee within our membership in Mesdames Mathieson, Hillson, Blanchard.

Patriotic Holidays were observed as follows: Paardeberg Day members attended special services for South African veterans in St. James' Church, and placed wreath on South African war memorial.

St. George's Day, members attended special services in St. Paul's Church for the Boy Scout Association. Flowers were also sent to patients in the local Sanatorium.

Trafalgar Day, Chapter sponsored the British picture "The Ghost Train."

Armistice Day, members attended service of remembrance in St. James' Church and Veterans' monument, where wreath was placed for the chapter by the Regent.

The executive also accepted an invitation to be present at the laying of the cornerstone of the new P. E. I. Hospital building. Money making activities included the sale of Alexandra Roses on May 20th which resulted in an encouraging amount and the sale of the picture "The Ghost Train." These two items, with a small percentage on playing cards, together with the very small sum of $1.00 which we pay in dues per year, make up our total revenue. A series of Monday afternoon bridges has been planned to augment our balance which has shrunk to an alarmingly small sum. All members are urged to attend these Monday afternoon gatherings.

Special Christmas work was carried on as usual—many members finding pleasure in thus helping others. With the co-operation of the different troops of Scouts, Christmas brought cheer to many discouraged homes. From our list of families of returned men needing help, three families were taken care of by Zion Scouts and Cubs, and one family each by St. Paul's St. James', and St. Peter's troops. Sick and absent members were also reminded of our interest in their welfare, and grateful acknowledgements were in some cases accompanied by contributions to our funds. Each year in recording the passing of some member from our midst we are shocked into a realization of how short a part we each of us may play on life's stage. This year with deep regret we record the death of Mrs. J. R. Burnett, and of Mrs. S. C. Moore, and to the bereaved members of both families we offer our deepest sympathy.

Resignations have been regretfully accepted from four former members; Mrs. R. H. Jenkins was transferred to a chapter in Calgary and two new members, Mrs. C. N. Brown and Mrs. W. A. Stewart have been added to our membership list.

Respectfully submitted MARY BREHAUT

EDUCATION REPORT

Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, February 18th, 1933

Madam Regent and Ladies: The following is the report of the Acting Secretary of Education for the year ending February, 1933.

This year the National War Memorial Committee are publishing in pamphlet form a report of their activities to date with a brief record of the different students who have benefited from their awards. Perhaps it would be interesting to look back over the list from our own Province. The first Overseas scholar was Miller Campbell, Wiltshire, who attended Edinburgh University in 1922-23. Mr. Campbell has since held several teaching positions in Western Canada and is now on the staff of Nutana Collegiate, Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. In 1924-25 George Gardiner, Charlottetown, attended Cambridge University and on his return received his Doctor's Degree from Yale. He now holds a responsible position with the Bureau of Standards at Washington. In 1926-27 Mark Inman, Argyle Shore, attended Oxford University but owing to ill health was obliged to return to Canada early in the New Year. He is now an Assistant Professor in Economics at the University of Western Ontario. In 1927-28 Nathaniel White, Summerside, was a student at Oxford where he received the degree of Master of Arts. He is at present practising law at Bridgewater, Nova Scotia. In 1929-30 Harry Foster, Charlottetown, studied at Oxford University and since his return has been attending Toronto University from which institution he expects to receive his Ph.D., degree at the next convocation. In 1930-32 Stewart MacNutt, Charlottetown attended the University of London receiving the Degree of Master of Arts. He is now on the staff of Kings' Collegiate, at Windsor, Nova Scotia. In 1932 Bramwell Chandler, Charlottetown, entered Edinburgh University where he is at present specializing in English and History. The Committee of Selection of the War Memorial met last November and awarded the Overseas Scholarship to Mr. Chandler for a second term.

The list of our Bursary holders since the establishment of the War Memorial is not large owing to the fact that we have not had many eligible candidates. The Bursary is given only to children of deceased, or permanently disabled soldiers, sailors or air men. It is of the value of $1,200.00 for four years study in a Canadian University. In 1925 Mae Gardiner, daughter of the late Alfred Gardiner of Launching, took her freshman year at Prince of Wales College and received the Governor General's medal on her graduation. Owing to ill health Miss Gardiner did not pursue her studies beyond Prince of Wales College and has given up her Bursary. Marie Clarke, daughter of the late Jesse Clark of Georgetown received our Bursary in 1928. She took the third year work at Prince of Wales College and in 1930, after teaching a year, entered Mount Allison University. Her work for the first term was very satisfactory but during the Christmas holidays she underwent an operation for appendicitis in the hospital at Sackville and owing to complications she was not able to leave the hospital until the following May. In the autumn of 1931 she entered Dalhousie University as a sophomore and this year is continuing her studies there in a most satisfactory manner. There is no applicant for the Bursary for this Province for the year 1932-33 in spite of the fact that a careful survey of all eligible children has been made and literature posted at Prince of Wales College and St. Dunstan's University.

Calendars have also been placed in City Schools and renewal subscriptions provided for the United Empire Magazine.

Your Educational Committee could have used to good advantage in our school work some of the best current event magazines and would welcome donation of same.

The Chapter has also interested itself in the Girl Guides. In October, a public meeting was held in the Legion Rooms for the purpose of re-organizing the Guides. Our Regent and three other delegates were appointed to attend that meeting. Although we did not sponsor a Company, we expressed our willingness to assist in all possible ways in making the movement a success.

It would be impossible to close this report without mentioning the Educational work done by the League of Nations Committee who have been eager to arouse and keep alive an interest in this important international peace-promoting enterprise. Through the untiring efforts of the Convener, Mrs. Wilkins, information concerning the aims, purposes and accomplishments of the League was provided teachers of the City Schools and after the knowledge had been faithfully imparted to students, an examination was held and twenty-five Dollars in prizes distributed to successful competitors.

Respectfully submitted, (MRS.) BESSIE BETHUNE (Chapter Educational Secretary)

COMPETITIONS

The Christmas Card design, Short Story, and One Act Play competitions have been advertised in the newspapers and considerable literature has been sent out in response to enquiries.

CALENDARS

Our Province received one hundred and eleven Patriotic Calendars. Seventy-five were ordered by The Royal Edward Chapter and thirty-six by the Abegweit Chapter.

LIBRARIES

Our two travelling libraries are this year in the schools at Burbury and Cross Roads. Just recently they have been exchanged and the teachers and pupils have expressed themselves as being very grateful to the Order for the use of the books. What we call a Library is a set of twenty or more books, which supplies supplementary reading along the lines of history, geography and fiction and they are chiefly for the younger children. Annexed hereto is the Financial Statement for the year.

Respectfully submitted, HAZEL MACMILLAN Acting Secretary of Education for Prince Edward Island.

REPORT OF FINANCIAL SECRETARY

Madam Regent and Ladies: As Chapter Educational Secretary, I wish to submit the following report for the year, 1932.

In February, the City Schools wrote an essay on David Livingstone in the competition for the Sarah Maxwell Memorial Prize. Twenty essays were received—fourteen from West Kent School and two from Rochford Square. Miss Laura K. Scott kindly read these essays and awarded first place to Miss Helen Agnew of Miss Irving's Dept., Prince St. School. This essay was sent to Toronto and won second in all Canada, the first award going to Miss Phyllis Joyce Addison, Girls' Central School, Victoria, B. C., and the third to Miss Darrell Munroe, Smith St. School, Fredericton, N. B. As Miss Agnew's teacher is a member of our Chapter, the winning of this prize is most gratifying to us. The Vice Regent, Mrs. Hillson, presented the prize, a beautiful book entitled "Our Empire Story" at the celebration of Empire Day in May. The Chapter also donated a two and one half dollar prize for this essay, which was given at the Closing Exercises in June.

When the City Schools reopened in September, we had a great many requests for school books. Most of these were able to obtain from students who had matriculated into Prince of Wales College and were only too pleased to give them to us. We heartily thank these students for their generosity. In this way we collected about thirty books. For a First Year P. W. C. Student, we found it necessary however to buy some of the most expensive books, also for a Tenth Grade pupil at North River, and for a child who had done exceptionally well in the Public School Leaving Certificate Examinations, and whom we had to practically fully equip to enable her to continue her studies. In all, we have been able to help about fourteen children. As in other years a prize of $5.00 for History has been given to each of the City Schools. Calendars have also been placed in City Schools and renewal subscriptions provided for the United Empire Magazine.

Your Educational Committee could have used to good advantage in our school work some of the best current event magazines and would welcome donation of same.

The Chapter has also interested itself in the Girl Guides. In October, a public meeting was held in the Legion Rooms for the purpose of re-organizing the Guides. Our Regent and three other delegates were appointed to attend that meeting. Although we did not sponsor a Company, we expressed our willingness to assist in all possible ways in making the movement a success.

It would be impossible to close this report without mentioning the Educational work done by the League of Nations Committee who have been eager to arouse and keep alive an interest in this important international peace-promoting enterprise. Through the untiring efforts of the Convener, Mrs. Wilkins, information concerning the aims, purposes and accomplishments of the League was provided teachers of the City Schools and after the knowledge had been faithfully imparted to students, an examination was held and twenty-five Dollars in prizes distributed to successful competitors.

Respectfully submitted, (MRS.) BESSIE BETHUNE (Chapter Educational Secretary)

REPORT OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS COMMITTEE 1932-33

Madam Regent and Ladies: The past year has been one of considerable activity, keeping the League of Nations constantly in the public eye. The Council, the Assembly, or its Special Committee, and the Conference for the Reduction of Armaments, have sat simultaneously or successively almost without a break.

We, in Prince Edward Island, have aided the work of the League in two ways. First, by our financial support, and secondly, by educational means. Once again, acting in collaboration with the Provincial Superintendent of Education, Royal Edward Chapter sponsored another history examination in Grades IX and X of the city schools. The questions dealt with the many activities of the League—Social, Political and Humanitarian, but particularly in regard to the preservation of World Peace.

As an aid to teachers and pupils in preparing for this examination, we published a weekly column in both local papers, thus enabling them to keep in touch with current events of world interest.

In this connection we must express our deep appreciation of the work of Mr. R. H. Rogers and Professor Lloyd Shaw, who also prepared the examination paper, and to the Editors of both papers for their cordial assistance.

Twelve prizes were presented at the Christmas closing exercises. Judging from the high marks obtained, our children are laying the foundation for an intelligent understanding of world problems, and of the means by which we are attempting at least a partial solution.

We are gratified that Abegweit Chapter also offered prizes for a similar examination in the Summerside High School, and we look forward to the day when every school in Prince Edward Island will take a vital interest in this important subject.

During the past year two new members have been admitted to the League; Turkey on July tenth, and Iraq on October third. Iraq, a mandate of Great Britain, is the first of the mandated territories to pass to that of a sovereign state.

The Financial Organization of the League has had a particularly heavy task during the past twelve months. Various governments have successfully applied for assistance and advice, which after careful investigation has been given.

The activities of the Health Organization have not been relaxed: a few brief examples may be quoted: co-operation with the Greek, Bolivian and South African governments in plans for sanitary organizations;—the Commissions at work studying the cause, and devising the remedies for such dread plagues of mankind as small-pox, cancer, malaria and sleeping sickness, the campaign against epidemics in China.

The work carried on in connection with intellectual co-operation has covered a wide area:—the instruction of youth in the aims of the League;—keeping an eye on the "movies" and "broadcasting" that they shall not be used to foster national egotism and jealousy; trying to get the worst international slanders and outbursts of racial hate removed from the text books of the world; the preservation of historic monuments; the re-organization of public instruction in China; these are only a few branches of the work.

Marked progress has been achieved in the reduction of the manufacture and export of narcotic drugs. The education of blind children, the organization of children's courts, the suppression of the traffic in women and children, still continues, as well as the assistance to hundreds of thousands of refugees, in Syria, Armenia and other countries.

Slavery and slave trading have been practically eliminated except in Abyssinia, Arabia and adjacent territories, and these evils are being rapidly suppressed in their last strongholds.

In the political realm, we can merely enumerate a few of the many disputes brought to the League for settlement; the claims of the Finnish Government; the Anglo-Persian dispute; the assistance to Liberia which brought about the pacification of the Kru tribes within two months.

Time will not permit us to study closely the most important problem ever brought before the League—the Sino-Japanese dispute. Neither Nation has been found blameless, but the League, after months of careful investigation has taken a firm stand. Japan must submit to the proposals of the League, or face the active disapproval of the nations of the world.

These are momentous days and we must strive to keep our minds clear and unprejudiced. We should not forget the ever increasing race in armaments, and the armament firms in every civilized country ready to plunge the nations into another bloody maelstrom for their own selfish ends.

Our national executive committee, recognizing this menace to world peace, petitioned the Dominion Government regarding the manufacture and sale of armaments by private corporations.

Let us not be misled by war propaganda either in the press, or on the lips of well meaning but misinformed people. Have we not all heard that war with Japan was desirable, and that it would restore domestic prosperity? It is amazing to hear many people demanding the poison that has brought on our present disaster.

He is a poor "patriot" who speaks of war in the present crisis. The highest type of patriot is the one who recognizes war for the ruinous thing it actually is; and who resolutely discourages all war-like overtures.

Prince Edward Island and all her sister provinces have a war record which we cherish with undying pride, but, as members of a great Order let us not forget that "peace is also a conquest" and that "peace making is the greatest adventure, the biggest revolution in which human beings have ever yet engaged."

Respectfully submitted, IRENE S. WILKINS, Provincial Convener League of Nations.

CHILD WELFARE AND IMMIGRATION COMMITTEE

Madam Regent and Ladies: While the report of this committee must be much of a repetition from year to year in that we report so many cases of distress relieved, so many bundles of warm clothing distributed, etc., yet the human side of the work is always different in the details and intensely interesting. Your secretary receives many strange confidences and many diverse requests—from finding a market for carrots, potatoes or sweaters, discussing ways and means of making an employer pay his employees who happen to belong to one of our families, all the way to placing sons of these same families in line for training in their life work. No request goes unanswered—the answer may not be adequate, but at least a sympathetic interest is expressed. Many grateful letters are received to thank us for our interest in these people who are strangers to us except in name. That many of them are most worthy of help is evidenced by a study of the list of prize winners at the school fairs in their different districts—ours of our families took more than 12 prizes at one fair.

The Education Secretary's report contains a detailed account of the help given to boys and girls who were unable to secure books and school supplies to carry on their work; we were also able to help with school clothes for these. It is interesting to know that 4 overcoats in excellent condition, besides many many other articles of clothing, were supplied this fall—three of these going to students. Bedclothes, mattresses and comforters, were also among the many donations to this work. Special thanks should be given to friends outside our membership list who have very considerably helped this committee by their donations—splendid parcels have been sent in by Mrs. Alton Burke, Mrs. F. S. Chandler, Mrs. S. L. Green and Mrs. Elmer Ritchie. To the Red Cross our chapter sent milk for three months, to families in need in the city.

Our special Christmas work was simplified this year because so many members helped. Mention should be made of the results of the work of Mrs. W. S. Grant and Mrs. T. W. L. Prowse who made themselves responsible for the placing of a real Christmas pudding in each family parcel. Nearly 60 puddings were collected, and where family was large, parcel received an extra. Many new names were added to our list this year which was to be expected; of these six were in Prince County, and their names were forwarded to Abegweit Chapter to be dealt with; the Boy Scouts co-operated with us again this year, and Zion Cubs and Scouts took three families off our hands, St. Peter's, St. Paul's and St. James' each accounting for one. This co-operation is gratifying because where the need is so great, it is necessary that some central agency be responsible for investigation into the names listed so that our charity be not abused, and that over lapping may not take place. In addition to above named who helped families on our list, citizens have asked to be given names of children who were not likely to receive help from any other source. Too much cannot be said in gratitude to the real workers in connection with the sending of these parcels. While everyone who brings in her donation helps immeasurably, after these are all assembled and portioned out there is the truly exhausting work of packing, tying, delivering of the post office, and mailing. This work could not have been done except for the expert help of Messrs G. Elmer Ritchie, F. S. Wilkins, Wm. Warren, John Morris, and A. C. Parent. Five scouts also assisted in bagging candy, nuts, etc. Geo. Chandler, Don MacMillan, Sandy Lawson, Borden Kelly and Charlie Love.

To all of these willing workers and to the staff in the Post Office who in their busiest season cheerfully and courteously received this assortment of heavy parcels, our most grateful thanks is extended.

To any members who may have public school textbooks that are not in use, we suggest that these be brought to the Chapter rooms, so that they may be available when needed; and may we again remind you of the insatiable demand for reading matter, especially for current magazines. These will be called for; so great a value is placed upon them that in some families they are bound between cotton covers and resent to other parts of the Island. A truly wonderful parcel of unusual magazines—those of special interest to people from England—was received from Mr. H. G. Rogers and distributed copies of "The Sketch" sent in by Mr. Birtwhistle were gratefully received.

We have for immediate consideration two appeals for help from families who appear to be destitute. An investigation is being made, and your committee will send out all help possible if the need is real.

Respectfully submitted by THE EXECUTIVE

MINSTREL SHOW

The vocal and instrumental numbers were well chosen and well rendered, the ensemble joining in on the chorus in most of the former. A notable novelty number was given by the Georgia Bell Ringers who played "The Last Rose of Summer" with splendid effect.

Programme

Following was the programme:

Overture—Southern Melodies. "The Merry Minstrels Orchestra." "When the Minstrels Come to Town"—Entire Company.

Vocal Solo—"The Voice in the Old Village Choir"—John McQuaid. Vocal Solo—"Just a Little Street Where Old Friends Meet"—Leo Doiron.

End Song—"Pink Elephants"—2nd Bones. Vocal Duet—"When Mother Played the Organ"—Masters Brown & Steele.

Vocal Solo—"Hum a Minstrel Song"—Leo Doiron. Violin Solo—"Mighty Lak" a Rose"—Alfred McKearney.

Vocal Solo—"Rock-a-Bye-Moon"—A. R. McInnis. End Song—"Mammy"—1st Bones.

"The Merry Minstrels" Male Quartette—"Doan Ye Cry, My Honey"—Messrs. Doyle, Doiron, Campbell, Chaisson. Shuffle Dance—Master Austin Stanley.

Vocal Solo—"River Stay Away From My Door"—Alfred Doucette. End Song—"The Crazy 'Dixie' Song"—1st Tambor.

Vocal Solo—"When Your Smiling"—Master Garfield Chappelle. End Song—"Mammy's Little Coa Black Rose"—2nd Tambor.

Bass Solo—"The Skipper"—Martin Power. Vocal Solo—"Old Black Joe"—Rev. Dr. Bernard Gillis.

Arrival of Old Black Joe in person (Al Dowling and the Sunshine Piccaninny Master Dennis Dowling).

Dancing Specialty—Wm. Trainor Grand Finale—"Minstrel Days Are Here Again"—Entire Company. God Save the King.

It may be noted that Master Dennis Dowling, who delighted the audience with his step dancing, is only five years of age. His act was received with hearty applause.

Following was the ensemble: Rev. Dr. Bernard Gillis, Benedict Callaghan, Wilfred Arsenault, Leo Chaisson, Arthur Reardon, Leo Doiron, Urban Gallant, Alfred Doucette, Arthur R. McInnis, Basil McQuaid, Patrick McTague, William Trainor, S. F. Doyle, Cornelius Campbell, Leo Callaghan, Martin Power, John McQuaid, Reggie Mahar, Frank McIntyre, Austin Stanley, Edward Hornby, Garfield Chappelle, Albert Brown, Lorne Arsenault, Arthur Brown, Michael Kelly, Bernard Gallant, Thomas Norrie, George Steele, Bert Steele, Eddie Walsh, Elzear Peters.

Mr. Albert Blanchard was accompanist. Among those present was His Honour Lieutenant-Governor Dalton.

The show which is held under the auspices of the Holy Name Club will be presented again this evening. A matinee performance was given yesterday for the school girls. Another will be given today for the boys.

"What are you children playing?" asked mother one day. "We're playing church," replied Jackie.

"How nice!" said mother; "but worshippers shouldn't whisper in church."

"We know that, mother," said Jackie, "but we're the choir."
