GENERAL ELECTION BEFORE YEAR ENDS

Owing to Liberal Opposition Resolution for Extension Will Not be Sent to Senate and Election Before End of Year is Now Only Way Out.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) OTTAWA.—Despite the desertion of Hon. Geo. P. Graham and F. F. Pardee from the war Liberals there is still an excellent prospect of the union of the war parties under the leadership of Sir Robert Borden.

His offer of cabinet representation was generous to the extreme and beyond the expectations of the Liberal faction who expected to join the war administration. It can also be said that the sincerity of such men as Dr. Clark, Hugh Guthrie, F. B. Carvell, Geo. McCraney, W. A. Buchanan and like members among the war Liberals was never questioned.

HUNS ASK SEAS' FREEDOM, NO ACQUISITIONS, FRIENDSHIP

COPENHAGEN.—The Reichstag's proposed peace resolution, which according to the Berlin Tageblatt, a majority of the bloc of the Centre Radicals and Socialists decided Friday evening to introduce unchanged upon the reassembling of the Reichstag reads as follows: "As on August 4, 1914, so on the threshold of the fourth year of the war, the German people stand upon the assurance of the speech from the throne—we are driven by no lust of conquest."

of the stirring up of enmity among the peoples after the war. The freedom of the seas must be assured. Only ground for the friendly association of the peoples. "The Reichstag will energetically promote the creation of international judicial organizations. So long, however, as the enemy Governments do not accept such a peace; so long as they threaten Germany and her allies with conquest and violation the German people will stand together as one man, hold out until shaken and fight until the rights of itself and its allies to life and development are secured. The German nation united is unconquerable."

GERMAN STEAMERS CAPTURED BY BRITISH

Contain Valuable Cargoes of Coal, Coke and Provisions. Germany will Lay Up 30 Steamers in Rotterdam Rather Than Risk Going to Sea.

(Canadian Press Despatch.) LONDON.—Telegrams from an unnamed east coast port to where the German ships were brought after being captured by British destroyers in the North Sea, say they are all trim serviceable crafts, manned by a dozen to eighteen men. They contain valuable cargoes of coal, coke and provisions. A report says one of the vessels is the Great Eastern steamer Brussels for whose capture the Captain Fryatt was executed by the German in June of last year. A despatch from Amsterdam says, steamers are constantly plying between Rotterdam and Hamburg, carrying provisions and German coal. The latter is sent by the Rhine to Rotterdam, whence it is shipped to Hamburg in order to relieve congestion on German railroads. It has been announced from Rotterdam that Germany has decided to lay up thirty coal steamers there instead of attempting to run them through the sea lane.

from Rotterdam, occurred in Dutch territorial waters, is generally discredited in naval circles here. The only report thus far received at the Admiralty came from the commanders of the British forces in action in the form of wireless summaries, the substance of which was corroborated in yesterday's official statement. Complete reports, when received, are expected to clear up the situation satisfactorily. THERE WERE SEVENTEEN OF THEM AND ALL WERE STRANDED, CAPTURED OR SUNK. (Canadian Press Despatch.) YIMUDEN, HOLLAND.—The German merchantmen Magdalena, Blumenthal, which went ashore of Zealand, while attempting to run the British blockade from Rotterdam to Germany, is a total wreck. The crew, one of whose members was wounded, has been landed. The Blumenthal was one of the 17 German merchantmen which put out from Rotterdam, most of which were either stranded or sunk or captured by British destroyers.

SOME TYPICAL LIBERAL INCONSISTENCIES

Mr. Bell and the Patriot claim to be inexpressibly shocked at the action of the present government in expending certain sums on emergency repairs to roads and bridges without the appropriation having been voted by the legislature. Will the Patriot or Mr. Bell or both explain how they justified the payment in 1909 of $12,159.75 for land for the Experimental Farm without the approval afterwards of the legislature? This was $12,159.75 paid for land not then and not yet owned by the province, and moreover the Experimental Farm in Canada bought by a provincial government and owned by the Dominion. True $3,292.50 of this amount was afterwards refunded but this does not alter the fact that the payment was made without the sanction of the legislature and made also for a farm which had the Liberal Government been gifted with ordinary business prudence, would have been paid for by the Dominion Government.

as required. Some $9,000 was later required by the contractor but the trustees could not withdraw any of the deposit without the signature of the chairman, Sir Charles Dalton, who was off the province just at that particular time. The Government, in order to let the work be proceeded with, paid the claim and, later, on the return of the chairman the whole amount was repaid to the government. One noteworthy difference between this transaction and that in connection with the Experimental Farm under the Liberals was that the Liberals handed over $8,567.25 to the Dominion Government as a gift, for they had not then, nor have they now, any title to or interest in the property it was invested in. The Sanatorium, which cost $65,000 and is now owned by the province although it did not cost the province one dollar. Another of Mr. Bell's statements, persisted in, although he knows better, is that the government loaned Sir Charles Dalton $10,000. The government did not loan Sir Charles a dollar. The advance was made to the Sanatorium, a corporate body, in which Sir Charles has no more legal interest than Mr. Bell has now. This, which has been fully explained in the legislature time and again explains everything except the unreasonable and unreasonable malignity with which Mr. Bell has followed Sir Charles Dalton since the former became a member of the Legislature.

PLUNKETT BELIEVES IRISH CONVENTION WILL SUCCEED

LONDON.—Sir Horace Plunkett in a statement in reply to a question as to whether he was in agreement with the view that the election of Edward de Valera, a Sinn Feiner, as member of Parliament for East Clare, killed the prospects of a convention in Ireland to consider Home Rule said in part: "The Republicans are not the only extremists. There are quite as many people who are seriously opposed to any change at all as favor complete separation. The convention's work will be to show that neither policy is practicable nor desirable and to find an acceptable compromise between them. It will be a difficult and protracted task, but there will be a substantial majority. The convention on its feet, I believe it will succeed."

called so order and finally was ejected from the House of Commons for an insult to Home Secretary Samuel. It was Mr. George who was recorded as the only member of Parliament to vote in the negative on a resolution expressing Great Britain's appreciation of the entry of the United States into the war.

ONLY DRAW AT BEST, ADMITS HOLLWEG

LONDON.—The Reuter correspondent at Amsterdam, under date of July 13, says that the Bavarian Kaiser publishes what the Rheinische Westfälische Zeitung calls "An almost incredible and sensational revelation," to the effect that Professor Harnack, on June 30, wrote in a letter which he sent to Munich, "an account of an interview he had had a few days ago previously with Dr. German Chancellor, the Imperial Chancellor informed Professor Harnack that his views closely approximated those of Philip Scheidmann, Dr. Eduard David, Socialists, and Dr. Lustina for arms and ammunition and later was rebuked by Chancellor McKenna for suggesting that the British were killing German prisoners. After the recent Irish rebellion he attacked the Government for executing the leaders of the movement and several times afterwards spoke on the subject of the rebellion. Several times he was rebuked.

According to this account, the Chancellor informed Professor Harnack that his views closely approximated those of Philip Scheidmann, Dr. Eduard David, Socialists, and Dr. Lustina for arms and ammunition and later was rebuked by Chancellor McKenna for suggesting that the British were killing German prisoners. After the recent Irish rebellion he attacked the Government for executing the leaders of the movement and several times afterwards spoke on the subject of the rebellion. Several times he was rebuked. In the best case it can only be a draw."
