Murdock Ross, who has opened up business at 140 Great George Street, has received a fine line of new goods, full particulars of which will appear in his ad on Monday.

If that house rents for $100 per year it is a loss of almost thirty cents a day as long as it is idle. A Guardian Classified ad, which will quickly hunt out any person who desires such a house, costs much less than that, in fact almost nothing.

Mrs. Albert Foster, City, is visiting in York; Rev. W. I. Green and wife of Brookfield are visiting in Marshfield; Jas. and Mrs. Stewart, City, are visiting in Dunstaffnage; and Mrs. J. S. Care, Miss Laura Care and Mrs. J. Penpraise, are visiting at W. D. Sherren's, Crapaud.

Among the passengers outward yesterday were Misses W. I. Green and Hantersport from a visit to Miss Hazel Hughes, City; Arthur Saunders, Sackville from a visit to his home in this City and Danl. C. Sands, to New York from a visit to Belle River after an absence of five years.

Parties from all over the Province are planning to attend the Scottish Gathering in Summerside. The committee in charge have every arrangement well in hand and a splendid time will be spent. Hear the bag pipe music by the boy musician and see the real Scotch dances. Plenty refreshments for all.

The ladies of the congregation of the Westmoreland Baptist Church held a very successful lawn party on the grounds of George Newsom on Wednesday evening the 5th inst. Ice cream and cake were served, also fruit and home made candy. Music on the gramophone and piano made the evening pass pleasantly. A snug sum was realized.

Some Guardian readers think that locals about a picnic, social, concert, etc., etc., to take place at some future date are inserted free. Same are however charged at one cent per word each issue, but in aid of a church, temperance or other charitable institution, a discount of fifty per cent is given for ready payment. The news of any of the above, after they have taken place, is published free.

It is practically an assured fact that a packed house will greet Max Heinrich, baritone, and Miss Julia Heinrich, contralto, on the night of Aug. 20th, when they give their grand musical recital in aid of the P. E. Island Hospital. The members of the Ladies Hospital Aid have enthusiastically taken the contract to sell a ticket for every seat in the Opera House, and as the exchange tickets issued by them have preference when the plan is opened, it would be well for those who purpose attending the Musical to purchase their tickets at once before the limit is reached. Plan will be out on Aug. 18th.

The Guardian has received from the Canada Cycle & Motor Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont., through their enterprising and obliging representative, Ernest Rice, of this city, a handsome silver trophy, gold lined in the shape of a mug standing eight and a half inches high and seven and a half inches wide from ear to ear. The trophy is manufactured and guaranteed by the Standard Silver Co., Ltd., Toronto, and is one of the prettiest yet offered in The Guardian's Bicycle Road race to be held on Monday, August 24th. A number of gold medals and another trophy has been kindly given for this race of which full particulars will appear in a few days.

Advertisers are requested to have their "changes" in for the Morning Daily and The Rural Daily not later than 10 a.m. on both Friday and Saturday of each week as part of the big Saturday paper has to be printed on Friday and Guardian employees have a half holiday each Saturday. The news and editorial departments, which will open at 10 a.m. on Saturday, are closed from 1 p.m. to 7.30 p.m. but the advertising and subscription departments are open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., as on other days.

Ganong's and Lovine's chocolates always in hand. Our stock is fresh and the packages of the latest designs. Also Fobler's milk chocolates in 10c packages (flat or round). A. W. Reddin, Phem B., Sunnyside.

Miss M. Woolner of North Rustico has resumed her studies in voice culture with Prof. Earle.
