MONDAY
FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Dennis Peters, who passed away in the Sanatorium on Thursday last, was held from his late residence, 247 Dorchester Street, Saturday morning at High Mass in the cathedral where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Geo. McDonald. The pallbearers were Messrs. Karl Kelly, Hector McQuarrie, John Carmichael, Wm. Hughes, Emmanuel Gallant and James Cannon. The members of the Canadian Legion attended in a body as mourners. Service at the grave was held by Rev. Louis A. Gagnon.

Memorial Day, the occasion for the annual decoration of graves by the Red Cross and the members of the Legion, was observed yesterday at the cemetery. Despite a heavy shower of rain which delayed proceedings, the parade which moved along the I. O. O. F. Hall about 10 o'clock, was a very creditable one. It was headed by the Legion Band, and followed by Mr. John T. Martin, the unavoidable absence of Col. M. Davidson, the procession proceeded directly to the cemetery. The members carried the floral tributes which were placed on the graves of the departed brethren. The older members went to the cemetery by car.

SIMPSON HOME DESTROYED—Fire Saturday afternoon completely destroyed the dwelling home of Mr. Judson Simpson, Belmont, 18. The furniture was saved. The loss of the building, which was one of the finest residences in the neighborhood, is partly covered by insurance. The fire, which is of unknown origin, started about 10 p.m. and raged with great violence for two hours. The inmates of the Simpson home were visiting neighbors at the time. They are now occupying a vacant dwelling on a nearby street. There is much sympathy for Mr. Simpson in the loss which he and his family have sustained.

Members of the Corpus Christi Choir, sixty in all, on invitation of the parish of Mount Carmel and St. Joseph, performed at the church, 10 p.m. The choir, directed by Mr. Theodore Gallant, proceeded by car to Notre Dame de Mount Carmel Church yesterday. Father MacIntyre and Father Gillis accompanied the choir on the trip. The men's choir sang the Mass at 10:30 at which Father Gillis officiated.

At 12 o'clock a sumptuous dinner was served by the ladies of the parish. At 4:30 vespers were sung by the Male Choir, and benediction by the Corpus Christi Choir. At 8 o'clock supper was served. The speeches followed. Mr. W. J. MacIntyre, choir director, thanked the pastor and the ladies of the parish for their fine entertainment. Speeches were also made by Father MacIntyre, Mrs. W. J. MacIntyre, National President of the C. W. L., Mr. Sylvère DesRoches, who expressed the thanks of the choir to the pastor, and by Mr. S. F. Doyle. Father Gallant thanked the members of the choir for their presence.

Visiting the Province at the present time is one of its most illustrious sons, Rt. Rev. Francis C. Kelly, D. D., Ph. D., Litt. D., Bishop of Oklahoma, who arrived in the province on Saturday by car, and who preached the sermon at 11 o'clock yesterday morning at St. Dunstan's cathedral. Bishop Kelly has had a varied career as a soldier, writer, author, traveller, and diplomat. He served as chaplain and captain in the United States army during the Spanish American War. Bishop Kelly, whose last visit to the Province was in 1929 on the occasion of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of St. Dunstan's College, was born at Vernon River and at an early age moved to Charlottetown. He was educated at St. Patrick's School (now Queen Square), St. Dunstan's College, Nicolet and Chicoutimi, Quebec, which were affiliated with St. Mary's, Michigan. He was founder and president of the Catholic Extension Society and editor of the Extension Magazine. He was appointed Bishop of Oklahoma in 1924. He is the son of the late Mr. Kelly, former Water Commissioner of Charlottetown, and is the brother of the late Joseph Kelly, of the C. N. R. freight department. In the past Bishop Kelly has been a prominent international figure. In 1919 he was prominent in the discussions prior to signing of the treaty between the Vatican and the Italian Government regarding disputed points of many years ago. Bishop Kelly was also a prominent authority on the Mexican

He was a very fine resident and held in the highest respect in the community. The funeral took place Sunday at 3:30 and was very largely attended.

FIRE AT BRUDENELL—At 4:30 yesterday morning, an alarm was given Montague for a fire, which occurred at the home of William Campbell, Rosemeath. Awakened by the sound of burning timber, the household discovered the barns to be in a mass of flames. Help was quickly called, Montague sending out fire fighting apparatus, and with combined efforts of neighbors, fire-fighters saved the dwelling house, but the three barns with their contents were totally destroyed. What caused the fire is a mystery. The loss is estimated at $2,500 partially covered by insurance. The buildings burned included a barn 85 x 28 feet containing thirty tons of hay; a pig house and carriage and poultry house combined. A quantity of harness, wagon and some odds and ends were all that was saved.

Dr. Lomer, Librarian of McGill University, will shortly visit the Province on behalf of the Carnegie Corporation to make a study and detailed recommendations to the Board of Education as to the proposed development of public library facilities. D., Minister of Education, who has kept closely in touch with Dr. Keppel since the latter's visit here this summer, has wired cordially accepting the suggestion. Dr. Lomer is regarded as an international authority on library requirements, and his recommendations should prove of great interest and value. The nature of the grant for library facilities which the Carnegie Corporation may make to Prince of Wales College and St. Dunstan's University will be based on final recommendations sanctioned by the Provincial Board of Education. The special requirements of the Province will be given first consideration.

—NEW USE FOR FOX FUR—Mrs. John Arsenault, wife of a fox rancher at the east of Summerside has found a new use for fox fur, her ingenuity and industry proving that even the fur shed by the fox at this time of year can be turned to account. It is usual in July and August to comb out the old fur from the foxes. This is generally burnt as it is usually dirty. Mrs. Arsenault carefully washed the combings and hung the wool out to dry. She next proceeded to card and spin it and was rewarded with yarn of a fine silky texture and dark grey in colour. Out of this Mrs. Arsenault knitted two pairs of gloves, one ladies size and one pair large enough for a gentleman's hands. They are beautifully soft and have the appearance of brushed wool. This is just another example of the industry and thrift of the Acadian women of Prince Edward Island.—S

HAD NARROW ESCAPE—A serious accident was narrowly averted on Tuesday night, when the horse and wagon in which Mr. and Mrs. William Jackman, of Cherry Valley, was struck by a car driven by Mr. John McRae. Mr. Jackman and Mr. McRae were both going in the same direction, South, when it is alleged a car coming the other way, blinded Mr. McRae and he did not see the wagon in the glare of the lights. Mrs. Jackman was thrown and received a bad shaking up and injuries to her head, which fortunately are not dangerous.

THURSDAY
 On Tuesday, Aug. 30th, the Altar and Choir boys of St. Dunstan's Basilica held their annual picnic at Dalvey Hotel. The picnic was a splendid success, one of the best enjoyed by the boys in recent years.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet ceremony took place at Westbourne Baptist Church, the Rev. Mr. Hall officiating on June 1st, when Doris Evelyn, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Taylor, of Calgary, became the bride of David Winfield Profit, also of Calgary. A charming bride, Miss Taylor, carried a bouquet of red roses and was attended by Miss Betty Briscoe. The groom was attended by Mr. S. G. MacCannell, M.C. After a short honeymoon in Banff, Mr. and Mrs. Profit will reside in Calgary. Mr. Profit is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Profit, of Burlington and has lived in the Canadian West for a number of years.

—QUIET WEDDING—A quiet wedding was solemnized in St. Mary's Convent Chapel, Summerside, on Wednesday morning, Rev. G. J. McLellan, D. D., officiating at the Nuptial Mass. The bride was Miss Millicent Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Perry, and the groom was Mr. Joseph Gallant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Gallant, all of Summerside. The bride was charmingly attired in a wedding gown of blue georgette with hat to match and was attended by Miss Clara Gallant. The groomsmen were Mr. Cedric Perry, brother of the bride. After the ceremony the young couple were entertained at the home of the groom and left shortly after on a motor trip to Charlottetown where they took in the air pageant. Mr. and Mrs. Gallant will make their home in Summerside, where their many friends wish them every happiness.—S

The marriage was solemnized at St. Dunstan's Basilica at six o'clock yesterday morning of Helen Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McKenna, 179 Dorchester Street, to Frederick Gerard, son of Mrs. F. F. and the late Dr. Kelly, Rev. Ray McKenzie of St. Dunstan's University, presiding. The bride who was attended by her sister Miss Dorothy Anita, was becomingly gowned in a beige lace dress with brown hat and shoes, wearing a corsage bouquet of roses. The groom was ably supported by Dr. Leo B. McKenna, brother of the bride. Miss Dorothy McKenna, bridesmaid, wore blue crepe de chene with blue hat. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride at which were present only immediate relatives of the wedding party. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly left amid showers of confetti and good wishes for Borden on a honeymoon trip to Canadian cities. Numerous presents of silverware, cut glass, etc., testified to the esteem in which the young couple are held. The bride has for the past two years held the position of dietician in the hospital at Lebanon, Penn., while the groom who was a former prominent member of the Abegweit Club, and a member of the championship hockey team a few years ago, is now coach at Acadia College, Wolfville, N. S. The Guardian joins in happiest congratulations.

He reports a more optimistic tone among business people in Ontario. Fox ranchers, who like other producers have felt the effects of depressed world markets, are also more hopeful. Dr. Oakes, who is on his first visit to the Province, is keenly interested in the fox industry here, and is visiting several of the ranching centres, accompanied by Mr. J. R. Mutch.

Completing twenty-nine years of faithful service in the postal department, Mr. John F. Whear, Post Office Inspector, has been granted six months leave of absence to be followed on the 1st of March by his retirement on superannuation which has been approved of by an Order in Council. Mr. Whear, whose prospective retirement was reported some time ago in The Guardian, was waited upon yesterday by the members of the staffs of Post Office and Inspector's departments and was the recipient of warm expressions of appreciation, accompanied by valuable presentations.

As recently announced in The Guardian, arrangements have been made for a daily mail service between Charlottetown and Murray Harbour. The first trip of the new service will be made today. The courier, Mr. A. E. MacDonald, Vernon Bridge, will leave the city every Thursday at 7 a. m., serving all the offices along the line of railway and returning direct. The Thursday service for the present will be by auto truck. During the other five week-days mails will be forwarded, as heretofore, by train.

Word has also been received from the Post Office Department that a daily service has been granted on the route from Souris East to Elmira, via East Baltic. At the present time the train service is twice weekly between these points, this being supplemented by a motor trip on two other days of the week, thus giving a mail service four days weekly. Through presentations made by Hon. J. A. MacDonald, M.P., the Department has now agreed to put into operation a daily service by team or auto from Souris East. The mail service now carried by train twice weekly will be discontinued. The contractor for the new service which starts on Monday, Sept. 5th, is Mr. A. Long-aphie, Souris.

Fourteen planes of various types took part in Prince Edward Island's second air pageant at Upton Airport yesterday afternoon when remarkable demonstrations of spectacular flying and stunts were given. A large crowd witnessed the aerial display, although the number of paid admissions was small. Great credit is due Dr. J. S. Jenkins and his assistants for their unremitting efforts to create "air-mindedness." The events were announced by Dr. Jenkins and brief addresses were delivered by His Honour Lieutenant Governor Dalton, Hon. H. F. MacPhee, His Worship Mayor Stewart, Mr. Walter Grant and by the winners of the competitive events.

—ATTENDED RE-UNION—Mr. and Mrs. Alex Campbell of Summerside attended a re-union of the McEachern family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McEachern at Mount Albion on Tuesday. There were about twenty-five guests. Mrs. Donald McEachern, who is 92 years of age was the guest of honor. Others of the McEachern family present were Mrs. Fred Richards and Mr. James McEachern of Cherry Valley; Mrs. Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McEachern of Hingham, Mass., and Mrs. Peter Stewart of Marshfield. The hostess served a bounteous supper which was heartily enjoyed. The evening was pleasantly spent in music and happy reminiscences. Mr. Campbell had not visited that part of the Island for thirty years and enjoyed the outing immensely.—S of planes, each one performing the same stunt and following the same path as the leader.

His Honour Lieutenant Governor Dalton, who spoke briefly at the opening of the proceedings at the airport, expressed a hearty interest in aviation, in air transportation, and in the programme which was about to begin. He hoped that all present would have an enjoyable afternoon.

Hon. H. F. MacPhee, who represented the Government, referred to the illness of Premier Stewart, which necessitated his absence from the pageant, and to the interest of the Premier in aviation, which he regarded as being of major importance to the Province. The speaker commended Col. Jenkins for his work in promoting aviation and was certain that the conduct of the pageant was in good hands. The event he saw as a milestone in the progress of aviation in the Province, as many famous flyers had assembled to participate. Upton Airport is unique in that it is the private property of Dr. Jenkins, who with Mrs. Jenkins, has made a great contribution to aviation.

Mr. Walter Grant, President of the Aero Club, drew attention to the fact that the club has a plane for training of students, and that it would be possible to accommodate a considerable number.

Great interest was shown throughout the city in yesterday's solar eclipse, which was seen with perfect clearness excepting for the first part of the phenomenon, when the sun was obscured by clouds. Shortly before the eclipse the sky clouded darkly, and it was feared that nothing would be seen. The clouds, however, dispersed, and the spectacle of the moon's gradual encroachment on the sun until it had blotted out all but the upper rim of the solar surface and passed by imperceptible degrees to the other side, was watched with intense interest. Housetops and other vantage points were lined by sightseers, as were the streets and windows facing on the spectacle. Observers, following the advice in Monday's Guardian, took the precaution of seeing the eclipse through densely smoked glass. Indeed, so bright were the sun's rays that it was impossible to gaze in that direction with the naked eye. The maximum of the eclipse occurred about 4.25 p.m., at which time twilight prevailed. The corona, and other phenomena visible in the path of a total eclipse were not seen here, but the spectacle nevertheless was a marvelous and awe-inspiring one.

FRIDAY
 "Song and laugh, and kindly chaff" was the watchword of the Gyro Convention of District 6 (Maritimes) which continued yesterday, Beach Grove Inn, the convention headquarters, was the scene of great activity in the morning as members got away for tennis, golf and swimming and settled down to the first business session. The luncheon at the Canadian National Hotel followed, while the Gyrettes had luncheon at the Oakwood Tea House.

Mr. Hugh McPhee, New Dominion, brought home the coveted red ribbon from the exhibition on Tuesday of last week with his handsome driving animal. This is a beautiful young animal, sired by the great Axworthy. Horse lovers are pleased to see that the raising of good horseflesh is being revived somewhat, and it is gratifying to know that, of the numerous entries from this side of the river, a good many were the recipients of prize money. Messrs. Daniel Taylor, Nine Mile Creek and Angus McEachern, Rocky Point, each won first prize in the classes for young heavy horses.

On Tuesday evening over 250 guests gathered at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clarke MacQuarrie of Wilmot Valley in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary. The popularity of the bride and groom of twenty-five years was shown by this large gathering and by the lovely gifts of silver that accompanied their good wishes. Mr. and Mrs. MacQuarrie have endeared themselves to the hearts of the people of their community in which they have lived since their marriage. Mr. G. Emerson Huestis was chairman of the evening and attended to his duties in his usual happy manner. He first called up Mr. Clement Carruthers of Bedouge groomsmen of 25 years ago to read an address, which was very suitably replied to by Mr. MacQuarrie. Mr. Harrison MacFarlane next presented the happy couple with a presentation of money in silver and other lovely silver gifts. Mr. and Mrs. MacQuarrie were overwhelmed with the kindness showered upon them, but very graciously thanked one and all for the gifts. A delightful program of music was enjoyed during the remainder of the evening. Mr. Norman Herman and Mrs. Wm. Schurman played violin and piano selections. Duets and quartettes by other guests were heartily enjoyed. Refreshments were served in buffet style. Before leaving each

Two little attendants, the bride's niece and nephew, carried dainty flower baskets of sweet peas. After a wedding breakfast at the bride's home, the wedding party motored to Summerside and were the guests of Mrs. Joseph Arsenault, aunt of the bride, for dinner. They left in the afternoon by motor for a wedding tour through the Maritime Provinces. Mr. and Mrs. Gallant will reside in Egmont Bay where the groom is a prosperous farmer. Their many friends wish them every happiness. Attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. LeBlanc of Moncton, N. B., Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien of Memramcook, N.
