THAT passed away at Long Creek, the 12th inst, a highly respected and Christian woman, in the person of Elizabeth Darrach, beloved wife of Malcolm McConnell, of that place. Deceased who was in the 73rd year of her age was highly esteemed for her untiring kindly spirit and devotion to her family. Her memory will be long held in kindly remembrance by all her neighbors and acquaintances. In her home, friends and strangers were always welcome, and her death leaves a blank in that home, which never can be filled. Deceased was the eldest daughter of the late John Darrach of Clyde River, who was well known as a master ship builder. Mrs. McConnell leaves five brothers and three sisters, and in her own family there is left four sons John and Hammond J in Boston, Duncan in Ch Town, and Hector at home. Also three daughters, Mrs. John J McLean and Mrs. Walter McPhee of Long Creek and Mrs. Ewen McInnes, of Highfield.

A cut glass bottle may please the eye for a time, but after all it's the perfume that counts. We sell the best perfume made, put up in attractive bottles, handsomely labelled and packed in attractive boxes for from $1.00 to $4.75 each. Johnson & Johnson.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Miss—Yes. It is generally considered that the French Perfumes are the best.
Jack—One of the most acceptable gifts for a lady friend is a bottle of good French Perfume. Violet (pronounced Vee-o-lay) perfumes are considered among the best.
Beatrice—It would be quite proper for you to accept a box of Huyler's chocolates from a gentleman friend, even though not engaged to him.
Ruth—I am surprised to learn that you had any trouble in getting the latest French odors Tanager, Fritada, Bonquet Farnesse. Did you try Johnson's Drug Store for them? They advertise the latest.
Henry—A Kodak or a Brownie Camera would make a nice present for one of your little friends.
Walter—Probably the most expensive perfume sold in the city is Tanager, made by Violet, the famous French Perfumer.
Annie—Why not give him a Risk clock.
