The following notice is taken from the "British Columbian" of New Westminster B. C. June 26th. A pretty wedding took place at the home of Ralph and Mrs. Yates, East Burnaby, when their eldest daughter, Mary Evelyn, was united in marriage to D. McDonald, of Fraser Mills, youngest son of D. McDonald, of P. E. I. The bride was supported by Miss Daisy Baxter, of Vancouver, while J. McMillan, a cousin of the bridegroom, acted as groomsmen. The Rev. Mr. Brown, of Queen's Avenue Methodist Church, performed the ceremony. The bride looked lovely in white silk, carrying a shower bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid wore a lovely dress of white embroidered muslin. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a supper spread in a tent on the lawn. Dancing was indulged in until a late hour; the happy couple leave early to spend their honeymoon in Victoria. The bridegroom's present to the bride was a gold locket and chain, and to the bridesmaid a handsome gold brooch, the bride presenting the groom with a set of gold cuff links and studs. The wedding presents and gifts were costly and numerous, including a beautiful oak sideboard from the bride's father's employees, and a Morris chair from the groomsmen. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will reside at Fraser Mills.
