MARITIME CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC HOSPITAL ASSN.

Fifth Convention Now In Session At City Hospital. --Large Number Of Delegates From All Over Maritimes Attending.

The Maritime Conference of the Catholic Hospital Association opened yesterday morning at the City Hospital, fourteen centres throughout the Maritimes being represented with upwards of forty visiting Sisters in attendance, also a number of clergy including His Lordship Bishop Morrison of Antigonish. The Conference which is divided into morning, afternoon and evening sessions, will conclude Friday afternoon when the delegates will visit the Scientific and Commercial Exhibits, Prince of Wales College, Prince Edward Island Hospital and Falconwood.

The Conference opened yesterday morning with the celebration of Votire Mass of the Holy Ghost, celebrated by His Lordship Bishop O'Leary, after which in very appropriate words he greeted the delegates from the different Maritime hospitals, impressing upon them the importance of hospital conventions, and congratulating the Sisters on the progress being made in their different institutions, and hoping that their deliberations would inspire them with still higher ideals.

After Registration the delegates were welcomed by Right Rev. Monsignor Maurice McDonald, who was introduced by the Rev. Father Walsh, Chairman of the meeting. Then followed the reading of very interesting papers, "Hospital Hospitality,' by Sister M. Beatrice, Bethany, Antigonish, N. S., and another on "Liquid Diet," followed by a demonstration by Sister Elizabeth, Dietitian, St. Joseph's Hospital, Glace Bay, N. S.

The papers were commented upon by Rev. P. J. Mahan, S. J., Regent of Loyola University of Medicine, Chicago, Ill. This closed the morning session.

At the afternoon session the Sisters were addressed by Rev. J. R. McDonald, P. P., Georgeville, N. S., his subject being "Hospital Mentality". Another interesting subject was the "Hospital Conference" by Sister Kerr, R. N., R. Ph., Supt. of Nurses, Hotel Dieu of St. Joseph, Campbellton, N. B.

The afternoon session closed at 3 o'clock after which the delegates and other visitors were entertained at Allanmore by His Lordship the Bishop.

During the auto drive to and from Dalvey the delegates were very much impressed with the beautiful scenery along the route and were pleasantly surprised at the well kept farms and the general indications of peace and prosperity on all sides. The hearty appreciation of all was expressed to the many gentlemen who so generously put their cars at the disposal of the party.

The following centres are represented: Montreal, Campbellton, Chatham, Moncton, St. Basille, Tracadie, Saint John, Antigonsh, Glace Bay, Sydney, Inverness.

The morning and afternoon sessions for today are as follows:

Morning Session, 9.00 A. M.

A symposium on nurse education: P. J. Mahan, S. J., Regent of Loyola University of Medicine, Chicago, Illinois.

"The requirements for the Grading of schools of nursing and how may small hospitals meet these requirements."

Discussion: Sister M. Camillus, R. N., Supt. of Nurses, St. John Infirmary, St. John, N. B.

Round Table: Rev P. J Mahan, S. J.

"The Faculty of the School of Nursing in small Hospitals."

Discussion: Sister M. Faustina, R. N., Supt. of Nurses, Charlottetown Hospital, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

Members of the Maritime Con

Round Table: Reverend P. J. Mahan, S. J., Adjournment.

Afternoon Session, 2.00 p. m.

"Weak points of our small hospitals in Nurse Education and their remedies."

Discussion: Sister St. Aloysius, R. N., Supt. of Nurses, Hotel Dieu of St. Joseph, Chatham, N. B.

Round Table: Rev. P. J. Mahan, S. J. Adjournment

In Memoriam

In loving memory of George P. Grady, died June 21st, 1926.
Inserted by his wife.
In the grave yard softly sleeping,
Where the gentle flowers wave,
Lies the one I loved so dearly,
In his silent lonely grave.
Friends may think he is forgotten.
That the wound is surely healed.
But they little know the sorrow,
Lies within my heart concealed.

Splendid Convention

There is another matter—the public roads of this province. The Bell Government professed to have built permanent roads. But they were not permanent. No road is permanent unless it receives attention from time to time. My contention is that if you pay continual attention to ruts in the roads, you will get a good, hard surface. But, if you tear up the roads with heavy power machines, they will remain soft, and become impassable in wet weather, particularly when they have such high crowns as these roads have.

The speaker said it had been the object of the late government to keep the roads in good order with the split log drag. Due to the lack of this dragging, the roads built by the expensive road machinery bought by this government became impassible after the first rain storm.

Mr. Stewart went on to score the present Government for their enormous purchase of road machines—both as to their manner, and as to the purchase itself.

Here we have 25 of these machines purchased and placed in the hands of party favorites, without training in road-making, and often without the capacity for training.

And they borrowed $100,000.00 to purchase these machines, all of which they will have to replace at the end of about five years. Then, they borrowed $300,000.00 for a road gravelling programme. They didn't seem to care how much; they just wanted to borrow. "I don't know," he said, "of any way in which we can spend money more rapidly than by spreading gravel on the roads. Gravelling is necessary—in places. But in putting it down we must keep an eye on the treasury.

There is no quicker way to sink money than in a gravelled road. In a word, the Government have shown absolute incompetence in the matter of road-building. Never have we had worse roads than now. And, for the financial interests of the taxpayers, they have no regard.

The speaker went on to condemn also the government's policy of doing away with statute labour, and introducing a system by which they might be sure that the money spent on the roads would go into Liberal pockets. The Tories would pay the tax, and the Liberals would get the benefit.

"I know", said the speaker, "that I committed a serious sin when I took the post of Acting Minister of Agriculture, for they, following this precedent, have Acting Ministers without end."

Mr. Stewart went on to criticize the policies of the present Minister of Agriculture, alluding to his outcry about the demolishing of the technical school, pointing out that now, with $40,000.00 more to spend, he is doing nothing in this regard.

The present Minister, also, is doing nothing for fruit growing. He dismissed Mr. Reeves, the fruit expert, employed by the late government.

Then, we had reduced taxes—a terrible crime in the eyes of this government. Our premier thinks the paying of high taxes is a good thing for the people of the province. I may be old fashioned, but I cannot see eye to eye with him. You may hear this doctrine preached from the platforms in this province. You are the people who will have to pay, and you must be the judges.

Mr. Stewart dealt with the question of the subsidy, showing that the $125,000.00 received under the Duncan award was only an interim payment, given until the final award was decided on.

At the late provincial conference many nice flowers of speech and bouquets were thrown. But such things do not help, in any way, the financial condition of this province.

In 1926 Mr. Stewart said he presented the provinces claims for the railway subsidy and got results. He presented the claims for subsidy to the Duncan Commission and got results.

However, Mr. Saunders went up, said his say and came back, with the result that the province is poorer today by the amount of his travelling expenses.

The speaker spoke of the Finances of the province and the Public Accounts, speaking in glowing terms of the qualifications of Mr. Shannon and Mr. Hyndman as Auditors. Their audit gave a tremendous deficit. But Mr. Saunders worked out an amazing set of figures to show how much we are spending each day. You can call his bluff very easily, when he comes down here to speak in this by-election campaign by asking him how much his government has been spending each day since they got into power.

When we went out of power, even by their figures, we left the treasury in a solid condition. They stand condemned out of their own mouths.

You will be told it is no use to elect a man to the opposition. But was not the opposition of some use in the last session? I think you will agree that it prevented much bungled legislation from being passed.

He concluded by paying a glowing tribute to the sterling qualities of Mr. MacLean, the Conservative candidate. And remember, he said, elections are not won by sitting down. This is your opportunity — the first opportunity of registering a protest against the irresponsibility and mis-management of the present government. You will never commend such a government; you will support Mr. MacLean, and register your condemnation of their doings.

Get ready now—this moment—and organize for this election. The Liberal-Conservative party in Charlottetown, and in the whole of the province is behind you.

Hon. Dr. Rafuse—After speaking of the pleasure he felt at the privilege of addressing them went on to say that the people of Nova Scotia had never given so much attention to an election in Prince Edward Island as to that of 1927.

The Stewart Government had then gone down to defeat, because Mr. Stewart had the courage to stand by his convictions on the moral question of Prohibition vs. Government Control. The only way of dealing with this matter was by sane legislation and education.

Seven out of nine of the provinces had adopted Government Control. Surely they are not all wrong and we two alone right.

Dr. Rafuse said that in his country, a "rum runners county", as it was called, they suffered from bootlegging, as the Dominion Government kept up so high an import duty on liquor that it was an incentive to bootlegging.

He was very emphatic in his statements that Government Control was far superior to Prohibition as a means of dealing with the liquor problem.

He condemned what he considered the political pettiness so prevalent in the Maritime Provinces, by which a man voted as his father or grandfather voted. Men should vote for capable representation and for good principles rather than for party.

In the fight for Maritime rights we should forget party, emulate the example of the West, and present at Ottawa a united front for the good of the Maritime provinces.

The Royal Commission, he said, was appointed because the sol' phalanx from Nova Scotia in 1923 had "made it too damned hot for them" at Ottawa.

He went on to say that whereas we only had 196 million dollars worth of Railways we were entitled, if we had our share, to 336 million dollars worth. And here in this province, you have this miserable narrow gauge railway still! It is a disgrace. The Maritimes have sacrificed themselves for the rest of Canada too long. Now we must get together and fight.

Dr. Rafuse went on to compare the inefficiency and debauchery prevailing under the Saunders Administration with that which obtained under the late Liberal Administration in Nova Scotia.

He stressed the need of a strong opposition. "If the governments are crooked, whip them into being straight. The welfare of your province depends on making them so." Bye-elections are important. This one is a protest against incompetency and mis-management. Activity and organization are the means of winning an election—they cannot be won otherwise. You cannot win elections by sitting round tables over lists of names and saying, "this man is a Tory and that man is a "Grit". Go out and talk to your men. That is the only way an election can be won.

Mr. W. Chester S. McLure, after complimenting the convention on its representative character, and the candidate Mr. MacLean, said that it was up to the electors of the Belfast district to judge between the record of the Stewart Government and the Saunders Government.

He thanked the meeting, and pledged the support of the outside districts to Mr. MacLean.

Mr. W. A. Stewart congratulated the district from Belfast on its ability to call such a convention as this without any outside aid. The Liberals on the other hand were organizing their convention under the direction of the chairman of the Liberal Association in Charlottetown.

Mr. Holman congratulated the convention on their choice of Mr. MacLean, as candidate and on the way they had conducted their business. He also expressed his pleasure at having the privilege of listening to the speech of Hon. Dr. Rafuse.

He hoped to see Mr. MacLean in the ranks of the opposition and then later on a member of the Stewart Government.

The following resolutions were then adopted.

WHEREAS the Present Provincial Government obtained power at the last General Election by representing to the electorate that; the Present Prohibition Law could be made effective if completely and properly inforced, and that the then Conservative Government had deliberately neglected to properly inforce the said Act and to give an effective administration of justice.

AND WHEREAS the Liberal party by their election platform and by verbal promises and representations as well as through their press promised to give complete and efficient inforcement of said Act and thus bring about efficient inforcement in this Province in regard to temperance.

AND WHEREAS by these promises and representations they obtained the sympathy and active support of the Temperance Alliance and other organizations and individuals who favored total abstinence irrespective of party affiliations.

AND WHEREAS since the election it has been made plain that the present Government has not kept faith with the leaders of the temperance alliance and it is daily becoming more apparent that no real conscientious effort is being made by the Government to inforce the provisions of the Prohibition Act and that conditions with regard to temperance and sobriety are becoming worse.

AND WHEREAS the amendments to said Act enacted at the last session of the Legislature are either meaningless or tend rather to encumber than to make the Act more workable.

AND WHEREAS the administration of justice in this Province has never been so weak and inefficient as at present.

THEREFORE RESOLVED that this meeting of Electors of the Fourth District of Queen's desires to place on record in the strongest terms its condemnation and reprobation of the tactics employed by the present Government during the last Provincial Election Campaign, their betrayal of the faith and confidence placed in them by those of the electorate of this Province who placed them in power, and their studied and deliberate neglect and their glaring incompetence in the administration of Justice generally and in the enforcement of the provisions of the Prohibition Act in particular.

D. J. RILEY
JOHN K. ROSS

RESOLUTION 2

WHEREAS the late Conservative Government during the four years of its administration greatly improved the Public Works of the Province and brought same to as high a degree of efficiency as the then limited resources of this Province made possible.

AND WHEREAS the present Government enjoys greatly increased revenues both from Federal subsidies and railway and provincial taxation, which increased revenues should make posible greatly improved public services.

AND WHEREAS the present Government has initiated an extensive borrowing program and by mortgaging the future of our Province has placed at the immediate disposal of the Ministers of Departments, a large amount of money in addition to the increased revenues above mentioned.

AND WHEREAS the present Government has abandoned the system of road patrol built up by the late administration, a system involving the early and constant use of the road drag and has initiated a new road system, and purchased a large quantity of expensive road machinery and has appointed a large number of highly paid full time overseers to supervise road work.

AND WHEREAS in spite of the large sums of money available to the Government and in spite of its reckless and extravagant expenditures, our Public Works are in a most neglected and disreputable condition, and in spite of an early spring affording ample time and opportunity for repars and maintenance our public roads are at this late season in a disgraceful and dangerous condition.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that this Convention puts itself on record as condemning in the most emphatic manner the policy and the conduct of the present Government, its reckless borrowing its extravagant uncontrolled and unauthorized expenditure of public money, its abandonment of highway patrol, its neglect of our Public Roads and bridges which were never in worse condition and generally the general administration of its Department of Public Works.

SHAW MacMILLAN
J. J. McDONALD

The meeting was then brought to a close, three hearty cheers being given for Mr. MacLean, and three more for Mr. J. D. Stewart.
