The funeral of the late Mrs John McSwain whose death occurred in Winsloe on Thursday, Sept 16th, took place from the residence of Miss Flora McSwain, Pownal Street, City, last Wednesday morning to Lone Creek Cemetery. Many old friends and relatives gathered to pay their last respects to one who was a general favorite with young and old. Her bright, sustaining nature, endeared her to all and in her home, where she was the mainstay a blank has occurred which can never be filled. The impressive services at the house were conducted by Rev Geo E. Ross and at the grave Mr Ross was assisted by Rev E. Crais. The pall bearers were Ewen Stewart, Murdoch Ross, Nell McKenzie, George McLeod, Donald McKinnon and Hy Smallwood. The floral tributes from friends of the family here and in Winnipeg were exceptionally beautiful. The funeral services in Winnipeg were conducted by Rev Mr Simpson, formerly of New Glasgow, P. E. I.

John Dewar, Royalty, aged ninety, was among the visitors to the Exhibition on Thursday. Mr Dewar is a hale and hearty man and shows great activity for one of his years as is evidenced by the fact that he walked to the grounds from his home, spent the afternoon viewing the different exhibits, afterwards walking home again without feeling in the least fatigued. Mr Dewar met a great many of his friends and had many pleasant chats with them. May he long enjoy his present vitality.

Another full house greeted the Colonial Stock Company at the Opera last evening, in their presentation of "The Lost Paradise." The cast called for exceptionally forceful presentations and each act was of intense interest throughout. The ladies were greeted as old favorites and fully have so well earned, during their stay in this Province, while the male members on the cast each received his need of applause. Altogether the play, which called forth magnificent costumes and splendid scenery, was a decided success.

Our New "Modern" A. A. Waterman Fountain Pens

we believe are equal in mechanical construction, to the best pen made.

In addition to this, they have the following undeniable advantages.

- 1 They are self-filling, filled in a twinkling.
- 2 As there is no joint they cannot leak and soil the fingers as many good pens do.
- 3 The act of filling also cleans the delicate ink channels and prevents clogging.

We have the best $1.00 pen on the market.

Smyrna Waistings

You have read of that port in Eastern Turkey—"Smyrna"—where the celebrated Turkish rugs come from. Well, the manufacturer of these waistings, having made a study of the methods of coloring and patterns used in this old world city, has produced a line of materials in which the beauty and quaintness of these old time patterns, has been strikingly brought out.

Some in peculiar scrolly patterns while others are dots, dashes, or stripes.
