Whether for Racing, for Pleasure, for Riding to Work, for Light Delivery or Other Utility Purposes, there are C. C. M. Models to meet all needs. And and speed—and power! Practically all racing men prefer the three-piece hanger, as do other experienced cyclists the world over.

This season, all C. C. M. men's models (except racers) are equipped with the new Gibson Pedal without extra charge. This classy pedal has scored a big hit with riders all over Canada. It has a silvery, rustproof aluminum frame—light, yet remarkably strong.

The Hercules Coaster Brake—"The Little Fellow with the Giant Grip"—is included, also, as regular equipment.

The new models are snappier, neater, trimmer than ever. They are nickelled bright as sunshine and enamelled to rival the sheen of a lustrous piece of silk.

See them at any C. C. M. dealer's. Among them you'll glimpse the Standard, the Special and the new C. C. M. Sport Model, that everybody's talking about. A classy new model with a suggestion of the motorbike design, yet light and graceful.

Prices so low you cannot resist buying—$15 to $20 less than the "peak" prices.

such a help to you in carrying out do his duty in a very humble way. All then joined in singing: "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow!" This was followed by a short witty address of appreciation by Mrs. Wm. E. McDougall and a reading and an encore by Mr. Gordon Brown. A number of games were indulged in and enjoyed by all.

Shortly before breaking up, Mr. Brown and the pastor, Rev. R. H. Stavert, were bunched. All then joined hands and sang "Auld Lang Syne."

The singing of the National Anthem brought a very pleasant evening to a close.

PRESENTATION TO MR. SIMON BROWN

On the evening of Thursday, Feb. 22 quite a large number of the people of Hunter River and the vicinity assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Brown for the purpose of giving Mr. Brown a pleasant reminder of the splendid services he had for some years been rendering to the Presbyterian church.

The early part of the evening was pleasantly spent in games, music and social intercourse. Just before lunch was served, Rev. R. H. Stavert read an address to Mr. Brown and Mr. D. M. McLeod presented him with quite a snug sized purse.

The following is the address. Dear Friend:—Among the many joys of life there is perhaps no joy greater than the joy of being worthily remembered.

In this every day world of ours which by nature is moored or less selfish, the tendency seems to be to forget even those to whom we are much indebted.

You, Mr. Brown, as you may perhaps be aware, are one of these gentlemen to whom a large number of people have from time to time been indebted for many of the favors received in life.

And should it have been that you would have received all of the kind remembrances due you because of our worth, the joys of being remembered would in your life time have been many indeed.

Among those who have been very much indebted to you, Mr. Brown, are the members and adherents of the Presbyterian church of Hunter River.
