

THIS IS GOOD NEWS FOR SOMEBODY.

Madame Cloutre's Story will Interest a Sorrowing Woman Somewhere in Canada.

French Canadian Lady Gives for Publication a Chapter in Her Life, in the Hope that the Woman Concerned may Read Her Statement and Know the Truth.

VALRACINE, Que., Oct. 21.—(Special).—Madame Pierre Cloutre of this place feels it her duty to make public certain facts, and to this end has given for publication a statement which she has signed with her hand, and to which her husband has also affixed his signature confirming the truth in every detail of the story told.

It is only fair to Madame Cloutre to explain that in making public this part of her life's history, she is actuated only by the purest of motives, the hope that by doing so she may help another.

For years this good lady suffered much with Kidney Disease.

Her loving husband, sick at heart to see his wife suffering so much, tried everything he could hear of, but all to no purpose.

At last he read an advertisement of Dodd's Kidney Pills. He sent at once and procured two boxes.

Her statement reads:—"I was cured of Kidney Disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills. My case was one of long standing and very acute. My husband got two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills which I used. From the first dose I began to improve. I continued, and now can say that I am perfectly cured."

"I am making this statement for publication in the hope that some suffering sister may read it and do as I did, for I am sure that Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure her."

If this should meet the eye of any woman who suffers as Madame Cloutre did with Kidney Trouble she should be guided by that lady's happy experience to use Dodd's Kidney Pills at once and be cured.

DUKE AND DUCHESS SAIL.

quest the Transvaal medal gleamed a few hours later. Staff, Hussars and more police and the royal cortege had passed.

The interim while the royal party moved to the Provincial Building was filled in by admiring the decorations and watching the crowds as they passed. In the harbor a magnificent fleet of warships gay with bunting, the sheen from their guns and brass work as the sun brilliantly lit them in assembling fire, the merchant, marine, with the background of the Dartmouth Shore lent a variety that killed the tedium of waiting.

As the procession swung back and we again fastened eager gaze on the two in whose honor we had thrown business aside, ignored the discomforts of travel, gladly assumed the yoke of discipline and felt our evidence of loyalty was appreciated.

With an if possible still more jaunty stride we took our way back to our cold quarters. Boreas was unkind during or stay and blew great gusts (cold shell too) A hasty dinner then accoutrements were gain donned and we prepared for the great and now historic Review.

A huge grand stand flanked the Royal pavilion. On the right, this was occupied by 5000 school children with flags. The stand on the left was for the public and some thousands of people completed the picture that faced the serried ranks of the soldiers.

Facing the stand above were battalions in line of quarter columns. The first line had the corps of sailors, marines and artillerymen from the ships, then the R. Artillery, R. Engineers and Royal Canadians. The second line of battalions in quarter column embraced all the local forces, Artillery, Cavalry, Infantry and A. M. C. These were divided into Brigades, each of which had its own levy of staff officers. The interview will be concluded in to morrow's issue.

Alcoholism Can Be Cured.

Rev. Father Quinlan's Opinion.

To whom it may concern: The good points of Mr. Dixon's new discovery for the cure of the liquor habit, in my opinion, are the following: First, if taken according to directions it completely removes all craving for liquor in the short space of three days; its use for a longer time is intended only to build up the system. Second, it leaves no bad after effects, but on the contrary aids in every way the health of the patient, whilst freeing him from the desire for drink. Third, the patient may use it without interfering with his business or leaving his home. All other liquor cures I have yet heard of are very costly, operate slowly, are doubtful as to effects and often impair the health and constitution of the patient. I therefore look upon the remedy as a real boon, recommend it heartily to all concerned and bespeak for it here in Montreal and elsewhere every success. J. Quinlan, S. S., Pastor of St. Patrick's, Montreal.

Full particulars regarding this medicine can be obtained by writing to Mr. Dixon, No. 81 Willecks Street, Toronto Canada.

EMPLOYEES AND SUNDAY.

The Belleville Police Magistrate has decided that corporations are not included in the scope of the Lord's Day Act. This is a remarkable oversight on the part of the Ontario Legislature, because, admitting that corporations have no souls, it is only charitable to assume that their employees have some.
