"NATIONAL VELVET"
FAMOUS RACE FILM
PLAYS TO-DAY

Climaxed by the most thrilling horse-racing sequences ever caught by Hollywood cameras, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "National Velvet" returns to the Prince Edward Theatre today and Wednesday to provide exciting and fascinating entertainment from beginning to end.

The story, based on Enid Bagnold's best-seller novel about a girl who rides to victory in the celebrated Grand National at Aintree, England, emerges as a heart-warming, moving document which will be enjoyed by the entire family.

Mickey Rooney, who stars in the film, plays Mi Taylor, an ex-jockey who wanders the countryside until he finds a home with the Browns. A delightfully human a family as you will find anywhere. Present are Donald Crisp and Anne Revere, as Mr. and Mrs. Brown; Elizabeth Taylor, as a 12-year-old whose passion is horses; Jackie Jenkins, the famous tot of "The Human Comedy," who collects insects, and Angela Lansbury, who scored as the maid in "Gaslight," as a love-smitten adolescent.

When Elizabeth wins an unwanted horse in a local raffle, she and Mickey, aided by Mrs. Brown, embark on a seemingly futile dream: the winning of the Grand National with The Pie, as the horse is named.

The adventures of Mickey and Elizabeth, as they see their dream come true, make for most absorbing cinema fare. Under the expert handling of Clarence Brown, who directed "National Velvet," these two young actors—and, for that matter, everyone in the cast—turn in outstanding jobs.

Filmed in beautiful Technicolor, "National Velvet" is a tribute to everyone connected with it.

VISITING MARITIMES AFTER 15 YEARS ABSENCE—Miss Wynfred Ryan of Toronto was a guest of Miss Jennie Barnes at the Brunswick Hotel, Thursday and Friday, enroute to Charlottetown, P.E.I to visit friends and relatives, after an absence of 15 years. Miss Ryan formerly was a milliner in Sackville and Moncton. — Moncton Times.

WEDDING BELLS. — Miss Ernestine Smith, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. R. Smith, of Montreal and Sergeant James F. Miller, R.C.A.F., youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. James N. Miller of Edmonton, Alta., were united in marriage on July 17, at the minister's residence, North River, P. E. I., by the Rev. A. Todd. After the ceremony a supper was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hounam of North River. Before returning to Montreal, where they will make their home, the couple visited many of the scenic spots on the Island.

KEIR MEMORIAL SERVICE — At the evening service in Keir Memorial Presbyterian Church, Malpeque, on Sunday July 29th, a large congregation enjoyed the mixed quartette from Kensington Presbyterian Church. Mr. Tyndale Semple, Misses Mabel Semple and Marion Lockhart and Mr. Parmenas Phillip sang "Jesus Lover of my Soul" to the tune composed by J.P. Halbrook. Messrs Tyndale Semple and Charles Woodside beautifully rendered a duet. Rev. Edwin J. White, B.A., Minister of St. Matthew's Presbyterian Church, Montreal, preached an excellent and practical sermon. Miss Mabelle Woodside resided at the organ.

FAREWELL PARTY — A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Callbeck, Sherbrooke, when the friends and neighbours of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Chappell, Jr., and Mrs. John Chappell gathered to honor them with a farewell party. Mr. Frank Townsend acted as chairman and called upon Mr. Edward Laughlin to read an address, after which Mr. and Mrs. Chappell were presented with two lovely lamps and a mirror. Mr. Chappell responded, thanking his friends in behalf of himself and family. The Sherbrooke Women's Institute then presented Mrs. John Chappell with a beautiful brush, comb and mirror set. Mrs. George Harris read the address and Mrs. Brewer Linkletter presented Mrs. Chappell with the gift. The remainder of the evening was spent in social intercourse and dancing.

The balance $38.23 has been handed over to the recently organized Women's Institute in which it is to be used for Red Cross work.

You'll Enjoy Bran in this Form
...with other Food Benefits, too

YOU need bulk in your diet. Get it in Post's Bran Flakes—the bran cereal that also gives you other important food benefits.

Post's Bran Flakes help to keep you fit. They supply just enough natural bulk in the form of bran to keep food wastes moving. Thus they help prevent the internal sluggishness which keeps so many people "below par".

But Post's Bran Flakes also provide wheat nourishment not found in every bran cereal... protein, carbohydrates and other food essentials, as well as iron and phosphorus.

Start off tomorrow's breakfast with healthful, nourishing Post's Bran Flakes. Enjoy every spoonful of their appetizingly different, nut-like flavor. Delicious and effective, too, in bran muffins. Sugarless recipe on both the Regular and Giant Economy packages.

In Memoriam

RAY HAMILTON

Many friends were deeply grieved and shocked to learn of the passing of Ray Hamilton, which occurred in the Prince County Hospital, on Sunday evening, July 8th, where he had gone a short time previous for treatment. The deceased was 36 years of age, and had been in failing health for some time, suffering from a stomach affliction. In spite of medical skill and tender nursing, he was called to his eternal home where there is no more suffering or weariness. The deceased was of a jovial and cheery disposition, had a hearty handclasp at all times for his many friends who will sadly miss him, but it is in the home, where the loss will be most keenly felt. There a kind and loving husband and father will come no more.

The funeral service was held on Wednesday afternoon, and after a short prayer at the home, the remains were conveyed to the Anglican church at Kensington where the service was continued. The funeral was largely attended, the service being conducted by the Rev. D. E. Noel. His message was most comforting to all bereaved friends. The hymns sung were: 'The Lord's My Shepherd, Jesus Saviour Pilot Me, There is no Night in Heaven. The remains were borne to their last resting place in the People's Cemetery. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Alexander Hiltz, Walter Thompson, Lea Folland, Fulton Paynter, Scott Moase, Howard Boyles.

There are left to mourn his sorrowing widow, nee Ena Paynter and one daughter Roma, three sisters, Rena, Laura and Jean and four brotners, Millar, Ralph, Willard and Elmer.

Among the many lovely floral tributes were:—

A Pillow from the Family.

Spray—Mr. and Mrs. James MacNeil.

Spray—Mr. and Mrs. Harold MacFarlane.

Wreaths—Mr. and Mrs. Lem Orr Rebecca and Willard Hamilton.

Wreath—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Baker.

Wreath—Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Dunning and Earl.

Wreath—Annie MacLennan and Wanda Bertram.

Wreath—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Champion and Rebecca Champion.

Wreath—Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Doucette, Mr. and Mrs. Lea MacClair.

Wreath — Mr. and Mrs. Emery MacFarlane

Wreath—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thompson and family.

Wreath—Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Folland and family.

Wreath—Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Paynter.

Wreath—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. MacFarlane, Mrs. Althea Babb, Mr. and Mrs. Harry MacFarlane.

To the family and all sorrowing friends much sympathy is extended. 8-8-1i.

Lee-Gallant Nuptials

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Holy Redeemer Church yesterday morning when Mary Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lee, of Charlottetown, was united in matrimony to Joseph Ivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyriac Gallant, also of Charlottetown, by Rev. A. A. McDonald, C.SS.R.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked winsome in a floor length white wedding dress, wearing a corsage of red roses. Bridesmaid was Miss Catherine Margaret Lee, sister of the bride, wearing a blue floor length gown with a corsage of red roses.

The groomsman was ably supported by Lance Sergeant Henry Gallant, a brother recently returned from overseas.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the Queen Hotel for immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom.

Yesterday evening a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents, Euston St., at which a large number were present to offer their congratulations to the popular young couple, both of whom are well known in Charlottetown, the groom being an employee of The Guardian for the past number of years.

Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered several showers by her numerous friends at which many beautiful and useful presents were received.

The Guardian joins with their many friends in offering happiest felicitations.
