The funeral of the late Mrs. Abbott took place from her late residence Union Road at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon to the Union Road Cemetery and was very largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. D. McLean assisted by the Rev. Mr. Spencer. The pallbearers were: Hon. A. B. Warburton, Hon. L. E. Prowse, Wm. Sellar, Charles Stewart, James Matthews and James Bessory.

James Paton & Co. made a special showing of children's wear in their window on Saturday and the showing, made doubly attractive by the apparent merit of the goods shown and the neat window arrangement, was greatly admired. The showing was from a special English importation of children's hoods and dresses and was of more than ordinary interest to mothers. This afternoon they are making a special showing of these goods and it would be well for intending purchasers along these lines to see the display before deciding on a purchase.

Saturday night the patrons of the People's Theatre enjoyed an excellent program of motion pictures. The comedy "Dumplings as Romeo" was an excellent travesty on Shakespeare. The dramatic features were up to the customary standard and Miss Annie Laurie, who gave her farewell, sang "Back to the Bleachers" was evidently much appreciated, especially by the baseball fans of whom there must have been a number. In her spot light specialty she rendered "Annie Laurie" and had to respond to repeated encores.

One of the crew of the Niobe—a Charlottetown boy—writes The Guardian and gives the movements of the ship as published elsewhere. He also says the ship will call here and after arriving the 8th of June will remain four days and then goes out on target practice for four more days, returning on the 16th. She leaves here again on the 19th and returns on the 23rd after more target practice. She leaves on the 26th for Bismarck for gun layer's test and will return on July 1st, remaining here until the 10th July when she sails for Quebec.

Yesterday a new flag was spread to the breeze over the Sons of England Hall when that order, on the occasion of their annual church parade, used their Union Jack which had been recently imported from England. The flag is said to be the largest in this city, being eighteen feet long and nine feet wide.

There was some excitement on the C. G. S. Stanley, now lying at the Marine Wharf, on Saturday in which the principals were a fireman, a cook, a doctor and a police officer. It seems that some altercation arose between the two first named and it was reported that the latter hit the fireman with a large knife on the back of the head. This version, however, not positively known to be what really took place but, at any rate, the fireman is suffering with an ugly wound in the back of his head which was dressed by Dr. Conroy and which necessitated the injured man's removal to the City Hospital for further treatment. When asked yesterday as to the manner in which he sustained the wound the fireman was very reticent and offered the information that he had tripped on a piece of iron. He was out around again yesterday. The disturbance, however, was such as to warrant the police for the notice which was responded to by Officer Walker.

A good program of races was pulled off at the North Sydney trotting park Victoria Day. There was a fair attendance and no doubt would have been larger but for the cold wind that blew all day making it very unpleasant for the spectators. There was something interesting in every race and only one was decided in three heats. This was the 2:23 trot and pace which was won by William owned and driven by F. C. Redding of this town. William's best time was 2:27 1/2 in the second heat. He was closely followed in every heat by Lady Trip, owned by Dan Gillies of Sydney Mines, driven by Dan Gillies. Jr. Lady Trip got second place and Low Pointer, driven by F. C. Redding of this town. William's best time was 2:27 1/2 in the second heat. Child's Styles of Yesterday and To-day

Turn up your old family album and see the types of yourself and your cousins when you were youngsters. How interesting the result, when compared with the styles in the same kind of clothes today—and how the advantage obviously lies in favor of to-day's boys and girls. Yet the difference which exists between the children's clothes of then and the children's clothes of now measures the distance that lies between the average "grown up" styles for children, and the real child's clothes stamped with the Sanford Juvenile Brand.

Made in a special department entirely devoted to the making of children's clothes, they exemplify to a degree that appeals to every mother's sound judgment and good taste, the characteristics of strength and refinement.

You are cordially invited to visit the leading clothing or dry goods stores in your town to see the new Spring and Summer styles. We would suggest an early call while the range of styles and sizes remains unbroken.
