

MONDAY
CARSON-LIVINGSTONE.—On Saturday, Oct. 2nd, Mr. Charles Edward Carson and Mrs. Evelyn Livingstone were married in All Souls Chapel, St. Peter's Cathedral, Charlottetown, Rev. E. M. Malton, incumbent, officiating. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and bridegroom left on the early train for a short visit to some of the larger Canadian and American cities.

LAI D TO REST.—The funeral of the late Mr. Arthur Holroyd, Windsor, took place Saturday morning there being a very large and representative gathering of relatives and friends to pay their last respects, including many Charlottetown residents. In the unavoidable absence through illness of the Rev. Mr. Howe, Rev. H. D. Raymond of Charlottetown, officiated at the Church and grave, interment being in Milton Cemetery.

Elizabeth Ford, eleven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ford, Ebenezer, was burned to death Friday under very sad circumstances. The little girl who had just returned from a neighbor's house on an apron full of wet chips on her way home to hurry the dinner fire she put the chips into the stove and in doing so her apron caught fire and quickly blazed up. The child rushed to the door as her people entered but she was so badly burned about the body that death ensued. The sad circumstance is that the little girl's mother was sick in bed with a day old infant and the shock to the bereaved household was very severe. The sympathy of the community goes out to them.

TO KENTUCKY.—Rev. Henry McDonald, Kingsboro, retired minister, his wife and daughter, leave this week for Kentucky, where they purpose permanently residing. They have a fine farm of 116 acres at Kingsboro, to the adjoining neighbor, Mr. Harland Kennedy. They have also sold their household effects and movables. Rev. Mr. McDonald was for some 22 years pastor of various Baptist Churches in the State of Kentucky, some eleven years ago he returned to his old charge at Kingsboro and for two or three years resumed charge. He has since, he lived on the McDonald homestead farm, carrying on light farming operations. He now has decided to spend his remaining days in Kentucky, where for so many years he was so greatly loved and revered, and in the warmer and more pleasant climate, show until after church about Mrs. McDonald is an American lady and naturally prefers the land of her nativity.

E. Wyatt, K. C. After hearing the evidence the judge summed up the case quoting the law made to deal with such cases. His Honor said that there was a fine of $50 or three months imprisonment, whichever could be imposed for selling ammunition to a minor. His Honor fined the defendant $50 and costs but said that the next offender who came before him for a similar case would be given the jail sentence.

SOME FRACAS.—There was a lively time in the old town of Summerside on Sunday evening when a real old time row was staged before a large audience of citizens. The participants were consoy loved and revered, and in the warmer and more pleasant climate, show until after church about Mrs. McDonald is an American lady and naturally prefers the land of her nativity.

WEDDING BELLS.—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lowden Ashley, Alberton, on Sept. 22nd, relatives of pretty wedding, when the daughter, Gladys Jean, was given in marriage to Mr. John Russel Bonnyman of Natick, Mass., formerly of Cassepuque, P. E. I. Rev. Mr. Miller officiating. The bride, dressed in white silk, carried a bouquet of yellow and orange blossoms and carrying a bouquet, looked charming and winsome leaning on the arm of her father as they entered the well decorated parlor to the strains of the Wedding March played by Mrs. Heirlich, was becomingly dressed in pink crepe de chine with bouquet to match. Mr. John Ashley, brother of the bride, supported the bridegroom. After the ceremony a solo suitable to the occasion, sung by Mrs. Miller was enjoyed by all. The bridal party and guests then proceeded to the dining room where the genial hostess had in readiness a delightful but substantial supper. The evening was a most enjoyable one, the bride was held in high esteem by the many excellent gifts received, including a silver service from the bridegroom and a very modest looking envelope containing a cheque of one thousand dollars from her parents. Previous to the wedding two showers were held at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lawson, Alberton, and Mrs. and Mrs. Rhodes Ashley, Cassepuque, brother of the bride. Many of the gifts were accompanied by appropriate rhyme and verse. Mr. and Mrs. Bonnyman motored to Natick where they will make their home.

WEDNESDAY
FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.—W. A. Ramsay and wife of Beedee will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Oct. 17th 1926. We hope this worthy couple will live to celebrate their 60th anniversary. Congratulations.

SAD NEWS.—Mr. Angus Gillis, Bradabane, received a telegram on Monday stating that his brother, Samuel D. Gillis, had passed away, Sept. 31st at Prince George, B. C., from hemorrhage of the brain. Burial took place at Prince George.

PLEASANT VISIT.—W. R. Leard, Merchant Tailor passed through the City yesterday on his way to Souris after spending a most pleasant visit to relatives and friends in Beedee and Carleton Place, accompanied by auto of the trip.

FESTIVITIES AT THE VICTORIA HOTEL.—Last evening at the Victoria Hotel, Mr. Ross M. Stunz, general manager of the Daugherty Oil Company, was the host at a farewell supper for the oil men who for the past year and more have been at work at Governor's Island. The crew of the local oil well are being transferred, and are being replaced by other drillers. The night before the Victoria hotel, a supper given by Mr. E. J. Terry and Mr. Don MacAnuly to the local customers of the firm they represent, the James F. Robertson Company, Ltd., of St. John's, was a general good fellowship, and were the occasions of a number of excellent speeches.

The sudden passing of Mrs. Peter Newsum, 10 Ambrose St., City on Monday, will be learned with a shock and regret by all who knew her. Apparently she had been enjoying her usual health and the cause of her demise is attributed to heart failure.

The late Mrs. Newsum was Alice Elizabeth Walden, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Waldman of Crapaud. She was a very estimable woman and had reached her 72nd year.

In church work and all that pertained to the spiritual welfare and moral advancement of this city, Mrs. Newsum was deeply interested and did her part. Her life was that of a Christian and whose daily walk and conversation evidenced that she had given her heart to her Saviour. She has gone to the better land leaving a rich legacy of Christian endeavour and womanly kindliness.

BRINGING UP FATHER

HAVE TO PRETEND I'VE READ THAT BOOK? WELL, HOW DID YOU LIKE IT? WONDERFUL! DID YOU LIKE THE PART WHERE THE TRAIN WAS IN THE WRECK? I READ THAT IT LIKED IT SO WELL! WASN'T THE ENDING SAD WHEN THE LITTLE BOY IS FOUND? I KNEW YOU DIDN'T READ THAT BOOK! WHAT I SAID WASN'T IN THE BOOK AT ALL!

ARRIVES IN SCOTLAND.—Mr. S. A. MacDonald yesterday morning received a cable from his son Arthur from Glasgow, Scotland, stating he had arrived safely after a splendid passage.

A very pretty, interesting and charming ceremony was the double wedding on Wednesday evening, Sept. 29, in St. John's Church, P.E.I., performed by the Rev. Chas. C. Rand. The brides, both daughters of Mr. and Mrs. David S. Sherren, were Miss Evelyn and Miss Dorothy McArthur of Summerside, P. E. I. The bridesmaids were Miss Lucilla Sherren and Miss Agnes Sherren, sister and cousin respectively of the brides; while the groomsmen were Messrs. Gordon Holm and J. Stephen Sherren. The brides were very dainty and charming in their white arranged in orange blossoms; each carrying a shower bouquet of white asters. The bridesmaids wore powder blue crepe de chine, with silver lace, picture hats of black velvet, silver colored stockings and black velvet slippers, each carrying a bouquet of sweet peas.

Following the ceremony in the church, a reception was held at the home of the brides' parents. Gifts from the grooms to the bridesmaids were a string of ivory beads to Miss Agnes Sherren, and a bar pin to Lucilla Sherren; gold cuff links to the groomsmen, and a bar pin to the organist. The good wishes of a host of friends go with these two happy young couples to their respective homes.

FUNERAL OF MRS. PETER NEWSOM.—The grave closed yesterday over the remains of Mrs. Peter Newsom, Ambrose Street, the funeral taking place to the People's Cemetery. There was a very large concourse of mourners, testifying to the high esteem in which the deceased lady was held in the community. An impressive service was held in the house at 10 p. m., conducted by the Rev. W. M. Ryan of Trinity Church, of which the deceased was a valued member and earnest worker, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Ramsay and the Rev. W. T. Spencer. Afterwards the funeral cortege, which was of unusually large dimension, for the funeral of a lady, proceeded to the People's Cemetery, where the same clergyman performed the last rites. The pall bearers were: Messrs. W. B. Robertson, George W. Ritchie, Howard Hillson, John Saunders and C. B. Chappell.

PRETTY AUTUMN WEDDING.—A pretty autumn wedding took place yesterday morning in Trinity United Church when Miss Agnes, daughter of Mr. William Walsh, was united in marriage to Mr. George Frederick Moore, son of Mr. George M. Moore. The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. W. M. Ryan, P. M. E. Fletcher presiding at the organ. The church was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and cut flowers. The bride, who was unattached, was given in marriage by her father and looked charming in a frock of Chin Chin blue with trimmings of silver and blue to match, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Moore left by motor for Borden en route to Boston and New York. The bride travelling in a blue neoprene coat with squirrel trimmings, and small grey hat. The Guardian joins in happiest congratulations.

RADIO EXPERT HERE.—Mr. John G. Gann, representing the de Forest Radio Corporation, Toronto, is present in the city in connection with the inspection of agencies throughout the eastern provinces. Mr. Gann says the development of radio has been simply marvellous and the latest de Forest models have been in extraordinary demand, free as they are from many of the objections which characterized most of the old time apparatus. He predicts a great future for radio in this province.

An important forward step was taken by the Ministers of the Protestant Churches of this Province on Monday, when a large number of them met at St. Paul's Parish Hall and decided to form a Provincial Ministerial Association. The ministers from the country were present as the guests of the Charlottetown Ministerial Association, and the gathering was addressed by Canon Troop.

WEDDING BELLS.—A wedding was solemnized at 52 p.m. Hillsboro Street, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock when Eleanor Vatcher was united in holy bonds of matrimony to Sherren of St. Catharines, Ontario, officiating. The couple were unattached. Mrs. Vatcher for the past two years successfully conducted the Hotel, Mr. Sherren is one of the most prosperous farmers in the vicinity of St. Catharines.

A shadow of gloom was cast over a large circle when it was known that Mrs. Joseph I. Stewart of New York had passed to her eternal home. Although she had been in failing health for some time, she was held out for her recovery. She entered the Prince County Hospital for treatment, but despite best of care and skill her condition went to Him Who gave it. She leaves to mourn her son, a loss her husband and son, a daughter and daughter Muriel, also her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McCoubrey, of New Glasgow, a brother, Nelson, of Cavendish, a sister, Mrs. J. W. Henshaw, of Windsor, Ont., Mrs. Robert S. and Mrs. Robert L. Stevensons, of Wheatley River. One brother, Theophilus, made the surprise pilgrimage in the Great War, and his wife, Lucy and Austine preceded her.

The pall bearers were: R. McEwen, James O. Simpson, R. Anderson, Hammond McKenzie, C. McNeill and F. W. Clark. At an early hour on Friday morning, Sept. 16th, the people of Kora were shocked and saddened to hear that Mr. Ambrose E. Keene, one of the most popular men in the district, had passed away in the Charlottetown Hospital. He had entered the hospital less than two weeks previous to death suffering from blood poisoning in his head, contracted shortly after an operation performed on his nose.

He was twice married. His first wife was Miss Hughes. She bore her death their only child, Raymond, died when he was 19. Later he married Miss Smith, who with her small children, Doris, Raymond and one left to mourn their irreparable loss. He leaves to mourn one brother, John, in California and a sister, Mrs. Hughes in South Boston, Mass.; besides a number of friends and relatives in this province and also in the United States, especially in Massachusetts, where he lived some years before taking up farming life in the country. The funeral will take place at 11:30 a. m. to St. Malachy's Church of which he was a regular and devout attendant and was largely attended, and in the cemetery conducted by Rev. J. J. Smith, Michael Green and J. M. Kelly.—R. I. P.

A pretty autumn wedding of more than ordinary interest was solemnized at Notre Dame Academy, Charlottetown, on Wednesday, Sept. 29, when Miss Elizabeth Macdonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Macdonald was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Frances Bernadotte Doyle, of Earncliffe, Rev. Father Doyle officiating. The chapel was artistically decorated for the occasion with a profusion of cut flowers and maiden-hair fern. The bride, who was one of Orwell Cove's popular young ladies, was attired in a dress of powder-blue crepe with white trimmings and a hat of grey neoprene with marvellous fur trimmings and hat to match and was attended by her sister, Florence who wore a dress of rose wood crepe and hat to match. The groom was ably supported by his friend, Wm. Roomey. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. Morrissey, East Rosalia, where a sumptuous breakfast was served after which they returned to the bride's home to dinner, where only the very near relatives were invited. In the evening they were entertained at their new home at Earcliffe, where many hours were pleasantly spent in music and dancing.
