

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY The Department of Public Works and Highways is making preparations to re-route a section of the paved road at Mount Pleasant in Prince County to take the highway off the site of the airport there, it was learned over the week-end. Now the road crosses the station which is being enlarged from an auxiliary field to a full sized school.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY—Funeral services for the late Donald R. MacFadyen, 46, were held from the Maclean Funeral Home yesterday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. G. Chryle Webster. The remains will be forwarded this morning to Saskatoon, Sask., where interment will take place. The boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L.R. MacFadyen will accompany the body. The child died last week while visiting here with his parents.

Fire last night destroyed the farm buildings of Clarence H. Reid at Stanley Bridge, together with several stock, crop and implements. Several barns and the dwelling were included. A small amount of furniture and other articles in the house were removed before spreading flames drove salvage workers away. Origin of the fire is unknown.

Mr. Reid's loss included two horses, nine head of cattle, several pigs, some hens and all his crop and most of his implements. No estimate of the amount of loss was available but it was believed it would be in excess of $2,000.

The solemn and impressive Commemorative Service, held in memory of departed members of the Charlottetown Council, was held last night at the Knights of Columbus Home Grand Knight J. T. Croxson presided.

Rev. A. MacDonald, C.S.B.R. delivered the sermon on "Our Order and its Dead." Eulogies were read by Rev. Patrick McMahon, Mr. Donald A. MacDonald on the late J.C. Cummins, and Mr. W. J. Bradburn on the late John McDevine. The choir was under the direction of Rev. Dr. Bernard Gillis and the ceremonial was in charge of the Warden, Mr. Daniel Noonan.

PRESENTATION.—Mrs. J. L. Saunders, Kensington, entertained on Tuesday night in honor of Mrs. U. J. Pineau who left this week with her family to join Mr. Pineau who has been in Picton for some months. The feature of the program was the reading of a farewell address by Mrs. Frank McDougall while Mrs. LeRoy and Mrs. Donald A. MacDonald presented Mrs. Pineau with a beautiful reversible blanket. Mrs. Pineau expressed her surprise and delight at her own presentation. The guests then enjoyed several rounds of cards, the prize being won by Mrs. Frank McDougall. Mrs. Pendergrass presented the consolation prize and Mrs. Pineau received the guest prize, a beautiful silver card tray. A delicious lunch served by Mrs. Saunders assisted by several ladies, Mr. and Mrs. Pineau during their short time of residence in Kensington took a number of part in all community activities and made many warm friends who sincerely regret their departure.—K.

HUGHES—YOUNKER.—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at 3 o'clock yesterday at St. Manse, Winsloe, at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, November 18th, when Rena Clark, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Younger was united in marriage to Charles Frederick, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes. The bride was dressed in a street length dress of blue crepe, redingote style with black accessories and carried a bouquet of white flowers. Her bridesmaid, Miss Edna Wigmore wore a navy blue costume with matching accessories and corsage. The groom wore a tuxedo. The ceremony was supported by Mr. Alton Younker. A reception was held in Queen Hotel, Charlottetown, to the immediate families and friends of bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes left for the mainland on a short honeymoon. The bride's trousseau was a Hudson Sea Coat with black accessories. A host of friends join in wishing the happy couple a long and happy wedded life.

A quiet marriage ceremony took place at the St. John's Church, Charlottetown Saturday, Nov. 21st at 3 p.m. when Miss Marion Elaine Ramsay, daughter of Mrs. George Edgar Dockendorff and Mr. W. H. Ramsay, was united in marriage with Sgt. Lloyd Ernest Ward son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Ward. The ceremony was held in the St. John's United Church performed the ceremony which was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. George Edgar Dockendorff and a large number of friends. The bride was dressed in a dress of brown crepe with turquoise and beige trimmings with large hat of brown crepe. The bride has been employed as book-keeper with the firm of S.A. MacDonald, and will be accompanied by her many friends. Sgt. Ward is an instructor at No. 62 Basic Training Centre at Beach Grove, and has been the valuable bandmaster since the organization of the band more than a year ago. The band from the Training Centre was on hand to do honor to Sgt. Ward and his bride, and played "Here Comes the Bride" as the couple left for the honeymoon. The bride's attendants, Miss Margaret MacFadyen, Miss Lillian Duchemin, Miss Lillian Duchemin, District Commissioner of the Charlottetown Local Association then took the chair. The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and adopted. Reports of the year's activities were submitted by the President, Miss Lillian Duchemin and by the Secretary, Treasurer, Mrs. Gordon Avard. Mrs. Harry Hill, chairman of the nominating committee, brought in the following resolutions which were approved by the meeting:— President, Miss Lillian Duchemin. Vice-President, Mrs. G. H. Beer. Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Gordon Avard. Executive: St. Peters—Mrs. Bert Patterson, and Miss Nancy McDevine; St. John's—Mrs. H. Hill and Mrs. F. B. McLane; Central Christian—Mrs. Milton Carter; Holy Redeemer—Mrs. W. A. Ready and Mrs. J. J. Ready; Basilica—Mrs. M. J. Morris and Mrs. W. J. P. McMillan; Trinity—Mrs. Gordon McDonald and Mrs. Earl Baker.

ISLAND ARMEN GRADUATE—Graduation of No. 1 Wireless School Guelph, Ontario, Saturday afternoon, G.W. Rice of Charlottetown, J.I. MacDonald, Little Pond, and J. MacDonald, English. The classes were presented by the Group Capt. W.W. Brown, senior staff officer of No. 1 Training Command of the R.C.A.F.

A very delightful organ recital was given last night in Trinity Church, under the auspices of the Women's Music Club. The talented recitalist was Mr. Walter MacNutt, organist of Trinity Church, Toronto, and son of Major Edgar MacNutt of New City, Mr. MacNutt, who is a member of the Canadian Army is at present stationed at the Basic Training Centre, Beach Grove Inn.

FUNERAL AT HAMPSHIRE—The funeral of the late Mrs. John W. Hampel was held from her late residence Saturday afternoon. Services at the home and graves were conducted by Rev. G. Chryle Webster. The pallbearers were Messrs. George Kitson, Cecil Stewart, Hampson Bowman, Oliver Rogers, Frederick Watson, Watson Larrier. Interment was in Hampshire Cemetery.

LEAVES FOR TORONTO—Mr. E. P. Foley, President of the Prince Edward Island Pharmaceutical Association leaves this morning for Toronto to attend a meeting of the Canadian Drug Manufacturers' Association. Mr. Foley also attended the meeting of the Canadian Association of Dispensing Chemists in Toronto.

Word was received at the Bishop's residence here yesterday of the death of Mrs. Estelle Mother Provincial of St. Joseph's diocese of Hamilton, Ont., a sister of His Excellency Bishop J. A. Nicholas. Mrs. Mother was the wife of her sister's illness with pneumonia was received last week by Bishop O'Sullivan, who left for Hamilton by plane on Friday. He arrived about an hour after she had passed away. The deceased is also survived by Mrs. E.I. Duffy, Hamilton, and another daughter who is employed in the Customs department at Hamilton.

FUNERAL OF AGED NURSE—Funeral services for Miss Agnes O'Halloran, 76-year-old retired registered nurse at Farmington, who died at her home in St. Dunstan's Basilica here last Saturday morning, were held at 10 o'clock yesterday at the grave Palbearers were: Messrs. Harry Murphy, Plus Murphy, T.M. Nicholas, James MacNutt, John Smith and William Hughes. Interment was in the Roman Catholic Cemetery.

TUESDAY FUNERAL HELD—The funeral of George McDonald was held Friday afternoon from the residence of Joseph Power, 284 Sydney Street, St. John's Church, Charlottetown. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. F. Mullaly who also officiated at the grave in the afternoon. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Frank McCarron, Frank Murphy, Isadore Martin, William McLellan, D. Collins and Martin MacKinnon.

FUNERAL AT YORK—Funeral of the late Herbert A. Vessey of York was held yesterday afternoon at a short service at the home followed by service in York United Church conducted by Rev. J. A. Nicholas, assisted by Rev. W. A. Wilson. Pallbearers were: Frank Howard, Robert Crockett, Wesley Mathew, Edward Vessey, Milton Vessey, Abner Vessey. Interment was in York Cemetery.

Twelve soldiers left No. 62 Canadian Army Basic Training Centre at Beach Grove for service elsewhere in Canada. Included in the draft were: Privates R. Burns, Bristol; V. S. Grew, Charlottetown; A. K. Cameron, Charlottetown; A. H. DeLaney, Ebsfleet; M. B. Doucette, North Ruston; A. W. Dunn, Summerside; Mr. McFarquhar, New Harbour; Mr. McFarquhar, Ebsfleet; L. N. Noy, Ebsfleet; E. L. Paugh, Northam; K. D. Quigley, Alberton, and R. B. Whitty.

The annual meetings of the Local and Provincial Guilds Association were held at Government House yesterday afternoon, and were largely attended. The Provincial Guilds Association, presided by Mrs. J. H. Hill, and the Local Guilds Association, presided by Mrs. J. H. Hill, both organizations were held at Government House. Mrs. J. H. Hill, chairman of the nominating committee, brought in the following resolutions which were approved by the meeting:— President, Miss Lillian Duchemin. Vice-President, Mrs. G. H. Beer. Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Gordon Avard. Executive: St. Peters—Mrs. Bert Patterson, and Miss Nancy McDevine; St. John's—Mrs. H. Hill and Mrs. F. B. McLane; Central Christian—Mrs. Milton Carter; Holy Redeemer—Mrs. W. A. Ready and Mrs. J. J. Ready; Basilica—Mrs. M. J. Morris and Mrs. W. J. P. McMillan; Trinity—Mrs. Gordon McDonald and Mrs. Earl Baker.

TRANSFERRED—Friends of Mr. G.H. MacLellan, Assistant Accountant of the Royal Bank of Canada, Charlottetown P.E.I. will be pleased to learn of the appointment of Mr. MacLellan as Assistant Accountant at the Glace Bay, N.S. Branch of the above institution. Mr. and Mrs. MacLellan leave on Saturday for Glace Bay.

RELEASED ON BAIL—Mr. Edward Chappel of Summerside, who had previously been committed to supreme court on a charge of manslaughter appeared before Municipal Magistrate E. H. Strong in the Summerside Police Court on Saturday morning and was released on $4,000 bail.—S.

SEES SERVICE IN RUSSIA—Mrs. Joseph McEvoy (nee Helen MacNeill) of Summerside has received a cable from her husband, Sgt. Joseph McEvoy, R.C.A.F., who is in England, stating that he has returned from Russia where he served two months. Sgt. McEvoy is a lieutenant in the R.C.A.F. and went overseas last January 5.

KILLED ABOARD CARRIER—Word has been received here that the late Mr. W. H. Reid, recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.

WINS MEDAL—Harry Costello of Saskatoon is the winner of the gold medal and a cash prize for instructor in physical drill at the Saskatoon Normal School. The awards were provided by the Strathcona Trust for Physical Training. Mr. Costello is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now in charge of the St. Hillare School at Saskatoon, Sask. He is the son of the late Dr. G. E. F. Moore of Craupad, and is survived by his wife and mother, also one brother, who is serving in the American Army.

ON C.W.L. EXECUTIVE—At a special meeting of the Executive of the C.W.L. held recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.

WINS MEDAL—Harry Costello of Saskatoon is the winner of the gold medal and a cash prize for instructor in physical drill at the Saskatoon Normal School. The awards were provided by the Strathcona Trust for Physical Training. Mr. Costello is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now in charge of the St. Hillare School at Saskatoon, Sask. He is the son of the late Dr. G. E. F. Moore of Craupad, and is survived by his wife and mother, also one brother, who is serving in the American Army.

ON C.W.L. EXECUTIVE—At a special meeting of the Executive of the C.W.L. held recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.

WINS MEDAL—Harry Costello of Saskatoon is the winner of the gold medal and a cash prize for instructor in physical drill at the Saskatoon Normal School. The awards were provided by the Strathcona Trust for Physical Training. Mr. Costello is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now in charge of the St. Hillare School at Saskatoon, Sask. He is the son of the late Dr. G. E. F. Moore of Craupad, and is survived by his wife and mother, also one brother, who is serving in the American Army.

ON C.W.L. EXECUTIVE—At a special meeting of the Executive of the C.W.L. held recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.

WINS MEDAL—Harry Costello of Saskatoon is the winner of the gold medal and a cash prize for instructor in physical drill at the Saskatoon Normal School. The awards were provided by the Strathcona Trust for Physical Training. Mr. Costello is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now in charge of the St. Hillare School at Saskatoon, Sask. He is the son of the late Dr. G. E. F. Moore of Craupad, and is survived by his wife and mother, also one brother, who is serving in the American Army.

ON C.W.L. EXECUTIVE—At a special meeting of the Executive of the C.W.L. held recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.

WINS MEDAL—Harry Costello of Saskatoon is the winner of the gold medal and a cash prize for instructor in physical drill at the Saskatoon Normal School. The awards were provided by the Strathcona Trust for Physical Training. Mr. Costello is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now in charge of the St. Hillare School at Saskatoon, Sask. He is the son of the late Dr. G. E. F. Moore of Craupad, and is survived by his wife and mother, also one brother, who is serving in the American Army.

ON C.W.L. EXECUTIVE—At a special meeting of the Executive of the C.W.L. held recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.

WINS MEDAL—Harry Costello of Saskatoon is the winner of the gold medal and a cash prize for instructor in physical drill at the Saskatoon Normal School. The awards were provided by the Strathcona Trust for Physical Training. Mr. Costello is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now in charge of the St. Hillare School at Saskatoon, Sask. He is the son of the late Dr. G. E. F. Moore of Craupad, and is survived by his wife and mother, also one brother, who is serving in the American Army.

ON C.W.L. EXECUTIVE—At a special meeting of the Executive of the C.W.L. held recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.

WINS MEDAL—Harry Costello of Saskatoon is the winner of the gold medal and a cash prize for instructor in physical drill at the Saskatoon Normal School. The awards were provided by the Strathcona Trust for Physical Training. Mr. Costello is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now in charge of the St. Hillare School at Saskatoon, Sask. He is the son of the late Dr. G. E. F. Moore of Craupad, and is survived by his wife and mother, also one brother, who is serving in the American Army.

ON C.W.L. EXECUTIVE—At a special meeting of the Executive of the C.W.L. held recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.

WINS MEDAL—Harry Costello of Saskatoon is the winner of the gold medal and a cash prize for instructor in physical drill at the Saskatoon Normal School. The awards were provided by the Strathcona Trust for Physical Training. Mr. Costello is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now in charge of the St. Hillare School at Saskatoon, Sask. He is the son of the late Dr. G. E. F. Moore of Craupad, and is survived by his wife and mother, also one brother, who is serving in the American Army.

ON C.W.L. EXECUTIVE—At a special meeting of the Executive of the C.W.L. held recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.

WINS MEDAL—Harry Costello of Saskatoon is the winner of the gold medal and a cash prize for instructor in physical drill at the Saskatoon Normal School. The awards were provided by the Strathcona Trust for Physical Training. Mr. Costello is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now in charge of the St. Hillare School at Saskatoon, Sask. He is the son of the late Dr. G. E. F. Moore of Craupad, and is survived by his wife and mother, also one brother, who is serving in the American Army.

ON C.W.L. EXECUTIVE—At a special meeting of the Executive of the C.W.L. held recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.

WINS MEDAL—Harry Costello of Saskatoon is the winner of the gold medal and a cash prize for instructor in physical drill at the Saskatoon Normal School. The awards were provided by the Strathcona Trust for Physical Training. Mr. Costello is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now in charge of the St. Hillare School at Saskatoon, Sask. He is the son of the late Dr. G. E. F. Moore of Craupad, and is survived by his wife and mother, also one brother, who is serving in the American Army.

ON C.W.L. EXECUTIVE—At a special meeting of the Executive of the C.W.L. held recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.

WINS MEDAL—Harry Costello of Saskatoon is the winner of the gold medal and a cash prize for instructor in physical drill at the Saskatoon Normal School. The awards were provided by the Strathcona Trust for Physical Training. Mr. Costello is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now in charge of the St. Hillare School at Saskatoon, Sask. He is the son of the late Dr. G. E. F. Moore of Craupad, and is survived by his wife and mother, also one brother, who is serving in the American Army.

ON C.W.L. EXECUTIVE—At a special meeting of the Executive of the C.W.L. held recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.

WINS MEDAL—Harry Costello of Saskatoon is the winner of the gold medal and a cash prize for instructor in physical drill at the Saskatoon Normal School. The awards were provided by the Strathcona Trust for Physical Training. Mr. Costello is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now in charge of the St. Hillare School at Saskatoon, Sask. He is the son of the late Dr. G. E. F. Moore of Craupad, and is survived by his wife and mother, also one brother, who is serving in the American Army.

ON C.W.L. EXECUTIVE—At a special meeting of the Executive of the C.W.L. held recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.

WINS MEDAL—Harry Costello of Saskatoon is the winner of the gold medal and a cash prize for instructor in physical drill at the Saskatoon Normal School. The awards were provided by the Strathcona Trust for Physical Training. Mr. Costello is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now in charge of the St. Hillare School at Saskatoon, Sask. He is the son of the late Dr. G. E. F. Moore of Craupad, and is survived by his wife and mother, also one brother, who is serving in the American Army.

ON C.W.L. EXECUTIVE—At a special meeting of the Executive of the C.W.L. held recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.

WINS MEDAL—Harry Costello of Saskatoon is the winner of the gold medal and a cash prize for instructor in physical drill at the Saskatoon Normal School. The awards were provided by the Strathcona Trust for Physical Training. Mr. Costello is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now in charge of the St. Hillare School at Saskatoon, Sask. He is the son of the late Dr. G. E. F. Moore of Craupad, and is survived by his wife and mother, also one brother, who is serving in the American Army.

ON C.W.L. EXECUTIVE—At a special meeting of the Executive of the C.W.L. held recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.

WINS MEDAL—Harry Costello of Saskatoon is the winner of the gold medal and a cash prize for instructor in physical drill at the Saskatoon Normal School. The awards were provided by the Strathcona Trust for Physical Training. Mr. Costello is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now in charge of the St. Hillare School at Saskatoon, Sask. He is the son of the late Dr. G. E. F. Moore of Craupad, and is survived by his wife and mother, also one brother, who is serving in the American Army.

ON C.W.L. EXECUTIVE—At a special meeting of the Executive of the C.W.L. held recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.

WINS MEDAL—Harry Costello of Saskatoon is the winner of the gold medal and a cash prize for instructor in physical drill at the Saskatoon Normal School. The awards were provided by the Strathcona Trust for Physical Training. Mr. Costello is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now in charge of the St. Hillare School at Saskatoon, Sask. He is the son of the late Dr. G. E. F. Moore of Craupad, and is survived by his wife and mother, also one brother, who is serving in the American Army.

ON C.W.L. EXECUTIVE—At a special meeting of the Executive of the C.W.L. held recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.

WINS MEDAL—Harry Costello of Saskatoon is the winner of the gold medal and a cash prize for instructor in physical drill at the Saskatoon Normal School. The awards were provided by the Strathcona Trust for Physical Training. Mr. Costello is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and is now in charge of the St. Hillare School at Saskatoon, Sask. He is the son of the late Dr. G. E. F. Moore of Craupad, and is survived by his wife and mother, also one brother, who is serving in the American Army.

ON C.W.L. EXECUTIVE—At a special meeting of the Executive of the C.W.L. held recently in Charlottetown, the following were appointed on the executive: Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Hill; Work, Miss Mary MacDonnell, Charlottetown; Conventor of Publicity, Mrs. Earle Hewick, Summerside; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. Frank Coody, New Cross.

Mr. George L. Boswell of Frenchoff, not far from the site of the late Dr. P. E. Harris at Hospital here yesterday. He was 61 years old.

Mr. Boswell was one of the Provincial best known farmers. At provincial exhibitions he always carried off a large share of the honours in the Agriculture class and was a mainstay of the fair as well as at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto before it was cancelled by the outbreak of the war. He was a member of the R.A.F. and was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada. He was a member of the Royal Agricultural Society of Canada.