Tomorrow evening at eight o'clock in Zion Church there will be a meeting of all interested in more efficient Sunday School work. Rev. J. B. Gason, the traveling secretary of the N. B. and P. E. I. Sunday School Association will address the meeting, which will be a very interesting one to all aggressive schools and workers.

The following address which has been presented to Mrs. D. A. Lawson and family of Georgetown was signed with deepest sympathy on behalf of the Miller Mission Band, Hunter River, by Mrs. Simon Brown, Pres.

Dear Mrs. Lawson and Family:—As a member of the "Miller Mission Band" of Hunter River, I have been requested to convey to you my sympathy in your late bereavement.

Human consolation seldom consoles, but in such circumstances as this we cannot refrain from speaking what is in our hearts. Just a few months past and your home was among us. We felt favored in having such a family in our community, and when you were called to take up your work elsewhere, only those who worked nearest you, and knew you best could appreciate the loss.

Barthly shifts are but types of the one last shift we all shall make, and when we bade you good bye we little thought that Mr. Lawson would so soon be taken from his home here to the home above. It is well with him, but every hard for you who are left behind, especially hard not to have even the assurance of a parting word. In this particularly sad, and trying experience you have our sincerest sympathy. And yet dear friends, might it not be worse than it is? You have many consoling memories. Mr. Lawson leaves in the world behind him a splendid record. He was a Christian gentleman, a man whose penial broad mindedness was known to be love, and respect. He had the happy knack of being friendly without being familiar.

Relations within the home circle may not be freely spoken of at such a time as this, but no one who was wont to visit your home or enjoy its hospitality could fail to note the spirit of confidence, and quiet harmony that prevailed there. Memories of such concord must sweeten the sorrows of bereavement.

The future offers more comfort than the past. It is bright with hope, not the uncertain reflection of a human desire, but the steady gleam that shines from God. He died in the Faith in which he lived, and has gone to a land fairer than dreams have ever pictured, to dwell "forever with the Lord." The ties of love are not sundered. When earth's rough day has closed you will gather in the home above, where he is waiting for you, and the same love that thrilled you, and the same harmony that sweetened your lives here, shall enter into the holier and fuller fellowship of the hereafter.

Yes, and best of all you shall see the face of Him through whose sufferings all this glorious hope has come, and you all shall rejoice in His love forevermore.

May the comforting spirit make this hope shine into your dark and lonely experience with such power that shall nerve you to life's struggle, and teach your hearts to say "Not my will O Lord but Thine be done."

"Our Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites enriches and strengthens the blood tones up the nerves and restores general health in every way. If weak and run down give it a trial and you will soon be convinced of its merits. Sold at 75c a bottle—A. W. Reddin, Phem B.
