POLICE COURT—At the police court yesterday morning a man charged with being in possession of intoxicating liquor was fined $200 or three months. A drunk was remanded until Monday. The case of a man charged with obstructing a police officer was further remanded until today. A case of non-support was adjourned until this morning. Two proprietors of local restaurants were each fined $5 for being in possession of oysters during the closed season.

FAREWELL PARTY—A large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McEntee, Emerald, on September 20th, to tender a fond farewell to their daughter, Miss Eileen, who was about to enter the Novitiate of the Sisters of Martha, Charlottetown. Eileen was a great favorite among both old and young, as was shown by the large number who were present, and will be greatly missed from the community which she has left. An address was read by Miss Pauline Murphy, and a presentation made by Miss Edna Murphy, which showed the high place Eileen held amongst her friends and companions. A lunch was then served by the hostess and other visiting hostesses, a few hours following were passed in dancing, after which her friends departed for their respective homes, wishing Eileen the best of luck and happiness in her future enterprise.

NEW RESIDENT WELCOMED—

Mr. Phillip McNally, a well known farmer in the vicinity of Summerside for many years is now located in Summerfield, Lot 67, where he purchased a fine farm from Hon. Senator Sinclair. His new neighbors welcome him in their midst as Mr. McNally is a good citizen and a good farmer.

WEATHER FORECAST—October

1 to 8, fair fine spell followed by wind and rain. 9 to 15, cooler and fair but week ends wet. 16 to 22, weather is changeable with high winds. 23 to 29, not much sunshine this week. 30 to 31, ends wet.

ATTRACTED CROWD—Quite a

commotion was caused at the McLaine Service Station yesterday afternoon. Mr. Rankine McLaine, Bert Williams and a popular newspaper man attempted to move a "wood sawing machine" to the country, for delivery to Mr. ? Owing to some mechanical intricacies, the operator failed to get the machine under control, with the result that much concrete and ground got badly sawed up. However, after much advice from the bystanders and a lot of adjusting here and there the machine got off on its way to its future home, where no doubt its presence will be noticeable by the large poles of firewood it will leave in its wake.

The defendant in a case of common assault was fined five dollars and costs or ten days. A case of drunken driving was adjourned for a week. Two parties appeared, charged with theft of gas from a government tractor. One was given thirty morrow is Rally Day in Church and Sunday School. Dr. Vincent will preach morning and evening, following for the morning the series of sermons on "The abiding life." Included in the music of the day there will be a solo at the morning service by Mrs. A. C. Vinmanse, Charlottetown, P. E. I., Rev. G. C. Webster officiating, evening anthem, "In heavenly love abiding," "In beautiful Garden of Prayer," will be rendered by the choir. Exceptionally large attendance at all services is hoped for, and it is urged that every member of every class in the Sunday School should make it a point to be present. The evening subject, "Christ, my only necessity."

THE BAPTIST CHURCH—To-

TWO MEN who were discussing how family budgets could be made up so as to save money in these difficult times, found that they could save $2.60 a year on their tea bill by using MORSE'S STANDARD TEA (Red Label) or MORSE'S BLUE NOSE TEA (Brown Label) rather than package teas of corresponding grade which sell at 50 cents and 40 cents respectively. MORSE'S STANDARD TEA (Red Label) is only 45 cents per pound package, and MORSE'S BLUE NOSE TEA (Brown Label) is only 35 cents per pound package.
