

Gen. Crerar Guest at Government House

On the occasion of his recent visit to Charlottetown, P. E. I., General H. D. Crerar was guest of honour at a reception in Government House, where he received veterans of World War II, and chatted with them. Above, he is with His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Prince Edward Island J. A. Bernard and Mrs. Bernard. (Canadian Army Photo).

Is Welcomed Home

When Sgt. C. E. Bentley, of Greenwich, N. S., walked down the ramp from the "Empress of Scotland" Tuesday night, a member of the R. C. A. F. Women's Division, seeing him alone at the time, rushed up to give him a kiss of unofficial Air Force welcome back to Canada. The above picture shows LAW, Jean, Punceur, of Hawthorne Ave., Charlottetown, F. E. I., a telephone operator at A. C. Headquarters, Halifax, greeting Sgt. Bentley. The latter served more than two years overseas between England and Italy. (RCAP Photo by P/O W. G. Roy.)

Stock Markets At A Glance

NEW YORK, Dec. 4 (AP)—Stocks suffered an early profit-taking relapse in today's market but late buying of selected utilities, aircraft manufacturing and assorted industrials stemmed the decline and enabled scattered favorites to emerge with comfortable gains.

CAPE TOWN, Dec. 4 (CP)—Australian and New Zealand soldiers, indignant and disappointed, were allowed to disembark from Cape Town after a long voyage from England in-land after a display of eagerness to return to their homes.

THE men, bound for Australia, formed up into orderly parties once they were on land and marched into the city where they were given a rousing welcome.

The future of Italian prisoners, many of them wish to remain in South Africa is the subject of widespread discussion in the newspapers.

The government is considering the advisability of allowing a number of selected prisoners to settle here in exchange for quarries. It has been instructed to ask all prisoners of war camp commanders to obtain reports from employers on the prisoners' work general deportment and capabilities.

Should the government decide to allow them to remain the reports from camp commanders would be scrutinized by the department of external affairs and the department of the interior.

The housing shortage in the Union is becoming more critical daily and various organizations have decided on drastic measures to meet the situation.
