

FELT L

Charlottetown

Mrs. D. McE town, gives Dr health. Stom misery for her Here is Mrs. M

"I suffered a stomach and kid until I started t Everything I ate gas to form in which became times and made that I thought I The pains across often became so I could hardly My liver was al gish and I was great deal with I was very nerv fact was feeling wreck. "Thanks to Dre all my stomach.

Draco is be by E. A. Foster Drug Co., Limit by Souris Drug

SOUTH AMERICA N HAVEN FOR FLEE

RIO DE JANEIRO, the old days of ely tion, South America tuary often sought by crooks of both Europe ted States. The latl this continent then g. hundreds of embezal fetters, forgers and enabling them to sque gotten, gains in the best suited their unct aments.

Cables, radio, and connections, however made the "fade awa. America as difficult s of the equator.

Bernard Goldstein, had no sooner stole checks from the Amer Company in Berlin a train connecting with

THE

Why Imperial Fox on P. E. Island. Why healthier fox produced wherever Im fed.

Why losses have bee ity when Imperial Fox.

A PER

Is a term now w experience proves it ap Meat and fish supply p Carbohydrates and fat diet. Some of the a daily during the winter Order through you

IMPERIAL I

720-1-11.

MESSRS.

Sprin

SIL and o

LONDO anc

Silver Foxe mailed

E. I S Su

C. M.

Ja

AL

Silver Fox a London to avoid posed by the U

The Guardian Pictorial Page

Lieut. Osborne Wood, son of Gov.-Gen. Leonard Wood, of the Philippines, has accumulated a fortune of $700,000 to $800,000 over a short period on Wall street. His father says he will put an end to his son's financial adventures

Lieut. Osborne Wood, son of Gov.-Gen. Leonard Wood, of the Philippines, has accumulated a fortune of $700,000 to $800,000 over a short period on Wall street. His father says he will put an end to his son's financial adventures

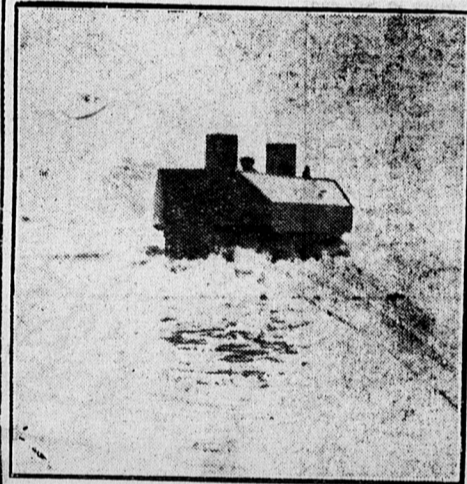

The famous French dare-devil, Albert de Winton, is shown making his 150-foot plunge into the sea at California, while handcuffed and bound with rope. He freed himself within a minute and a half

Dr. Herman L. Fairbank be sent by the United States to the islands of Panama to be home of the white man and, if possible, friendly relations

Here's a splendid study in expressions. Old and young take keen interest in a new Christmas puzzle being demonstrated by a hawkler in London

Naval officials gave a new type of amphibious tank a most exhaustive examination in a series of secret tests on Brighton Beach, N.Y., recently. The curious vehicle is shown moving through the surf

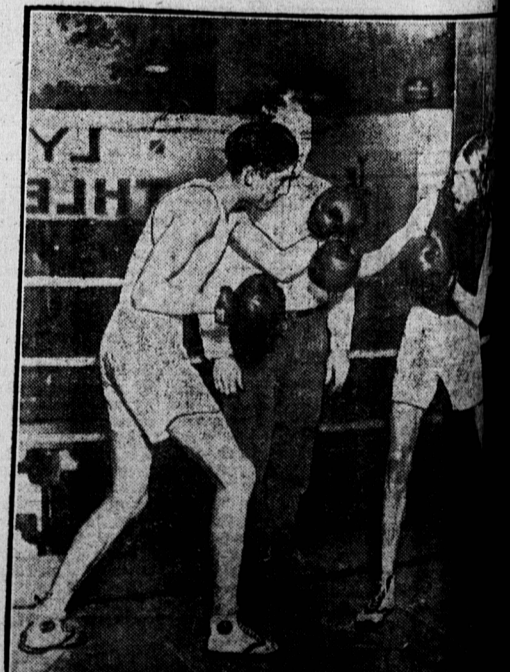

Here is the winning "A" crew in the eights, leaving Appleby's yard

One of the smartest canines in Great Britain is owned by a Sussex butcher. The dog takes his master's invoices and messages to the various customers' houses and frequently drives to market, as shown above

St. John Ervine, noted English theatre critic, took a look at the shows in this country and then remarked: "Brains for the stage instead of dimpled knees." Competition between good looks and brains is criminal, he thinks

"King David," the bearded newsboy boxer, a native of Los Angeles, has seven straight knockouts to his credit and is said to be in line for the lightweight crown. Photographed by the bewhiskered youth and his sparring partner

Mile. screen the n wema gaged Amer also l ing ne of use the