THE DISTINGUISHED CAREER OF ONE OF JAPAN'S GREAT GENERALS

He is Now Over Sixty-Five Years of Age—Not Physically Strong—Knows Manchuria and Korea from the Chinese War.

The generals who are leading the Japanese armies against Russia are men who have proved their skill and efficiency. They have seen actual service, and have fought over the very ground where they now meet the Russians. The first on the list in order of service is Field Marshal Yamagata, who is not only first in rank, but easily first in the esteem of the Japanese public and in the judgment of the government. He led the forces which crushed the rebellion in the straggle that restored the Emperor to power in 1868. In the following year he visited Russia and France, studying military subjects. In 1872 he became assistant secretary of war—a position which in Japan is always held by a general officer of the army. In the following year he was made lieutenant-general and two years later secretary of war.

The next year saw Japan in the throes of a fierce civil war. The rebellion was led by her greatest soldier, Field Marshal Saigo, who had with him some 50,000 of her best trained men. The government was compelled to put forth its greatest strength. An imperial prince was appointed to the nominal command, but as chief of staff Yamagata was the real general-in-chief, and led the forces which crushed the rebellion, Saigo having been slain. Yamagata became the first military man in the empire, and was promoted to the full rank of general.

Being a man of great mental ability, boundless energy and strong personality, he soon became almost as prominent in the political world as in the military, and shared with Marquis Ito the position of greatest influence with the Emperor. He was several times prime minister, and when not in that position always held some portfolio in the cabinet. He never ceased his active share in the development of the army. Through various official positions, such as inspector general, chief of the general staff and secretary of war, he kept himself in close touch with all parts of the army organization.

When war started with China in 1894 Yamagata was immediately given command of the first army that invaded Manchuria. Those who were with the army at the time describe the immense enthusiasm with which the coming of the great general was greeted by his soldiers. The rigors of a Manchurian winter speedily reduced Yamagata to such a condition that the Emperor, fearful of losing altogether the services of his ablest officer, called him back to Tokio to act as his chief military adviser.

After the war Yamagata was made a marquis and the military rank of field marshal was established, to which

Are You Troubled by Sleeplessness?

Over-wrought Nerves Cause the Trouble—Build Up, Fortify the Nervous System with Ferrozone—Then You Will Sleep Soundly.

There is probably no remedy that soothes the nerves and drives away those long nights of wakefulness like Ferrozone. Every person who is sleepless should take Ferrozone like Mr. J. H. McGaw, who writes from Saskatoon as follows:

"I was bothered with insomnia last summer to such an extent that my health almost broke down. I was frightfully nervous. If it had gone on much longer I would have been a physical wreck. I read about Ferrozone, and concluded it was the sort of remedy I needed. I bought six boxes, and took one tablet with every meal.

A change was at once noticeable. I no longer labored under such mental excitement, and was able to take things more quietly. Ferrozone improved my digestion, I picked up in spirits and strength, and in a comparatively short time sleep came the minute my head touched the pillow. Ferrozone completely rehabilitated my system, and has made me a different man altogether.

Don't wait until your condition becomes nervous prostration; it's hard to cure. Take Ferrozone regularly and the cause of your sleepless nights will be removed. It always cures insomnia.

Ferozone is the greatest health-giver, the most valuable tonic that money can buy. It will bring you lasting strength, vigor and health, at small cost. Only Ferrozone can do this so be sure that no dishonest dealer substitutes something represented "just as good." No other remedy is so good as Ferrozone, price 50c. per box six boxes for $2.50, at all druggists or N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

he was promoted. The active interference of Russia, backed by France and Germany, which deprived Japan of the fruits of her victory, led the government to seek some understanding that would preserve the independence of Corea. Yamagata was appointed special ambassador for this purpose and proceeded to St. Petersburg, where he effected the treaty which is the basis of Japan's latest demands upon Russia. Not trusting altogether to this Japan proceeded to double her army and greatly increase her navy. Several officers were promoted to the rank of field marshal in the army and an equal rank in the navy and organized into a supreme council of war. Of this Yamagata was made chief, a position which he still holds. Considering the season of the year and the fact that he is over sixty-five years old and rather frail physically, it is improbable that he will take the field in person but in any case he will occupy much the same place in this war that Von Moltke did in the Franco Prussian conflict.

REFUSED LIFE INSURANCE ON ACCOUNT OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

Mr. William F. Montgomery, the Largest Coal Merchant of Albany, N. Y., Was Refused Life Insurance on Account of Bright's Disease, but After Taking Warner's Safe Cure Was Accepted and Now Has His Policy.

Mr. WILLIAM F. MONTGOMERY, of Albany. Mr. Montgomery is a living testimonial of what this great medicine will do for any man or woman who has kidney or bladder trouble.

"Instead of writing this letter I wish it were possible for me to see and talk with all those who are suffering from kidney troubles. I could tell them in one brief interview what your medicine has done for me, what I know it will do for them. I enjoyed vigorous, good health up to a year ago, when overwork seemed to undermine my constitution. I paid little attention to the matter until it was brought home to me forcibly at an insurance examination. I failed to secure my policy, and after consulting the doctor who made the examination I became aware of my disease.

"Of course, I was alarmed and had repeated tests made of the urine for albumen, and the horror of the thing grew upon me when the doctors all pronounced the case Bright's Disease. Complications of the stomach set in, and although I doctored with well-known specialists I grew rapidly worse. This condition of affairs continued until last November. At that time my strength had diminished, and it seemed to me that I could not get well unless some relief was soon found. It was at this stage that interested friends brought to my attention Warner's Safe Cure. Cases were cited where it had accomplished good results. There being no objections, and all hope having been despaired of, I procured the first bottle. After a few days there were some encouraging indications. The slight improvement noted continued and grew and in a month albumen was entirely eliminated from the urine. I gained rapidly in strength and health and am now in perfect condition. My life insurance has been granted me and I feel that I owe my health and life to Warner's Safe Cure."

Yours truly, W. F. MONTGOMERY.
