REV. H. W. STEWART, pastor of the Coburg Street Christian church, took farewell of his congregation on Sunday. Mr. Stewart was forced to resign on account of ill health. He has been connected with the Coburg Street Church for about eight and a half years, and was well liked by the congregation. Besides conducting the work of pastor, Mr. Stewart also acted as desk editor of the Christian. He has left for his home in Prince Edward Island, where he will remain for a few weeks. He will then proceed to Los Angeles with the hope that his health will improve in that milder climate.—St. John Globe.

ON Monday evening, the 30th inst., Mr. Wm. McMillan and G. Lewis paid a visit to Rosebud Lodge, Sturgeon. There were present a good representation of members, considering the particular busy season of the year. It being the last meeting of the quarter the following officers were elected for the incoming term: C. T. Wm. Moorv, (re-elected); V. T. Kate McKinnon; Chap. S. W. Johnstone; Sec'y. Elvina Matthew; A. S. Laura Hicks; Guard, James McKinnon; Sent, Mark Connors; Marshall, Lena Hicken; D. M. John Connod. F. S. Moretta Moore; Treas. Linda McKinnon [re-elected]. After the various items of business were dispersed with the Grand Treas. was called upon and briefly addressed the lodge. Readings were given. A debate was vigorously carried on by Bros. Johnson, Creed and others. Rosebud is one of the oldest lodges on the Island. It has encountered difficulties which at times greatly reduced its vitality, yet it has lived through them all, and is now in a comparatively healthy and prosperous condition.

THE scene at the Dockyard Friday morning was a very busy one. The big cruiser Cr. soent and her smaller sister, the Tribune, were both at the wharves, and scores of men were rushing coal and provisions on board. The coaling will be completed by this afternoon, and both ships will then be fully equipped for the voyage to the West Indies, or, should an emergency arise, for any other country. The work of provisioning the ships was commenced somewhat earlier this year than usual. Although more provisions may be taken on before the ships sail for the West Indies. The cruiser Talbot, which was at anchor off P. E. No. 4, had the 'paying off' pennant at her masthead to-day.—Halifax Echo, 28th.
