PRESENTATION

TO PTE. CLIFFORD KEENAN "A" CO'Y., 105TH. BAT.

A very pleasant evening of the 24th was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Keenan, Wood Islands, when a large number of friends and neighbours gathered to bid farewell to their son Pte. Keenan, Miss Ada McLeod and Miss Tom Horton. Violin and piano was also furnished by Mr. C. S. McDonald and Mr. Daniel Keenan. A silver military wristlet watch was given him by his parents, sisters and brothers. The following address was read by his cousin Mr. Percy Keenan while his sister Myrtle Keenan presented the watch. Being taken so much by surprise he was unable to make any reply. Mr. C. S. McDonald made a very suitable and clever speech, testifying to the popularity and esteem in which he was held by the community, after which a large supper was served by his mother and with the singing of the National Anthem a very pleasant evening was brought to a close.

ADDRESS. Dear Clifford: On the eve of your departure to resume your military duties and to rejoin your comrades in arms after your brief but pleasant vacation among us we your parents, brothers and sisters cannot allow you to leave us without some expression of our kind re-
