IN MEMORIAM JACK L. BEER

The community of Hampton was shocked and saddened when word was received on the 28th of July that Jack L. Beer had been drowned in a Pickle Lake. Only three months before Jack had left home to join his brother in Ontario, and had found work at carpentering at the Central Patricia Gold Mine at Pickle Lake, and was doing well, so the news of his sudden and tragic death was a great shock to all his friends. He had gone swimming alone in the lake and was seized with cramps. His cries for help were heard and a young man rushed to his rescue, but could not bring him to shore. He was only eighteen years of age, and was a favorite with all who knew him for his friendly ways and his willingness to help whenever help was needed. His body was laid to rest in a beautiful spot in Slough Lookout, and the funeral service was conducted by Rev. Cecil King, United Church Minister of Hudson, Ont., the attendance of many friends and the beautiful flowers bearing testimony to the esteem in which Jack was held.

The sympathy of the whole community and many other friends goes out to those who mourn, his mother, Mrs. Mary Beer, and brother, Martin, of Brookline, Mass., and his brother George, of Pickle Lake. I never stand above a bier and see the seal of death set on some well-loved face. But that I think: "One more to welcome me When I shall cross the intervening space Between this land and that one 'over there.' One more to make the strange 'Beyond seem fair.'"

MRS. AUGUSTUS MCQUAID

News of the death of Mrs. Augustus McQuaid will be heard with deep regret, by her many friends in the city and Stanhope where deceased was born 48 years ago, the daughter of James McCabe and the late Mrs. McCabe. She was a kind and devoted wife, and a truly Christian mother, whose heart and energies were centered in the home and family and to them her death is a sad and irreparable loss.

She was of an extremely kind and sympathetic nature, always ready to help anyone in need of assistance in illness or death. Everything humanly possible was done to prolong her life, but she had called her, and with truly Christian courage and resignation she passed to her reward. Possessing a pleasing personality she endeared herself to all with whom she came in contact.

Mrs. McQuaid is survived by her husband and two daughters Denise and Thibis of this city. She is also survived by her aged father, two brothers and four sisters, Bernard and Thomas of Stanhope, Mrs. Horgan and Mrs. MacDonald of Stanhope, Mrs. Joseph Hennessey and Miss Frances of this city.

The funeral takes place this morning (Wednesday) at 8:15.

Card of Thanks Mrs. Mary Beer of Hampton and family wish to extend sincere thanks to their many friends for kindnesses and expressions of sympathy during their recent sad bereavement. L-9127-11 the Saviour as recorded in sacred writ. The peace, unity and concord of nations will only be attained when all men unite in the adoration of Christ who said: "I am the Way, the truth and the Life." His Excellency reminded the congregation. Pontifical Benediction which followed, was given by His Grace the Archbishop of Toronto, assisted by the Rev. Urban Gillis, Deacon, Rev. Basil Croken, Sub-deacon, and Rev. Louis A. Dougan, Master of Ceremonies. The Chaplains of Bishop O'Sullivan were Rev. I. R. A. MacDonald and Rev. F. X. Gallant. The hymns for benediction were rendered by the Vernon River Choir.

4th Eucharistic Congress Meets At Vernon River

In all the parish has given 24 priests, one bishop, 33 sisters and six religious brothers to the Church.

In conclusion, Rev. Father McGuigan said that Vernon River was greatly honoured in having Most Rev. James McGuigan, Archbishop of Toronto, one of the Province's outstanding sons, present at the Congress.

Rev. Father McGuigan's address was followed by a sermon by Most Rev. J. A. O'Sullivan, Bishop of Charlottetown.

The Bishop in his opening remarks complimented the parish of Vernon River on the magnificent preparations which had evidently been made for the Congress, and he expressed his sincere thanks to the pastor and the committee who had assisted in this work. The doctrine of the Real Presence of Christ in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, he said, is the centre of Catholic worship and devotion. Since Apostolic times the voice of the Church has been raised in defence of this belief. His Excellency continued, and Fathers and Doctors of the Church bear eloquent witness to the unflinching devotion shown the Blessed Sacrament in all ages and among all classes of people. When the doctrine was attacked in the 16th century the Fathers of the Council of Trent issued an appeal to all Christian people to be of one mind regarding this Sacrament, which they called the sign of unity, the bond of charity and the symbol of Christian concord.

Time has not dimmed this anxiety of the Church to bear public witness to the reality of God's actual presence in the world, the Bishop said, and with the development of modern convenience in gathering together her people for public professions of faith, the idea of holding Eucharistic Congresses originated in the mind of a devout Catholic woman in France, Mlle. Tamisier of the city of Tours. Through her efforts the first international congress was held in Lille, France, in the year 1881. Since then 31 Eucharistic Congresses on an international scale have been held in various parts of the world, and many national and diocesan congresses have been celebrated. The purpose of all these congresses is the same: it is to bring the true doctrine of the Church before all classes, so that Christ may really be given the place which is His by divine right, His God-head, as Saviour of mankind. Christ came to teach mankind the meaning of life, and to lead all men to eternal life with God. Only when Christ is accepted as the fountain of true life, and the conqueror of death, can men hope to enjoy peace of mind in this world, and die with happiness. The true Christian must be wounded for our transgressions and model his life upon the teaching of Another theme of interest to many religious people was considered by Evangelist F. W. Johnston at the Forum last night when he dealt with what he said was a much misunderstood passage of Scripture in Luke 16: 19-31 regarding the "Rich Man and Lazarus." Mr. Johnston maintained that there was no one yet in hell and that the Bible nowhere upheld the idea of any one going there until after the resurrection. He said that neither the soul or body would receive any reward until the future at the close of the millennium. After referring to many scriptures to substantiate his claim he then entered into an analysis of the scripture on "The Rich Man and Lazarus."

Before proving when the rich man would actually go to his reward as well as Lazarus, he pointed out that the individuals brought to view were real people. The scripture, he said, said nothing whatever of the soul of the rich man or Lazarus. They were real individuals with eyes, tongues, fingers, etc. But the popular view is that the soul is immaterial and invisible which view he said contradicts the language of this scripture. Mr. Johnston believed that the whole person would go to hell at the time appointed and not merely the soul of spirit. The soul alone he said had no entity whatever apart from the body. He did not say what the soul is for that he said was reserved for another future lecture, but whatever the soul is, Mr. Johnston said it died with the body and would rise with the body. It did not live after death. He referred to many scriptures to support his point that the soul died and remains in the grave and did not therefore go either to heaven or hell until it receives a resurrection at the coming of Christ.

But now he raised the question "What about the rich man and Lazarus?" if people do not go to hell at death. Mr. Johnston said it was a prophecy of the future. But how could it be a prophecy? Does it not say that the rich man was seen in hell and Lazarus in Abraham's bosom? Very true he said, but all prophecy is written in the past tense. For instance, he said, we read in Isaiah 53: 4-7 that Christ was wounded for our transgressions and bruised for our iniquities," etc. This

STATE OF "STEEL HELMETS" STILL A PROBLEM

BERLIN, August 13—Nazi chiefs pondered tonight what to do with the "reactionary" Steel Helmet Veterans' organization and its leader, Franz Seldte, Minister of Labor. Although Seldte conferred yesterday with Reichsfuehrer Hitler, the problem apparently had not been solved.

Seldte, informed circles understood, expressed willingness to have such formations as left Steel Helmet groups merge into the Kyffhaeusbund Veterans' Society, whose leader, Colonel Wilhelm Reinhard, consistently has taken the attitude that veterans must stand squarely behind Hitler and the Nazi movement.

Reinhard, however, declined to take certain Steel Helmet men into his organization simply because they were members of Seldte's organization, fearing dissolution of his own organization.

There was little doubt of final dissolution either by Seldte or Government decree of the once proud "Steel Helmet."

Victor Lutze, leader of the Storm Troopers, said during the "purge" of a year ago only "the pick of idealists" has been accepted for the Nazi defence force. The troopers apparently will lead the fight against "state enemies," Semitism and "political Catholicism."

A reliable informant said the Storm Troopers were told, "it is not sufficient to be antisemitic. You must learn to hate the Jews."

statement was written several hundred years before Christ was even born, yet it was written in the book of Revelation in speaking of the future said he "saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away." Rev. 21:1. Now the facts are said Mr. Johnston that the earth has not yet passed away. It is still a future expectancy. But it was written in the past tense. Thus it is evident that a future fact in prophecy is usually written in the past tense. So must we understand the prophecy of the "Rich Man and Lazarus." It is a future event about any one going to hell. If Lazarus had gone to heaven or Abraham's bosom strange to say that when Christ raised Lazarus to life he did not say "Lazarus come down from heaven," but rather go to the grave he had the stone rolled away from the tomb and cried "Lazarus come forth" and we are told he came forth bound in grave clothes and they loosed him and let him go. "If Lazarus had gone to heaven he was not very enthusiastic about having had the trip; for he knew nothing about it.

Mr. Johnston then stated what he believed was the purpose of giving this record by Christ. It was to arouse the Jewish nation to the necessity of being prepared for the future and shows them how that once they get into the place of torment their is no more redemption for them. He also reversed the prevailing idea among the Jews that only rich men would go to heaven. He here shows the opposite that riches are no proof of divine favor nor is poverty a mark of divine disfavor. A righteous character is the only passport, he said, into God's eternal kingdom.

At the close of the session the Degree Mistress, Mrs. Jean Crockett, was presented with a beautiful spinning desk and the Degree Master, Angus MacEneaney, with a smoking set.
