

Important Provincial News the week for Saturday Subscribers.

MONDAY.

Before the Stipendiary Magistrate, on Saturday, C. R. McKinnon, Emerald was fined $100 and costs for selling coffee against the Prohibition Act. The information was laid by Prosecutor Brown of York.

Harry Rodd, son of Mrs Geo Turner, formerly of Winslow Road, who is now residing in Medicine Hat (Alberta), and who has for the past year been employed on the C. P. R. express running west, recently met with an accident by losing his head while coupling cars together. He has the sympathy of his many Provincial friends in his misfortune.

The Alberton correspondent to The Guardian had an interview with Chief Detective Noble of the I. C. R. and has elicited the following information: "When in Alberton on Tuesday last he saw the case of Lewis McIntyre, made the remark that I knew where Irving Lewis, McIntyre's accomplice was, so that Lewis' friends would hear it, with the result that they despatched a well known chap, who claims to be an ex-detective, to get Lewis out of the Province of New Brunswick into the States. It did not take me long to get onto this move of theirs. This chap started off, like the famous Nick Carter, well disguised and on the pretence of selling cattle. I at once got friendly with him and he finally decided that he was a commercial traveller from St. John. We travelled on the same boat and train. I managed to see his ticket, which read to Bathurst, N.B., and return. Of course he thought I was going to St. John as he did not see me after arriving at Moncton, although I was on the same train with him. I had Detective Jones of Amherst meet me at Moncton, and he also got acquainted with the would be detective, who so much so that he, on their arrival at Bathurst, stuck right to him. In the meantime I had Sheriff Doucette of Bathurst, to meet me on the arrival of the train, at the Revere Hotel. This he did and from the information he both had and gave me, I drove out fifteen miles to a railway camp, near the Glasgow Iron mines, and arrested Irving Lewis. When arrested he had a 32 calibre revolver, with all the chambers loaded. We brought him to Bathurst and lodged him in goal. When I got back to Bathurst, about three o'clock that morning, I found my friend Jones entertaining his newly made friend, the would be detective. It is needless to say that the detective was amazed to see me, and at once realized that the jig was up. He was needless to say that Detective Jones and myself, our part of the fellow. We left on the Ocean Limited that morning and crossed on the boat Friday night, brought my man before Stipendiary Tweedy at Alberton on Saturday and he was remanded until the 20th for preliminary hearing. He had confessed to all the brigandage, except the station affair, but admits that he planned this affair with McIntyre.

TUESDAY.

A. M. Peters, who has been manager of the Bank of Montreal since its branch was organized here, leaves this morning for Sault Ste Marie, Ontario, where he will be permanently located in charge of the Bank's branch there. Mr Peters' family will follow in about three weeks time. Mr Peters' departure will be a matter of general regret in business and social circles in this City as he made himself universally popular with all. The Guardian's best wishes will follow Mr and Mrs Peters in their new home.

A. B. Warburton, M. P., has received from the Royal Canadian Humane Society, a Bronze medal of the order, to be presented to the Master Douglas City, of the Prince Edward Island Railway, who won recognition from this Society for saving the life of a lad named Arseneault at a wharf in Summerside in June 1908. The medal will be presented in a few days and it is probable that the presentation will be made by Mr Warburton, or one of the local or Civic Authorities. The accident took place on the wharf after the arrival of the Empress. The little chap, aged seven years, stepped over the wharf and Douglas observed him fall, immediately jumped to his rescue and succeeded in saving the boy's life.

At the Police Court yesterday John Byers and Gregory McLean were each fined $2 and costs for being drunk on Sunday the 10th inst. Harry Drake and Elizabeth Turner were each fined $1.00 and costs for non-payment of dog tax.

The Guardian readers will hear with deep regret, that owing to the new field of work, just entered upon by the Rev. J. W. Aikens, Amherst, he will be unable to furnish his paper, in the future, with a weekly sermon, as he has been doing in the past. Mr Aikens has been appointed Field Secretary of the Temperance and Moral Reform Department of the Methodist church and leaves in the near future for Manitoba on official business. His masterly sermons have been the source of much enjoyment and comfort to many readers of The Guardian, all of whom join in wishing him an abundance of spiritual blessing in his enlarged field of labor and will follow his work with much interest.

Many readers of The Guardian will be shocked to hear of the death of Mrs Chas McFarlane, Fernwood, on Sunday night, only about three days after the death of her husband. Mr McFarlane died on the 14th inst and the funeral took place on the 17th. Mrs McFarlane had been in poor health for the past year and the anxiety of her husband's condition, together with her own suffering, was more than she could bear, when Mr McFarlane's death was made known to her she began to sink and never again rallied till death came and released her from all sorrow, anguish and pain. Mrs McFarlane was the daughter of the late Samuel Waugh and Wilnot and was about 50 years of age. She leaves to mourn four sons all at home, three brothers at Wilnot, Thomas, Chas and Robert, and Wm at Calgary; five sisters, Mrs Geo Robertson, Summerside; Mrs Frank Tuplin, New Annan; Mrs S. Smallwood, Boston; Mrs W. E. Wood, Wilnot; and Mrs A. S. McKay, Summerside. Mrs McFarlane was well known as a good woman and her death will be greatly lamented. The funeral will take place at two p. m. today.

The reopening of the Summerfield social club, which was to have taken place on Monday evening, Oct. 18th, but postponed till the 19th owing to unfavorable weather took place on that date. After routine business had been transacted the following program was well rendered: Instrumental music, Orchestra; Vocal Solo, Thos McKay; Recitation, Miss Winnie Sinclair; Gramophone selections; Vocal Solo, Miss Nellie McDonald; Reading, Peter Sinclair; Vocal Solo, F. E. Haslam; Accompanist, Miss Emily Harding. John E. Sinclair then took the platform, and with an address, which lasted for an hour and a quarter, held the closest attention of the audience. His subject, "Places of Interest in the Old World," proved intensely interesting. Mr Sinclair having just returned from an extended tour of the European countries. At the conclusion of the lecture a vote of thanks was moved by C. L. McDonald, seconded by J. A. McKenzie, supported by Gavin Harding and Arch. Ferguson, and gracefully tendered by the president, Lewis MacDonald, to which the lecturer made a suitable reply. The singing of the National Anthem concluded a very pleasant entertainment.

Bowler, attorney of Panama, who has been spending a six weeks vacation in this province visiting relatives and friends and renewing old acquaintances, leaves on return to the Isthmus this morning. Mr Bowler's genial and hearty nature won for him many new friends in this little province and it is with feelings of regret that his acquaintances bid him "good-bye".

Prince Edward Island farmers always wait a little longer than the Nova Scotia farmers to market their hogs. He understood that the situation in the Island was about the same as it was a year ago, but Davis' opinion is that the present price will have to weaken a little as soon as the supply becomes freer; because, at the present time, the price is really higher than it ought to be for barrelled pork purposes. He does not think however, that we shall see the low prices that used to prevail in dressed pork a few years ago; and that from this time forward plain, "undersold" hogs are promptly forwarded to Grand Scribe at an early date. Parties desiring special information will kindly write, J. R. Edwards, Wiltsie.

Thousands of men throughout Canada are suffering to-day from a deplorable failure of strength without knowing that they are victims of nervous exhaustion. The signs are plain. The sufferer cannot keep his mind on work, passes restless nights, turns against food and cannot digest it, feels exhausted after exertion, while headaches and fits of dizziness often add to his misery. These symptoms denote that the nervous system is weakened and insufficiently nourished. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will promptly cure because they enrich the impure weak blood and thus give new strength and tone to the exhausted nerves. No other medicine can do this so promptly and so surely.

Mr. W. H. Hipson, East Pubnico, N. S., says: "For a number of years I was troubled with violent headaches. When these spells came on the pain was so severe that I feared I would lose my senses. At the outset these headaches would come on about once a week. I doctored for the trouble and did everything possible to get relief, but without avail, and as the time went on the attacks grew both in frequency and severity. The pain was terrible and with each attack seemed to grow worse. The only relief I could get was from a hot mustard foot bath, and the application of hot water and ammonia to my head. I would then have to be led to bed where I had to remain until the attack passed away. At this time Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were brought to my notice, and while I scarcely hoped they would cure me, I decided to try them. After taking a few boxes I found that the attacks were not so severe, and I joyfully continued taking the pills until I had used ten boxes when every symptom of the trouble had passed away, and I was in better health than I had ever enjoyed before. It is several years since my cure was effected, and as I have not had a headache since I feel that the cure is permanent. This is a plain statement of my case, but no words can tell what my sufferings really were and I believe that but for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I would have been in my grave, for I could not have stood the pain much longer and doctors did not do me any good". Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or may be had by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A. A. Lefurgey, a prominent real estate operator of this city, was knocked down by an automobile at the corner of Granville and Georgia Streets last night, and sustained light contusions about the head. Mr Lefurgey had just left the Hotel Vancouver by the side entrance, and was running out to catch a car. He did not notice an automobile approaching at a rapid pace behind him. Someone, however, saw the machine when it was nearly on top of him and called out a warning. But it was too late. The car struck him on the hip and knocked him down. The injured man was carried into the Georgia Pharmacy. Beyond a slight cut about the head, and a slightly bruised hip, Mr Lefurgey escaped injury.—Vancouver World.

After an illness of over two months there passed away at Bramville, Richmond, in the 79th year of his age, Mr Taylor was widely known as a good neighbor and friend. For some time he had been feeling unwell, but still able to go about. During the latter part of July he was suddenly attacked by the disease which terminated his earthly career on Oct. 1st. He will be much missed from the home and community. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing widow, five sons and two daughters, four of whom reside in Granville and three in the United States. After the funeral service, which took place in the Methodist Church at Granville and conducted by the Rev H. Pierce, he was laid to rest in the cemetery close by where so many of his relatives and friends were sleeping the sleep of repose.

Yesterday afternoon, the Manse at Marshfield, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when George L. Boswell of Frenchie, and Matilda Kathleen Wyatt, were happily made one. Mrs Hawley cordially received the wedding party. In the absence of the pastor, Rev John Hawley, the service was performed by Rev Geo E. Ross, of Zion Church, City. The bride was charmingly gowned in navy blue venetian cloth with a very becoming hat to match, and elegant furs. She was gracefully attended by her sister Esther E. Wyatt, who wore a suit of cream serge with black trimmings and black hat. Almon Boswell, brother of the groom, did the honors of best man. Mr and Mrs Boswell will make their home at Frenchie, where a host of friends extend their sincerest wishes to the popular couple for a long and prosperous life.

Burglars are still on the rounds of this City. The statement is amply substantiated by the announcement that on Tuesday night last two stores were broken into, each in a different part of the city. One place was the premises of Herman Essery, on Grafton Street. It is supposed that the thieves broke into the shop about eleven o'clock, and before they left, taking with them a number of bottles and a coat, they liberally bestrewed the floor with bottles and flasks. An entrance was made into the shop by breaking the glass. Yesterday two minions of the law visited a house on Chestnut Street and there found the missing coat, but no trace of the bottles. The other theft took place on the same night, the meat shop of Aniel Murray, Queen Street being honoured with uninvited guests, who helped themselves to two carcasses of lamb. An entrance was effected by moving the glass in the shop door. A gentleman was observed through the early hours of the morning to be carrying a bundle under a coat in a suspicious manner, and it was expected that an arrest would be made early this morning.

Dr Pethick, Maritime representative of the Live Stock Branch arrived in the City Monday night and went by train to Summerside Tuesday to meet the sheep that are being brought to this Province which are to be offered for sale at Alberton, Oct. 23rd, Charlottetown, Oct. 25th, Summerside Oct. 30th and Georgetown Nov. 2nd. These sheep are a superior lot, selected from the best herds in Ont., and the farmers of this Province are very fortunate in having these sheep brought here for distribution.

The Union Prayer service in the Baptist Church last evening was largely attended. Upon the platform were Revs Thomas, Ross, Harrison and Mr Archibald, Secty of Y.M.C.A. and Hugh Cork from Chicago. The Alexander selection of hymns were sung throughout the service.

Rev Mr Thomas gave a short address upon a personal revival in the heart of each individual. This was very important in preparation for the coming evangelistic services. Hugh Cork entered fully the remarks of Rev Mr Thomas, giving illustrations in his own life and in the life of others, bearing upon personal work of the master. Mr Cork spoke very highly of Dr Elliott and his methods in evangelistic campaigns. He hoped that all the people would commence praying for the success of these services at once and felt assured that the people here would be rejoiced in seeing much good accomplished in Charlottetown.

The executive met after the service for completion of arrangements regarding the campaign, commencing in Charlottetown Nov. 4th. The following prayer services will take place each evening at eight p. m. Grace Church, Tuesday, Oct. 26; Zion, Wednesday, Oct. 27; Peoples, Thursday, Oct. 28; St Paul's Schoolroom, Friday, Oct. 29; 1st Methodist Church, Tuesday, Nov. 2; 1st Methodist, Wednesday, Nov. 3.
