History of the Murray Harbor Presbyterian Church

1920-1931

(By Rev. P. Watson Currie)
REV. JOSEPH S. MacKAY—1921-3

After the resignation and removal of Rev. Archibald Sutherland from this charge matters of a varied nature developed. There had been the construction of the new Manse building completed, the Communion Roll revised and the Session of the Church increased, while the unsettled nature of the church in the Maritimes, owing to the now pressing question of Church Union made progress slow and advance impossible in many places. The old established procedure of the past seemed to be generally neglected and the resulting consequences became apparent. Rev. Mr. Greenlees of Georgetown then acted as Interim Moderator of the vacancy and on the 24th day of April, 1920 a very hearty and unanimous call to Rev. John Murchison was given, promising the minimum salary, but not stating what amount this called for, although there is mention of the guarantee. We regard this as an evidence of the congregations desire to get settled but for reasons unstated Rev. Mr. Murchison declined the call. Financial problems seem to have been pressing owing to the very heavy demands of the Budget and the increase of minimum salary to both of which many of our congregations were unable to respond very largely. After the hearing of a number of probationers including a Mr. Sweet from Murray River on February 1st, 1921, a call was extended to Rev. J. S. MacKAY then stationed at Tryon and Bonshaw in the west part of the Island, and this call was presented to the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island at its regular meeting in Charlottetown on March 1st, 1921. We find splendid resolutions re finance that seem a proof that the problem was settled and as Rev. Mr. MacKAY accepted the call at once, the induction service was carried out with the least possible delay, the full details of which do not seem to have been recorded as usual in the records of the session. We find here large accessions made to the membership of both these congregations, increased attendance at the communions and a revival of the practice of giving the sacrament privately to some of the aged and infirm members of the congregation in their homes.

Considering the general feelings of uncertainty as to the future of the Church it would appear that good work was done by pastor and people, but the pastorate was doomed to be a brief one and we presume came to an end at the Presbytery meeting held on the 18th day of November 1923 though all the details seem to be very obscure and facts uncertain. Rev. M. D. MacDonald of Murray River was appointed interim Moderator and continued to carry on the work acceptably till the taking of the vote on Church Union when they came to the parting of the ways on the same question and the connection ceased early in the spring of 1925.

Rev. Wm. Orr Mulligan of St. James Church, Charlottetown, then became Moderator, as the congregations had decided to remain part of the continuing Presbyterian Church as it was then called. There was a great increase recorded in the communicant membership and at the communion held in Peters Road Church on Sept. 5th, 1925, we find the highest attendance ever recorded in the long history of the church, reaching 165, and no doubt there were a few removals in the year previous, though the congregations did not suffer as many others did from the effects and retained their vitality.

On the removal of Rev. Mr. Mulligan from the Island in 1926, Rev. David MacVicar of Cardigan was appointed Interim Moderator and met with the session on April 6th, 1926 in an effort toward securing a supply. Mr. MacVicar being a native of the Maritimes and well acquainted with all the candidates and circumstances was able to secure Andrew Brown as stated supply who filled the position for a time with credit to himself and much benefit to the congregation. Then the late Rev. Bruce Muir of Charlottetown was Interim Moderator and Rev. W.E. Davies then a recent comer from the Old Country was engaged for six months as stated supply to begin on May 1st, 1927, and he appears to have duly fulfilled his contract and a further extension of the time appears to have been made at the end of that term, services of Mr. O'Meara to continue till the end of the year 1927, and some other necessary matters settled at the Annual Meeting. Mr. O'Meara was then engaged for a further term on condition that if any man eligible for a call could be found he would give way for the same. It would appear that excellent and enduring work was being done and we find many baptisms of whole families of children being given at the homes during this period. Rev. Bruce Muir succeeded as Interim Moderator by Rev. Quincy A. MacDowell, who in the meanwhile had been inducted as the Minister of Caledonia and in May 1929 George E. Pringle, a student of Princeton University and Theological Seminary, became the pastor for the summer months. Perhaps mention ought to have been made earlier than this of the devoted services rendered a few summers previous by Mr. Batty, student of McMaster College, Toronto, and to whom much credit is due for excellent and enduring service in the field so faithfully given, that he is tenderly remembered by all the people of these congregations. Both of these young workers were successful in maintaining the ordinances in the congregations but as they were settled only for the summer and the field was vacant most of the year and dependent during the winter season on other neighboring ministers it was felt necessary to obtain the services of a settled minister, and it was also felt with so many elderly people in the congregation a greater measure of pastoral and home visiting was required, the extent of the territory being too great for a student to cover in the course of a few months in the summer. On the removal of Rev. Quincy A. MacDowell to Sydney Mines, Cape Breton, the Rev. Thos. A. Rodger of Belfast was appointed by Presbytery as Interim Moderator and entered on his duties with all the energetic devotion of his nature. As the congregations by resolution at their annual meetings had expressed themselves in favor of abandoning student supply, Rev. Mr. Rodger was authorized by the session to secure for a month the services of Rev. P. Watson Currie with whom he had been formerly acquainted in the work in Ontario, and who was then free to come and spend the summer on the Island. After some confusion caused by the Home Mission Board and the late Superintendent of Missions at Pictou who had appointed another student to the field matters were straightened out satisfactorily to all parties and Rev. Mr. Currie began his duties as supply on May 25th, 1930. From the first it was felt that the right person had been secured and that experience in pulpit and pastoral work would count for much in strengthening the things that remained and in lengthening the cords and strengthening the stakes of Presbyterianism in this district.

Arrangements were then entered upon at once to make out a call to Rev. Mr. Currie and being sustained by Presbytery and accepted at the meeting by Rev. Mr. Currie, the induction of him as pastor took place on the 23rd of September 1930. Rev. Mr. Moorhead Legate of St. James' Church, Charlottetown, preached an appropriate sermon based on Acts II. 43-46. Rev. R. Hensley Stavert of Hunter River gave the Induction Prayer. Rev. Thos. A. Rodger of Belfast presided as Moderator inducted and addressed the pastor and Rev. W. E. Davies of Cardigan who had at one time been stated supply at Murray Harbor North gave the address to the people. Rev. Alastair Murray of Caledonia was also present and took part in the devotional exercises. As the present pastorate is yet in its beginning little can be given in the way of history, but there has been a steady and increasing attendance at church services and the various activities of Sabbath School and Women's Missionary Societies have all been revived and expanded. A history of these organizations and notices of the elders that have long and faithfully served their generation will follow this account of the various pastorates extending over all these long years of history.

PART II. ELDERS

In recording the faithful and devoted services of the men who have served in the office of the eldership we confine our efforts to those who have been called away by death from the year 1891 to the present time as 40 years have now elapsed and few elders in our church exceed that in their term of service, and a great many never reach this either in the eldership or in the active ministry. Those of an earlier period must rest, unrecorded in this sketch.

Mr. James MacLean—Died 1916

The first of the Session of 1891 to be called away by the great reaper was James A. MacLean and we believe he served well as these few lines copied from the minutes of Session meeting on November 11th 1916. (The time that a few years later is known as Armistice Day) will state the case adequately and well. It was moved by Mr. George Reynolds in reporting for the committee appointed at the last meeting of Session (Oct. 9th in the year 1916) that the following minute relating to the death of Mr. James MacLean, Elder, be inscribed in the Record Books of this Court. "This session of Murray Harbor North Congregation records with deep regret the fact that one of its members has been called away from his place in the Church Militant, but rejoices in the firm belief that he does now occupy a place in the Church Triumphant.

The late James MacLean was a man of sterling worth and beloved by all who knew him because of the fine character he possessed. As an elder of this congregation he was at all times faithful to the duties and responsibilities of the office, and because of his careful consideration of matters being discussed, and good judgment in reaching a conclusion, his counsel was ever respected in the deliberation of this Session at its meetings.

Mr. MacLean was ordained an elder of the Murray Harbor North congregation on the thirtieth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty five and thus had almost completed his thirty first year in office when he was called to the Council above on the 21st day of September, 1916 at the good ripe age of 84 years.

To such a tribute given by those elders who had served with him we can add nothing except to say with them that such men as these have been a source of inspiration and influence that extended far beyond the local church and eternity alone can tell the full story. May their tribe increase and this tribute rouse all of us to greater zeal in the service of the church while our day lasts.

JAMES M. DALZIEL—DIED 1921

Another member of Session at the time of separation from Murray Harbour South was the subject of this sketch. Being a man of varied talents we find him occupying the position of Superintendent of Murray Harbor North Sabbath School to which he was appointed June, 1900, and other positions of responsibility, and the following extracts from minutes will testify. At the meeting of Session on July 30th, 1921, the Moderator and Clerk were appointed to write a letter of condolence to the family and inscribe the minutes of the same in the Session Records. It reads thus: "This Session of Murray Harbor North Congregation records with deep regret the fact that one of its members has been called away from his place in the Church Militant, but rejoices in the firm belief that he does now occupy a place in the Church Triumphant. The late James M. Dalziel was a man of sterling worth and was beloved by all who knew him because of the fine character he possessed. As an elder of this congregation he was at all times faithful to the duties and responsibilities of the office and because of his careful consideration of matters being discussed and good judgment in reaching a conclusion his counsel was ever respected in the deliberations of this Session. The late Mr. Dalziel was ordained

COLONIAL WINDSOR MADE FERTILIZERS

Our prices are now in the hands of our agents. We are in a position to quote you on goods ex steamer Island ports or for all rail shipment from Windsor.

As usual comparisons are being drawn between the cost of raw chemicals and mixed fertilizers and as usual, the comparisons are based with the cost of Nitrogen on raw chemicals derived from the very cheapest source—Sulphate of Ammonia.

Agricultural authorities are practically unanimous in their statements that Nitrogen should be derived from various sources so that the plant will have this valuable element throughout its growing season.

Our mixed formulas derive their Nitrogen from Nitrate of Soda, Sulphate of Ammonia and high grade Tankage, and the results obtained from their use has been ample evidence of their superiority.

When the cost of these materials in their raw state is considered, the cost for mixing is only a nominal amount. You cannot afford to endeavor to overcome present low prices on farm products by trying to cheapen your fertilizer costs to the extent that may prove detrimental to your yield or quality of crops. Buy Colonial-Windsor Made-Fertilizers for the quality and superiority that this name assures.
