NOTES FROM BORDEN

A delightful bridge party was held at the home of Mrs. Eldon Campbell, Borden, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 10th. The first prize was won by Mrs. MacPherson and the consolation prize by Mrs. Brennan. A dainty and most delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Campbell, assisted by Mrs. George E. Furch.

Mrs. A. Brennan and Mrs. E. Campbell crossed on the car ferry Friday evening en route to Moncton for a few days.

The new wing on the school at Borden is about completed and will be ready for use after the new year.

Bowling is quite popular in Borden this winter. The ladies have formed a league and play twice a week. Up to date there has been four games played, the "Wild Cats" having a decided advantage. The standing at present is "Wild Cats," 9 points; "Bear Cats," 4 points; "Fire Cats," 3 points.

Claire: "Why didn't you shave this evening?"

Bill: "I shaved this morning, and it makes my face sore to shave twice a day."

Claire: "Well, it makes my face sore when you only shave once."

SAD NEWS—Mrs. Frederick Parkman, Charlottetown Royal, received the sad news of the death of her brother, Daniel McGregor, in Keene, N. H.

SERIOUS CHARGE—Joseph Griffin of West Royal was last evening arrested by the Provincial Police and lodged in Queen's County Jail charged with indecent assault. The accused appeared before Magistrate Tweedy yesterday at 11 o'clock and was remanded until Monday morning. Bail was arranged at $2,000.

PARKMAN—FORD—One of those events in which all people are interested took place at the United Manse, Charlottetown, on Wednesday, November 6th at 7 p. m., by the Rev. C. N. Brown, when Elsie Eva, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Ford, of Glasgow Road, became the bride of Ivan Clarence, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Parkman, Brackley Beach. The bride wore a dress of blue crepe back satin, with blue broadcloth coat and opussum fur trimmings with hat to match. The bride was attended by Miss Pearl Parkman, sister of the groom, and wore a dress of sand flat crepe with shoes to match, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. Frank Ford, cousin of the bride. After the ceremony, the bridal party motored to the home of the bride, where supper awaited them. Soon after a crowd of charivariers arrived, which added amusement for all. After wishing congratulations to the bride and groom, they were treated. Later in the evening, the happy young couple motored to their home in Brackley Beach, where the groom is a prosperous young farmer, and with them goes the best wishes for a happy wedded life.

IN MEMORIAM

RONALD A. MACDONALD

The parish of Little Pond was once again called upon to bear the loss of one of its esteemed and most respected parishioners, Ronald A. MacDonald, who passed away at his home on Monday, Sept. 8th. The late Mr. MacDonald was one of the oldest residents of the parish, born in Little Pond in 1856, he resided on the homestead of his father, the late Alexander MacDonald. This property, which has been in the family for over a hundred years, has been improved by each generation and is today a fine snug homestead.

The deceased, who was ailing a few weeks, was tenderly cared for by his devoted wife and sister, and by his daughter, who made a great sacrifice to spend all the time she could at the bedside of her father. His pastor, Rev. Louis Callaghan, visited him frequently and administered to him the last consoling rites of the Catholic Church, thus fortified, strengthened and resigned to die, he gradually weakened and surrounded by his family and dearest friends, he quietly breathed forth his soul to God.

Mr. MacDonald was a true Christian, a living exemplar of sobriety and honesty and a faithful member of the Catholic Church. He gave whole-hearted support to parish work and stood for progress in all matters pertaining to school improvement also. In social life too, he took his part, fond of company and especially fond of music, he made friends and neighbors welcome to his hospitable home and even in his last days he wished for and had music played for him.

He died as he lived, a practical Catholic, a good faithful husband, a loving father and brother, and one to all who knew him, a loyal and honest friend. This was manifest by the large attendance at the funeral, when relatives, friends and neighbors gathered to pay their last tribute of respect.

Rev. Dr. Callaghan sang the Requiem High Mass and gave the Benediction in the church and at the graveside.

He leaves to mourn his sorrowing widow, (nee Victoria McCormack, of Georgetown); two sons, Aeneas and Alexander, in Little Pond; and two daughters, Mrs. John McKenzie, Gaspereaux; and Mrs. James Foley, Richmond, California; also two sisters, Mrs. Mary Mooney, Elmira and Mrs. Margaret MacDonald, Greenville.

The pall bearers were Edwin McFarlane, James Mills, John J. MacDonald, John F. MacDonald, William Fisher and Jas. A. E. MacDonald. May his soul rest in peace.

The following Mass Cards were received: Mother and Alex. Mrs. Hugh MacDonald, Greenville; Mrs. Mary Mooney, Elmira; Mary and Cyrene, Greenville; Aeneas and Margaret, Little Pond; Joseph McKenzie, Little Pond; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. MacDonald, Little Pond; Mr. and Mrs. Allan MacDonald, Georgetown; Mr. and Mrs. John McCormack, Georgetown; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McCormack, Rumford, Me.; Mrs. Mary P. MacDonald and Mr. Charles S. MacDonald, (2), Little Pond; Mrs. Ellie MacDonald and family, Cambridge, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. John F. MacDonald, Little Pond; Miss Helen MacDonald, Brookline, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. MacDonald and John Jas. Red House; Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCormack, Dorchester, Mass.; Mr. Daniel Steele and family, Little Pond; Mr. Reginald MacDonald, Rumford, Me.

Old English Masters To Be Sold

Sixty-one old English masters, among which are works by Reynolds, Lely, Hoppner, Beechey and Kneller, a collection that took hundreds of years to assemble, and including many family portraits, are to be sold at auction in London by the 10th Earl of Egmont, former Albertacottleman, on Dec. 12. The Earl says he is selling the collection to raise money. Above are shown: Left—Earl of Egmont, not so very young; Frederick Joseph Trevelyan Percival, farmer of Alberta, who is now selling the famous art collection, and right—family portrait of some of his ancestors, among those to be sold.
