ANOTHER BIG CRIPPLED CHILDREN'S CLINIC HELD BY THE RED CROSS

Last week from Monday to Saturday there was a constant stream of children with parents visiting the Red Cross office to be examined by the orthopedic specialist, Dr. T. B. Acker, of Halifax. It was the largest crippled children's clinic held since the Society started the movement for the welfare of the crippled child four years ago, a service that is both economic and humanitarian. One hundred and forty-one people were examined by Dr. Acker, 30 of whom were handicapped children reporting for the first time. It was also one of the most successful and satisfactory clinics because of the number of children seen who have been under treatment for some time and now are completely cured, greatly improved or their conditions prevented from becoming really serious handicaps. Some of the types of cases included infantile, obstetrical and spastic paralysis, dislocated hips, tuberculous joints, spinal curvatures, club feet and weak feet.

One young girl of 15, who nine months ago was suffering extreme pain and was almost completely incapacitated from badly overstrained arches, after operation by Dr. Acker and massage treatment by Miss MacDonnell, trained masseuse employed by the Red Cross, is now quite happy with a good pair of feet, was able all spring to walk daily the two miles to school and is indispensable to her mother with the care of a large family of small children and the farm work, the father being an invalid.

Another girl of sixteen, who, a year ago could only walk with the aid of a crutch, her leg being bent back at right angles from the knee, has now discarded the crutch, is able to walk normally with both feet on the ground and is planning on getting a position. Two cases of wry necks operated upon during the clinic last fall reported for check up and were pronounced perfect corrections. Several cases of club feet and infantile paralysis who were manipulated or operated upon by Dr. Acker showed wonderful correction and improvement.

As well as the advice given to the number of children attending last week's clinics, Dr. Acker operated on nine cases at the Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island and Prince County Hospitals, assisted by local physicians. The hospitals, nurses and doctors gave generously of their time to help in the good work of bringing cure, comfort and happiness to so many unfortunate little victims. LIVESTOCK MARKET

(Canadian Press)
MONTREAL, Que., July 23.—There were only 35 cattle, 91 lambs, 163 hogs and 31 calves received for sale on the two Montreal markets. In addition a couple of cars of Monday's cattle were still on sale. Light common steers and heifers averaging around 800 pounds sold for $6.00 and one lot of fair steers, averaging 1,025 pounds, was sold for $7.50. The lambs were not sold this morning. Hogs were $13.00 for bacon and butchers with $1.00 premium on selects. Sows were from $8.50 to $9.00. Odd trim young sows sold up to $9.50 or better.

Some people manage to make their "silent suffering" simply deafening.

FROSTPROOF WAREHOUSE—The quiet solitude which has for many years prevailed at Perth Station is now being broken by the advance of progress and commercial enterprise. Mr. W. L. Jenkins, Millview, general merchant and shipper of farm produce, has a gang of workmen with Mr. William Mour, New Perth, foreman, busily engaged in erecting a large frostproof potato warehouse at this station. Mr. Jenkins has, during the last two years, shipped a large lot of produce at this point, but was greatly handicapped by the lack of frostproof accommodation. This will now be completely overcome. This warehouse, with capacity for storing 5,000 bushels of potatoes, will not only be an acquisition to Mr. Jenkins in his shipping business, but will also be a boon to the many farmers who ship here. His enterprise is very favorably commented on by them and ensures for him a liberal share of their patronage when the shipping season arrives.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet wedding took place at the United Church Parsonage, Cornwall, on June 25th, when Etta May Green, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Green, Kingston, was united in marriage to Clifford Ellsworth Proud, Hampshire. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. M. Aitken, B. A. The bride was becomingly attired in blue silk crepe and wore a navy blue coat, white hat, and carried a bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's parents, where supper was served. Later they were greeted by an immense crowd of chivaliers. Mr. and Mrs. Proud left for their home in Hampshire, followed by best wishes of their many friends. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower at her home, when about eighty of her young friends gathered and showered her with beautiful and costly presents.

The track is in apple pie order and very fast, so glib miles are easy over it.

COST OF THE MILITIA IN THE COLLIERY STRIKE (Sydney Post)

When the great strike of 1925 was in progress, a Liberal Government at Halifax, headed by Hon. E. H. Armstrong, urged and induced a Liberal Government at Ottawa, headed by Rt. Hon. MacKenzie King, to send a detachment of militia to Cape Breton for the alleged preservation of peace and good order. The result was to inflame local feeling, and to provoke trouble, rather than to maintain the peace or to serve any other good purpose. And it is to be noted incidentally that the present King candidate in Cape Breton South was an unbending supporter of the Armstrong Government in the House of Assembly at the time that the present King candidate in Cape Breton North and Victoria was a violent partisan of the same Government at Sydney Mines.

When the Conservatives won power at Halifax in June 1925, the Rhodes Government notified Ottawa that the troops were unnecessary in Cape Breton, demanded that they should be recalled, and declared that this Province would not pay a dollar of the expense of their maintenance in the strike area. The consequence was that the military forces were promptly removed and peace quickly restored to the colliery districts of this country. Subsequently the King Government sent a militia bill amounting to almost $140,000 to the Rhodes Government, which the Rhodes Government emphatically refused to pay.

Then followed one of the most arbitrary and high-handed examples of autocracy ever practised by a responsible Administration, answerable to the electorate for its conduct. The King Government, assuming to become a law unto itself, deducted the amount of the militia bill from the Province under the Duxcan award. This occurred as far back as 1927, and every attempt since made by the Rhodes Government to get the King Government to refund the amount thus unlawfully retained, has been met by a blank refusal. Finally the Rhodes Government, after repeated efforts, induced Mr. King to agree to have the question referred to the Supreme Court of Canada. The case it will be remembered, was argued at Ottawa some months ago by Hon. W. L. Hall, Attorney-General for Nova Scotia, who had little difficulty in convincing the court of the soundness of the Rhodes Government's position. A decision rendered last month by the Supreme Court declares that this Province is not liable for a dollar of the cost of the militia, and inferentially that the King Government has acted wrongfully in withholding the amount it deducted from Nova Scotia's subsidy in 1927. Nevertheless the King Government still retains that sum, and has announced its determination to carry the case to Privy Council.

These incidents are worth recalling just now, in view of the fact that the King Government's record is about to be submitted to the electorate for their judgment. If the position contended for by Mr. MacKenzie King and his Administration had been upheld, the calling out of the militia at times of industrial troubles would be within the unquestioned discretion of local authorities, far more likely to be responsive to Corporation influences than any Dominion Government could afford politically to be. It is to be added that the whole record of the King Government has been one of thinly veiled hostility toward organized labor, and of petty haggling in its financial relation to the Provinces. Mr. King's "five cent speech" was not an accident—it was a revelation of the party pettiness and administrative snobbery of the politician who gave utterance to it.

A girl may be as sweet as sugar, but there are two kinds of sugar—refined and unrefined.

HON. JOHN A. MACDONALD, CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE FOR KING

In the last two Parliaments the Hon. John A. MacDonald was known at Ottawa as "The member for Prince Edward Island." What this implied was that his was the only personality from the Province that impressed itself upon the House. He is held in the highest esteem and greatly respected on both sides of the House. It was no surprise in Ottawa when Mr. Meighen included Mr. MacDonald in his Government, as he was one of the outstanding men from the Maritime Provinces then at Ottawa. Mr. MacDonald, never-the-less, is of a retiring disposition. He is not a self-advertiser, and prefers to pursue his even terms, working for his constituency, province and county, steadily, regularly and unostentatiously. He has been in politics since the days of his youth, and was one of the stalwarts that represented King's County in the Provincial arena along with such political giants as the Hon. J. A. Matheson and the Hon. John MacLean. He has been in opposition and in the government in both the local legislature and in the Dominion House. In business he is a merchant at Cardigan, known well and widely locally and wherever farm produce is in demand. His word is as good as his bond, he being known in local politics as "John A., the promise keeper."
