DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS.

We often hear these words. Caesar's delay to glance over a message cost him his life on his return from the Senate House.

Perhaps you have delayed buying your hat. It will be dangerous for you to miss the opportunity we offer today. We have brought together 150 trimmed hats—all from our own work rooms. The trimmers have been busy for the last month preparing for this big offer. Our millinery work room is not a work-room of one idea. There are variations of taste. No two hats are alike. All have but one point in common, namely the dash or style that sets them above all other efforts in this town, and the one low price.

Today we will offer you the choice of close on 300 hats, 150, at $2.75 each and 150 a. $3.75. In many instances these prices will not cover the cost of trimmings. A few dozen of each will be exhibited in our windows this evening. If you are the first customer you may have the first choice. We have a large show-room and private fitting room at your service. You can try on hat or stay all day and try the lot. There will be no approval and the price will be spot cash so come quickly if you want one. Hundreds of ladies took advantage of the opportunity last season, and got the best $2.75 worth of millinery that they ever purchased in their lives.—JAS. PATON & CO.

The property at Pownal advertised for sale on the first of Oct., is postponed, the sale will take place on Oct. 29th, if not disposed of before that date.—J. J. Gay & Son.

E. J. McMillan, Superintendent of Institutes will speak at a meeting of the Farmer's Institute at Mayfield Hall on Monday, Oct. 20th, at 8 p. m.—17 d 31.

The Duke's—every pair of The Amo Holden Co Boots and Shoes made expressly to my order are hand made, of the same material and finish, as the made to measure kind for which your shoemaker will charge you $8.00 to $9.00.—Conroy The Shoeman, Pownal Street, Charlottetown.

See our big Main Street window for ladies coat styles, the newest are there, and the price on each, and we're not ashamed of it. Take a walk down and see them in Prowse's window.

Sterns' Fashionable Livery

Fashionable Livery means city livery; that they are rubber lined, drawn by live and well trained horses; that we have every kind of harness and carriage that a man of means could want—in fact livery that compare favorably with those from the finest private stables in town. Our turn-outs haven't got that "livery stable" stamp about them.

This is very reasonable weather for driving—roads are excellent and the air bracing. Write us if you like to see our livery.
