Such stomach comfort! On a cold day when there is work to do that calls for mental vigor and physical fitness nothing touches the spot like served with hot milk and a little cream. Better than mushy porridges that are bolted down without chewing. You have to chew Shredded Wheat—that's the reason it's so good for the "kiddies." It develops sound teeth, strong muscles and good brain.

Shredded Wheat is made in two forms, BISCUIT and TRISCUIT—the Biscuit for breakfast with milk or cream, or with fruits; Triscuit, the wafer-toast, delicious for luncheon with butter or soft cheese, or for any meal as a substitute for white flour bread.

Andrew Carnegie, Multi-Millionaire, Says—

"Life Insurance brings peace and prevents ruin to innumerable lives and homes."

ANDREW is a shrewd Scot, as canny an observer as the world has ever produced. His practical wisdom has raised him from a position of obscurity to be one of the money-kings of the world.

The Mutual Life Record of Forty-Five Years proves him to be right. Mutual Policies have brought peace of mind; Mutual Policies have warded off disaster. Since the establishment of our office in 1869, we have paid to policyholders or we now hold in reserve for their benefit $40,295,968.00.

SHOCK FATAL.—Mr. Onesime Chaisson of Yarmouth, Maine, and formerly a wealthy farmer of St. Felix Settlement, near Tignish, upon learning of the death of his brother Mathias who died in Lawrence, Mass., last week, became suddenly ill with a weakening of the heart and Saturday a telegram to one of his relatives in Tignish stated that he was not expected to live. This gentleman is well known in Tignish and while living in St. Felix a neighbor to his diseased brother Mathias was greatly attached to him and no doubt the shock added to his present precarious condition.—Z.

Never before in the history of Kensington have such scenes of genuine and universal regret been witnessed as occurred yesterday on the occasion of the funeral of Mr. James Kennedy, M.L.A. Over two thousand people were present at the ceremony, mourners travelling from far and wide, many their last respects to one, who in a quiet unostentatious way, had played an important part in furthering the interests of the community. The Kennedy family are held in high esteem, and the late Mr. James Kennedy had especially endeared himself to his many acquaintances, his business rectitude, and the readiness with which he always placed his services at the disposal of every good cause. He was a valued member of the Presbyterian Church, and none knew better than its minister, the Rev. G. A. Sutherland, the good he did in the community. A prominent member of the order of Oddfellows, and the Loyal Order of Orangemen, the members of these bodies feel his removal while just in his prime, as a sincere personal loss. As a political leader, he was universally respected by both parties, for he was scrupulously fair and honourable in his conduct. He set an example at last election which is likely to be generally followed at the ensuing elections of running a clean campaign, entirely free from the distribution of liquor or other deleterious articles, if he could not be elected on the merits of his party platform and his own personal merits, he preferred not to be elected at all. The electors expressed their confidence in him by sending him to the House by a splendid majority. The suddenness of his demise cast a gloom over the community. A profound sorrow felt found expression in the record attendance at the obsequies. A special train went from Charlottetown, conveying the members of the local Government, and of the Dominion and local Legislatures together with representatives of the Oddfellows and Orange Lodges, the 4th Regiment Band and others. The funeral was timed to leave the late residence at two o'clock and at that hour an enormous crowd of mourners had gathered. The procession moved off in the following order to the church:—

- Band.
- Oddfellows.
- The wreaths.
- The coffin.
- The chief mourners.
- The Orangemen.
- General mourners.

The church was crowded in every part, special seats being reserved for the Government and members of the Legislature and the societies. The first part of the service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Sutherland. Rev. Mr. Morris, Methodist, and Rev. Mr. Watson, Anglican. Then the funeral ritual of the Oddfellows was gone through, and afterwards the mourners passed the bier to take a farewell look at the features of the deceased, who intimately. The procession having been re-formed, the cortege proceeded to the station, the band playing the Dead March in Saul. The special train proceeded to Bradalbane and thence the funeral party went to Springton Cemetery, where the remains were laid to rest, the ritual of the Orange Lodge being used, Rev. D. McLean officiating.

The chief mourners were the deceased's four sons, his father and five brothers. Among the other mourners were Premier Matheson, Hon. J. E. Wyatt, Speaker, Hon. M. McInnis, J. A. McNeill, Chas. Dalton, A. E. Arsenault, L. L. Jenkins, Senator Murphy, Mr. A. A. McLean, M.P., Mr. Donald Nicholson, M.P., Mr. A. A. LeFurgy, Judge Stewart, and the members of the Legislature.

The hall-bearers were brethren of the Oddfellows, viz. Messrs John Warren, Bradford McArthur, Charles Cook, Edward Urch, John Harding and Hugh Morrison. A large number of floral tributes were sent, including the following:—From the family, a pillow; from his father, a half-crown; from his brothers, an anchor; from the Government, a wreath; Calvin Orange Lodge, a pillow; Oddfellows, a pillow; Mr. James K. Gillies, wreath; Mr. E. N. Pate and family, O'Leary, wreath; Mr. E. J. Smith, representing Manchester, Robertson & Allison, St. John, wreath; Mr. J. Kennedy's employees, wreath; Kennedy & Co.'s employees, O'Leary, wreath.

The music in the church was beautifully and sympathetically rendered by an excellent choir, and included the twenty-third Psalm, and Mr. Kennedy's favourite hymn, "He Gave His Life for Me"; while the Oddfellows rendered "Nearer My God to Thee."

The whole service was impressive in the extreme, and will long be remembered by those privileged to be present. The arrangements were admirably carried out in every detail.

THE FERRYBOAT "Montague" is again in running order and has been making regular trips between Georgetown and Montague for the past week. This is considerably later than last year, the first trips having been made on April 5th.—G.

WEDNESDAY

McGougan of Baltic, a proud father he having four sons defending the Empire's cause, Robert in France by private letters received was in the trenches, got wounded and is now in the hospital, John and David are now in Amherst, and Albert, is in Charlottetown in training. It is not this report for one family Robert, enlisted in B. C.—D.

DEHORNING OF CATTLE.—This is the time of year for farmers to do their annual work. It has been shown time after time that the best method is to quieten the cattle which have their horns and if milch cows they are more easily managed and give an increased quantity of milk. The horns can be taken off with either a saw or a dehorner. The latter is the easiest and least painful to the cow. If the operation is done later the horn may not heal before the flies become bothersome. If it is done now there is no danger of the cow taking cold. There is really no risk attending the operation and farmers should dehorn at their yearling cattle.

Sunday next will be a day of more than ordinary interest to the members and friends of the Central Christian Church, it will be "Red Letter Day" for the congregation. The church party will on that day be composed of debt and the mortgage which has been on the church since it was built, about fourteen years ago, will be burned. Rev. W. H. Harding, of Tignish, will have charge of the services and will preach at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Mr. Harding is a young, eloquent and convincing speaker and has preached for some of the largest and most influential churches in Canada and the United States. This will be a good opportunity to hear this strong preacher of the Gospel, and a cordial invitation is extended to all to attend both morning and evening services. At the morning service the mortgage burning will take place; Mrs. Silas Rayner, of Tignish, will set the fire. Special music will be rendered at both services, consisting of anthems, duets and solos. The church will also be prettily decorated with flowers, which will add to the interest of the occasion. All members and friends of the congregation are urgently requested to be present at both services, as well as any visitors, who are cordially invited. All seats are free and unappropriated.

NEW STRENGTH IN THE SPRING

NATURE NEEDS AID IN MAKING
NEW HEALTH-GIVING BLOOD.

In the spring the system needs a tonic. To be healthy you must have new blood, just as the trees must have new sap to renew their vitality. Nature demands it, and without this new blood you will feel weak and languid. You may have twinges of rheumatism or the sharp stabbing pains of neuralgia. Often there are disfiguring pimples or eruption on the skin. In other cases there is merely a feeling of tiredness and a variable appetite. Any of these are signs that the blood is out of order—that the indoor life of winter has lessened your vitality. What you need in spring is a tonic medicine to put you right, and in all the world medicine there is no tonic can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills actually make new rich, red blood—your greatest need in spring. This new blood drives out the seeds of disease, restores healthy, active and strong, Miss Edith Brouseau, Savona, B. C., says:—"I was as pale as a ghost, suffered from headaches, severe palpitation of the heart at the slightest exertion. I had little or no appetite and seemed to be drifting into a decline. I was attending High School in Vancouver, at the time, and the doctor advised me to stop. I did so and took his treatment for some time, but it did not help me in the least. Upon advice of a friend I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and in a very short time they gave me back complete health, and enabled me to resume my studies. I have enjoyed the best of health since, and owe it all to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills." These Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or can be had by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

IMPORTANT ACT.—One of the most important measures passed at the recent session of the Legislature was the act incorporating the Co-Operative Seed Association. Its object is to encourage the production and marketing of pure seed. For some time past the Banner Oat Club has been in operation. There were several difficulties in connection with its working one of which was sampling and sending to the market a uniform according to sample. It is now proposed, however, that the oats of the members shall be stored in warehouses so that it may be sampled and prices given on application. The egg trade of the Province has benefited immensely by the Co-Operative Egg and Poultry Association, and it is expected that the seed growers will benefit by this new act. Every farmer who expects to join the Association should sow the very best quality of oats he can buy and it is understood that the Association will operate with only Banner oats during the coming season.

MOIR'S Chocolates

Moir's Chocolates have an individuality that is unmistakable. We select the cocoa beans—roast, husk and clean them—add the cocoa butter and cane sugar—and flavor with vanilla beans. The WHOLE is then put through a grinding process for hours, which refines every particle and renders our chocolate coating absolutely smooth, giving it that individual delicious flavor. The chocolate is then applied to the many varieties of centers—packed in attractive boxes and offered to you as the finest chocolates on the market.
