RECEIVED HONORS—Last Saturday Cameron Lindsay, son of Rev. R. W. Lindsay, who was formerly a Hazelbrook, P. E. I. boy, joined the Sheffield Mills Junior Fruit Grower's Club under the direction of the Nova Scotia Department of Agriculture. In his judging work he was successful in winning the trip to Kentville and the chance to represent the club, along with Curtis Burgess in the Provincial Junior Apple Judging Competition held at the time of the Nova Scotia Fruit Grower's Association's Annual meeting. In this competition this team won the first place and in doing so won the H. J. McDonald apple judging trophy. In total score Cameron took second place and in plate judging, first place.

MALE CHORUS TO GIVE SACRED CONCERT—Under the distinguished patronage of His Honor Lieut.-Governor DeBlais and Mrs. DeBlais, the Premier and Mrs. Lea, and the Mayor and Mrs. Kennedy of the Charlottetown Male Chorus will present their annual Christmas Sacred Concert in the Prince Edward Theatre next Sunday evening at 9 o'clock. Mr. A. R. Cooper has kindly placed the theatre at the disposal of the chorus, free of charge. The entire proceeds go towards the children's Christmas tree at the free dispensary. Mr. Harold Shepard, organist at St. Paul's Church is the new Director and will be in charge. The chorus will be assisted by Mrs. Arthur Roper, Mr. Charles Earle, Mr. Arthur Bruce, and Mr. Alfred Bull with his cornet. The programmes will include besides Christmas Carols, the Hallelujah chorus from the Messiah, the Lost Chord, Goin Home and On the Sea. Silver collection will be taken at the door.

ST. JAMES CHURCH—As will be seen by reference to the advertisement in the church notices, the services at the Kirk Corners will be fully in keeping with the joyous Christmas season. There will be no sermon at the evening service, the sermon period being given over to music in keeping with the occasion. The full choir, conducted by Mrs. J. A. Lawson, with Mrs. Keith Rogers at the organ, will render an exceptionally choice selection of music at both services. The boy and girl chorists will also be heard in several of the sweet old-time carols. The soloists include Mr. and Mrs. Raoul Raymond, Mrs. E. S. Henderson, Miss Lena McLure, and Miss Marguerite Cudmore. A quartet consisting of Miss M. Cudmore, Mrs. N. D. McLean, and Messrs. Arthur Bruce and Charles McKenzie, will also sing. The old familiar hymns associated with Christmas will be sung by choir and congregation.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. CHRISTINE SAMPLE There passed quietly away on Saturday, December 14th, at Upper Montague, Mrs. Christine Sample, in the eighty-fifth year of her age. For the past few years she had been making her home with her son, Isaac Sample. The late Mrs. Sample formerly resided in Victoria Cross. Her husband, John Sample, died in 1928. She was a quiet, industrious, christian character, beloved by all who knew her. The funeral services which were held on Wednesday, Dec. 18th, was conducted by Rev. D. M. Sinclair, Valleyfield, assisted by Rev. A. Long, Montague, and was largely attended. Beautiful floral tributes to the esteem in which the deceased was held. Interment was in the Union Road cemetery. She leaves to mourn her passing, one brother Malcolm Nicholson, Victoria Cross; three sons, Isaac and John, Upper Montague, and Dan on the old home, Victoria Cross; two daughters, Sadie, Mrs. Timoney, Boston, and Mae, Mrs. Riley, Boston. All the family were present at the funeral service. A son, Alva, died in Winnipeg in 1928.

MRS. J. A. JOHNSTON On Wednesday the 18th inst., she passed to her eternal reward the soul of Mrs. J. A. Johnston, who for the past five months has been seriously ill at her home in Tignish. The late Mrs. Johnston was a daughter of Capt. Hugh McDonald, St. Peter's, came to Tignish with her husband, Dr. Johnston, thirty-one years ago and during these years she has lived a life close to the people. In her kindly manner she assisted in every good work which was sponsored by the community and she has left in the hearts of the people a memory which no tangible memorial can outlast. Early in her illness this lovely mother was visited by her family who sought everywhere in the field of science for relief or cure for their mother's illness. But the hand of the great harvester could not be stayed so accordingly on the above mentioned date this gentle lady from her dear ones passed away.

There are left to mourn, besides a disconsolate husband, two daughters, namely, Mrs. L. A. Kratz, Chicago; Miss Noreen at home; and one son, Dr. L. R. Johnston, Greenfield, Mass.; also two sisters, Mrs. James E. Brown, Richmond, P. E. I., and Mrs. Brooks, Boston, Mass., and one brother, Mr. D. J. McDonald Charlottetown. To these and all other relatives the community of Tignish extends most heartfelt sympathy. The funeral was held on Friday.

CHRISTMAS AT TRINITY UNITED CHURCH—The sermons Sunday next will be on the theme of "Christmas," and Rev. Hugh Miller, M.A., B.D., will be the preacher both morning and evening. The music will be in keeping with the season and will consist of anthems, vocal solos, a number by the men's double quartette, a vocal duet, the ever popular "Love Divine" by Sir John Stainer, and appropriate organ selections. Full particulars may be had by referring to the church announcement, which appears in another column. A hearty welcome is given to visitors and strangers to worship at Trinity Church.

YULETIDE CONCERT—On the evening of Dec. 19th the patients of the Provincial Infirmary were very pleasantly entertained when a Yuletide Concert was rendered them by the Y. P. S. C. E. of Zion Church. Opening remarks were made by the chairman, Rev. G. C. Webster, followed by a Sing Song and the following selections: Reading, Miss Margaret Webster; Instrumental Duet, Mrs. Richards and Mr. Young; Vocal Solo, Miss Claire MacMillan; Accordion Solo, Mr. Duncan; Comic Sketch, Misses Haywood and Macdonald; Instrumental Music, Messrs. Carson Yorston and Young; Vocal Solo, Mrs. Webster; Remarks, Mrs. Clark. Santa Claus then made his appearance, suitably attired for the occasion and with the assistance of Mr. Murdoch Ross, treated the patients to apples and candy. Then after the singing of "Blest Be The Tie That Binds," a much enjoyed evening was brought to a close with a prayer by Rev. Mr. Webster. This with many other acts of kindness shown the patients during the year by the Y. P. S. C. E. of Zion is greatly appreciated by Mrs. Garrick and her staff.

CONCERT AT BRADALBANE On Dec. 12th the Willing Workers Girls' Club presented their concert in Bradalbane Hall before a large audience. Roland Hickox was called to the chair and the program was as follows: Opening Chorus; Recitation, Jimmy Snowy; Dialogue, Isabel Cummings, Earl Todd, Joan Thacker, Roland Hickox; Margaret MacKay; Monologue, Jean Cummings; Motion song, entitled John Brown's Baby, Margaret Macdonald, Hazel Woodside, Laura Bernard, Joan Thacker, Lillian Cousins, Isabel Cummings; Instrumental music, step dance, Fred Doucette; Monologue, the Director of the Concert, Miss Helen Cousins; Duet, "Old Black Joe," Elton Somers, Ray McEwen, Roland Hickox, Clarence Gallant and Earl Todd; Instrumental music; Dialogue, James Snowy and Helen Cousins; Closing chorus. After the concert the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. The music was furnished by Todd's orchestra. Mr. Ivan Kennedy capably presided as floor director for the evening for which he has the thanks of the club. A large sum was realized which goes to pay rent of rink.—(Patriot Pleas Copy).
