JEWELS RECOVERED

PARIS, Sept. 10.—The Duchess de Noailles, who recently while shopping in a Paris department store lost a handbag containing jewels worth 200,000 francs, and 5,000 francs in notes, received by mail yesterday the handbag containing the jewels intact, two 1,000 francs notes and two 100 francs notes. The finder thus rewarded himself with 2,800 francs.

DEMOCRACY OF RABBITS

Says the Winnipeg Evening Tribune (Independent):
The war has now entered a spiritual stage. It is a staying match between German social and national efficiency and democratic social and national efficiency.

It is up to the people—the people at home. The boys at the front and going there will do their part.

If we fail at home, then we deserve to lose. We deserve to be the slaves of the German winners. And we will be.

We may maintain for some time a few of the forms of freedom. We may maintain the sort of "democracy" the pacifists and non-resisters rave about, when urged to sacrifice a few of their precious peace-time privileges and "rights" to save the country.

But if Germany wins, democracy will have proved to be a democracy of rabbits or sheep.

In a world full of wolf hounds the ultimate destiny of such a people is not a guessing matter.

China and Hindustan afford some interesting studies of such peoples.

WHY IS IT

that chronic skin diseases which have defied all other treatments yield to Zam-Buk?

It is because Zam-Buk is germicidal and also has such power of penetration that it reaches disease in the underlying tissues and cures from the "root" up. That is the only way a permanent cure can be effected.

Mr. H. C. Buckley of 461 E. Broadway, Portland, Oregon, says: "For chronic skin diseases there is nothing like Zam-Buk. For fifteen years I had eczema, and I tried an endless number of so-called 'eczema cures,' but nothing was capable of curing me permanently until I used Zam-Buk. Ten months' use of Zam-Buk has effected a complete cure."

For ulcers, abscesses, boils, ringworm, blood-poisoning, piles, burns, scalds and cuts, Zam-Buk is equally good. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

MRS. RUSSELL SAGE GIVES AWAY ABOUT $10,000 A DAY

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Living in quiet retirement in an old-fashioned cottage at Lawrence, R. I., is a prim little, old lady who tomorrow will enter upon her 90th year, and whose chief occupation these many years past has been to ferret out worthy institutions upon which to bestow her wealth at a rate that has been estimated at close to $10,000 a day, for 365 days of the year.

The aged woman whose deeds of philanthropy have extended to every State of the Union and to foreign lands as well as Mrs. Margaret Olivia Sage, and the wealth she is engaged in distributing, freely but wisely, is the vast fortune left her by her husband, the late Russell Sage, the famous financier, who died in 1906.

Mrs. Sage has made no preparations for an observance of her 89th birthday tomorrow, but she has already been reminded of the approach of the anniversary by the receipt of an unusual number of parcels and letters at her Long Island cottage in which Mr. Sage died, and is the favorite home maintained by Mrs. Sage.

The venerable philanthropist, who probably has given away more money than any other woman in the history of the world, was born in Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 8, 1828. Her paternal grandmother was Olivia Standish, and she is a descendant of Miss Standish and a member of the Mayflower society. Her father was a merchant in Syracuse and after she went to school in Troy she became a schoolteacher. For almost twenty years she continued in this occupation. At the age of 41 she met and was married to Russell Sage. Wealth came to the couple soon after their marriage, but it brought little change in their mode of life. They continued to live simply, and for many years Mrs. Sage did much of her own housework.

She took a great interest in her husband's affairs and five years before his death he said to have left the entire management of his great fortune in her hands.

It took Russell Sage fifty years to accumulate his fortune of $65,000,000. This great sum represented the pinching and scraping together of what amounted to $3,500 a day for the life time of the great financier. In less than three years after the death of her husband Mrs. Sage had spent more than $25,000,000 for public purposes and the benefit of mankind. Comparison of the financier's power to make money with Mrs. Sage's faculty of giving it away shows that the widow has given away $2 in the same time that it took Mr. Sage to accumulate the proverbial "thirty cents."

When Mrs. Sage, after the death of her husband, set about distributing her wealth the causes of education and religion and the amelioration of human misery appealed most strongly to her. One of her first acts was to double the bequests that her husband made to his relatives, and all chance of will contest was thus ended. Her first large gift was to Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, better known as the Troy Polytechnic. This institution received an initial gift of $1,000,000. The following day another gift of $1,000,000 was announced, the Emma Willard School being the recipient.

Ten million dollars was donated for the establishment of the Sage Foundation. Many other millions have been given to churches, schools, the Y. M. C. A., and similar institutions. The Salvation Army, the United Hebrew Charities, the American College for Girls at Constantinople, the Pascal Institute, the London Birthplace Memorial Association, the American Bible Society, the New York Firemen's Medical Association of New York, the Institute of Pathology on Blackwell's Island, the Audubon Society, the Astor Library, the Syrian Protestant College in Asia Minor, the Seminary for Young Ladies at Northfield, Mass., the Institute for Seamen in New York City, the Metropolitan Museum—these are only a part of the institutions and objects that have profited by Mrs. Sage's prolific bounty. During the past three years millions of the Sage fortune have been given freely to the various funds for the relief of the war sufferers in Europe.

TEUTONS BEATEN IN EAST AFRICA

LONDON, Sept. 10.—Defeats for the Germans all along the line in German East Africa are reported in an official statement today. The text reads:

"Telegraphing on September 8 the General Officer commanding in chief in East Africa reports that on that day the enemy resistance at Mpondas, fifty-three miles south of Mahenge, was overcome and all the German positions were occupied. Our troops are in pursuit.

"Belgian columns have passed the Ulanga River, moving towards Mahenge from the north. A German force, driven successively from Mpetos, sixty-five miles southwest of Mahenge, and from Malinje, eighteen miles north-northeast of Mpetos, retired southeastward and is being pursued by our columns from Lupembe.

"In the southern area the German forces dislodged from Tumburu has retreated towards Liwale. It is reported that at present there are no German forces in Portuguese Nyasaland south of the Royuma River."
