

New Spring Hats

We have endeavored for the last few years to be the first in the city to introduce new hats for the incoming season. It is with pleasure we again inform you that our first shipment of new hats the celebrated Buckley, England's best, is again the first new hat shown in the city. This hat is absolutely guaranteed by the makers and by us.

For young men we have the noblest line ever shown here in the new dented crown or college hats in the Fedora shapes. The new 1909 are the noblest ever shown by us.

This season we are going to make the hat business one of the strongest departments in our store. We have made arrangements with the Buckley hat manufacturers to send us each month a shipment of the newest lines as they are introduced in the large cities, in this way we will be enabled to give our customers the latest ideas in hats from month to month as introduced in London and New York.

You are cordially invited to inspect our new hats at the leading hat store in this city.

LOCAL CONTEST NIGHT

Tonight, Without Fail, No Matter How Many Entries Are in.

There will be a complete change of pictures at New Wonderland tonight. The first new reel will be "The Romance of the Old Mill" This picture is of more than common dramatic interest, and runs the gamut of a misplaced love, a stern and unfeeling father, a marriage supposed to be illegal, and afterwards proved correct; then the return of the girl to her home, her rescue by her father, her subsequent attempt to drown herself, her rescue and afterwards the happy ending to the story. The other new reel contains:—
Wrongfully Accused.
The Robber's Naughtier...
Mechanical Legs.
The new illustrated song will be "Tell me will my dreams come true" and will be sung by Fred Dillon who has accepted a short engagement at New Wonderland. Mr. Dillon has a fine voice, enunciates clearly, and draws full houses wherever he sings. Then it will be "Local Contest" night too. Several entries have been made, and there are not so many other attractions this week the management hopes that a good house will greet the local people. Five dollars in prizes, a good program of pictures, catchy song, good music. Tomorrow evening the engagement opens if the boats make connections, of Bixley and Holcomb. More about it in the morning paper, and there is going to be a royal time at New Wonderland this week. Five cents admission tonight. Come.

BIG FREE TRIP FOR THE YOUNG LADIES

tion to Morning Daily, Rural Daily or Saturday Daily is worth the number of votes as per printed schedule, and the person sending in same should give the name and address of the candidate who is to get the votes. Thus anybody, no matter who, or where from, can send in either coupons with the name and address of their favorite candidate written thereon, or new and renewed subscriptions and state to what candidate the votes are to be given. In response to an enquiry it is useless for new subscribers to ask for numbers of The Guardian as same cannot be supplied, there being but enough printed for each day. The Guardian again states that nominations will be received at any time for the big free trip. Votes cannot be allowed for any subscriptions received, as shown by the Guardian books, before the ballot first appeared on February first instant when the contest actually began, or in other words only subscriptions paid on and after February first inst., and until the contest closes, can win votes, but the ballots in every issue, no matter when the subscriptions have been paid, are of the value as printed on each.

All persons should remember that the name and address of each candidate for whom they vote must be written clearly and distinctly in the ballot, so that the candidate will get credit for their votes. The name of the person voting does not go on the ballot. All readers who have not been asked for their ballots, or do not know for whom they will vote, should cut them out just the same and nominate a candidate of their own choice. Any candidate for any district can receive help and votes from anywhere. For instance a candidate in Prince County or any other district can receive help and votes from Prince County or any other part of the province or even any part of the world.
