

No women write, "Greatly benefited by taking Carnol"

The following letter is of special interest to those who are run-down in health—whether from over-work, worry or general weakness:

Dear Sirs:—Myself and friend, would like to let you know how very highly we think of Carnol. We are now taking our sixth bottle and the great benefit we have derived from it is wonderful. It certainly does do everything the advertisements say and more. It is a genuine tonic and body builder. For my part it has warded off a Bronchial trouble I am subject to every Spring.

We feel it would interest you to know this, also you are at perfect liberty to use this unqualified testimonial, if you should so wish. We both of us take pleasure in recommending to any one whom we know are feeling below par.

Wishing you every success, Yours truly, is indeed a true strength-giver. A course of Carnol will soon bring you back to strength and vigor. Carnol improves the appetite, helps the system to assimilate the food, makes good red blood and builds robust health. Carnol is pleasant to take. Many doctors prescribe Carnol—during convalescence and wherever a strength-giving tonic is necessary.

(Name on request)

Whist started promptly at 8.30 and continued till eleven, after which dancing was indulged in until twelve. Thirty excellent music being rendered by an orchestra consisting of piano, saxophone, clarinet and traps. The ladies' prize for whist was won by Miss Mary Corish, and Mr. Joseph Hughes, captured the gentlemen's prize. A consolation prize, which was won by several young ladies, was at last awarded to Miss B. McMahon. WEDDING BELLS.—On Wednesday, November 24th, St. Joseph's Church was the scene of an event of more than passing interest, when Miss Mary Ella, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Simott, Metell, became the bride of Mr. Peter Trainer, of Glenfawn, the bride who was attended by her chum, Miss Mary Grant Mount Stewart, looked exceedingly winsome in a blue tailored suit with hat to match, and wore the gift of the groom, a beautiful fur coat with blue with hat to match. The groom was supported by his brother, Hugh, Rev. Father O'Connell performed the ceremony. Immediately after the marriage ceremony the wedding party went on a car drive through Morell and vicinity returning to the home of the bride where dinner was served to a number of invited guests. The afternoon was spent in music, dancing and song. In the evening a grand reception was held at the home of the groom, where a number of friends and well-wishers gathered together to extend congratulations to the happy young couple. At six o'clock the guests were ushered into the dining room to the banquet table laden with tempting viands. The sumptuous feast terminating and the guests being decidedly renewed in flesh and spirit, a brief appropriate speech was delivered by Rev. Father Allan McDonald, after which all repaired to the brilliantly lighted dance room, where the most important part of the evening's amusement was carried on. The Wedding Reel was carried off with grace and dignity to the violin magic of Messrs. McDonald, Walker and Shea brothers. The bride's costume for the evening was of pink silk crepe de chene, while the bridesmaid's was of midnight blue satin. The numerous and costly presents testify to the esteem of the popular young couple. After all present had enjoyed themselves to the fullest and "the wee sma' hours were drawing nigh" all departed for their homes, greatly pleased with the happy hours spent with cheers of admiration and best wishes for Mr. Trainer and his handsome bride.
