Relation of Disease to Microbic Life—Its Application in Treatment of Catarrh.

It is now an established fact that microbic life is the cause of throat and nasal catarrh, and that the disease the microbes must be killed.

BEWARE Young Man

It's the Little Dandruff Germs That are Causing Your Hair to Thin Out.

Parisian Sage Stops Falling Hair and Does Not Contain Poisonous Lead or Dyes.

The clever young man of today doesn't take any chances on losing his hair. A man who is baldheaded at 30 looks like 40, and is placed at a disadvantage when seeking employment.

VIENNA, Jan. 29 (Special)—Though Vienna has been surpassed by Berlin during the last twenty years in population and wealth, in the extent of its so-called restaurant life and in the number of theatres, the old imperial capital on the Danube still maintains its reputation as the most musical city in the world.

PARIS, Jan. 25 (Special)—A most extraordinary and amusing story of the long and successful career of an arch-windler is told in the newspaper here.

LONDON, Jan. 29 (Special)—The reported discovery of a case of sleeping sickness at Salisbury, Rhodesia, has caused the gravest apprehension.

ROME, Jan. 30 (Special)—The Italian Government, in reply to a question in the Chamber or Deputies, has promised to take immediate steps to carry out the pledge given by the present Minister of Education two years ago, that after the close of the Rome Exhibition of 1911 the "temporary" structures erected by the

Is Your Back Full of Aches All Day Long?

That Stiff-like Pain in the Back is Sure Indication of Kidney Trouble.

Mrs. Anna Rodriguez writes as follows from her home in Valencia: "For a long time I suffered with falling strength and nagging headaches. My condition grew steadily worse, my limbs became bloated and shaky, I was slow and thin, I felt rheumatic pains, dizziness and chills. I unfortunately didn't suspect my kidneys, and was nearly dead when I discovered the true cause of my suffering."

EFFORTS TO END DUELLING MADE IN GERMANY

Reichstag's Resolution Turned Down by Federal Council on Grounds of Honor.

BERLIN, Feb. 7 (Special)—In May of last year the Reichstag passed a resolution in which the Imperial Chancellor was requested to take as soon as possible steps calculated to put an end to duelling, and especially to do away with the compulsory challenge and to accept a challenge. The Federal Council has considered the demands contained in this resolution, and the decisions it has arrived at have been laid before the Reichstag.

MYSTERIOUS TRAGEDY ON GERMAN SHIP

BERLIN, Feb. 7 (Special)—A mysterious tragedy occurred on board the new Dreadnought Kaiser at Kiel the other day.

and glaciers have been mapped. Many new ascents were made, ranging from an altitude of 19,000 ft. to 21,000 ft., to say nothing of stamping for five weeks at an elevation of 17,000 ft. By far the longest and largest glacier in Asia, the Siachen, has now been accurately located, which is the party's most notable achievement.

LONDON, Jan. 30 (Special)—Another historical residential estate has changed hands, the Hon. W. C. F. Hanbury Tracy having purchased Woodcote House, Oxon, close to Oxford. The house occupies a commanding position on the southern brow of the Chiltern Hills, 500 feet above sea level, with uninterrupted views over Berkshire into Hampshire. It was built in the early Georgian period, the then owners being the Knapp family, the property being known as "Redings" or "Rawlings." It was visited by King George III on one of his journeys to Nuneham Park, and the drawing-room—a magnificent apartment—was specially built and decorated for his reception by the famous architect Robert Adam.

ROME, Jan. 25 (Special)—Very interesting excavations are being made in the "Golden House" by the Italian Government, whose attention was drawn to the subject by Dr. Fritz Weege, a young German archaeologist, author of a treatise, published last July, on one of the rooms in that vast palace, Nero's "holly of which the writer said that it would embrace all Rome, and that the good citizens, engraving in quest of apartments to veil, would probably find that it had extended

How to Cure Horse Distemper

An Experienced Horseman Solomally Declares Nothing is So Satisfactory as Nerviline.

"After fifty years' experience in raising horses I can safely testify that no remedy gives such good results for an all-round stable liniment as Nerviline. Thus opens the very earnest letter of J. J. Eranston, who lives near Wellington. "I had a very valuable horse that took distemper a month ago, and was afraid I was going to lose him. His throat swelled and hard lumps developed. His nostrils ran and he had a terrible cough. I tried different remedies, but was unable to relieve my horse of his pain and suffering till I started to use Nerviline. I mixed a bottle of Nerviline and sweetened it with sugar. I rubbed the mixture on the throat and chest three times a day, and you would scarcely believe the way that horse picked up. Nerviline cured him. I also have used Nerviline for colic in horses and cows, and earnestly recommend it to every man that is raising stock."

For strains, sprains, swellings, colic, distemper, coughs, and colds, no liniment will prove so efficacious in the stable as "Nerviline"—it's good for man or beast, for internal or external use. Wherever there is pain, Nerviline will cure it. Refuse substitutes. Large size bottle, 50¢; trial size, 25¢. At all dealers, or the Cattarhose Co., Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston, Ont.

NEW METHOD FOR PRESERVING

Ultra-Violet Rays to Take Place of Ice and Filters.

LONDON, Feb. 7 (Special)—"Food kept in ultra-violet rays during the hot weather," may be a shopkeeper's announcement in the future, according to the "Lancet," and it is further suggested that the filter may be superseded by the silent electric discharge.

"There can be little doubt that the study of the action of ultra-violet rays, or of the silent discharge, is leading to interesting developments which may possess great practical importance," says the writer. "The application of ultra-violet rays to the sterilization of water supplies furnishes an example, although it appears probable that there is still room for improvements in this application in order to make the process of completely efficient one."

$25.00 For A LETTER

CAN YOU WRITE ONE? Thirteen Prizes to be Awarded in a Letter Writing Competition.

Some years ago the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., of Brockville, Ont., offered a series of prizes to residents of the Maritime Provinces for the best letters describing cures wrought by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Hundreds of letters were submitted in this competition, and yet there must have been thousands of other users of the pills who did not avail themselves of the opportunity to win a prize. To all these another letter writing competition is offered. Thousands of cures through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have never been reported. These will furnish the material for the letter to be written in this contest. There is no demand upon the imagination; every letter must deal with facts and facts only.

LONDON, Jan. 26 (Special)—Behind a commonplace charge of theft heard before Allan Lawrie, at London Sessions, there was an extraordinary story of a man's past. The prisoner, a well-educated man, giving the name of Charles Alfred Williams, aged 35, was sentenced to three years' penal servitude and subsequent deportation to America for having stolen an overcoat, value $2.50, belonging to Thomas Ambrose Townsend, a clerk employed at a bookstall at Euston Station.

The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., of Brockville, Ont., will award a prize of $25.00 for the best letter received by the 15th day of March, 1913, from residents of the Maritime Provinces, on the subject "Why I Recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills" for the second best letter received; a prize of $5.00 for the third best letter, and ten prizes of $2.00 each for the next best ten letters.

THE CONDITIONS.

The cure or benefit from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills described in the letter may be in the writer's own case, or one that has come under his or her personal observation.

Every letter must be signed by the full name and correct address of the person sending it. If it describes the cure of some person other than the writer of the letter, it must also be signed by the person whose cure is described as a guarantee of the truth of the statement made.

The writer of each letter must state the name and date of the paper in which he or she saw this announcement.

Fine writing will not win the prize unless you have a good case to describe. The strength of the recommendation and not the style of the letter will be the basis of the award. It is understood that the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. shall have the right to publish any letter entered in this contest if they desire to do so, whether it wins a prize or not.

The contest will close on March 15th, 1913, and the prizes will be awarded as soon as possible thereafter. Do not delay. If you know of a cure write your letter NOW. Open your letter carefully. The contest will be held at the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
