MISS CHALIFOUR MAKES STATEMENT.

KENTVILLE, Oct 14—The Crown in the Carruthers' libel case produced in Court Miss Hester Chalifour, the woman whom, it was alleged, has been enticed away from her home in Ottawa by Sir Frederick Borden.

She was brought here from Baltimore, and denied that she was ever on intimate terms with Sir Frederick or ever received him at her apartments or elsewhere. He in no wise assisted her financially, and denied everything that had been imputed against her.

Miss Califour's entry into Court produced quite a flurry and her presence was most unexpected.

STEAMER COMES TO GRIEF.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct 14—The wreck of the steamer George Stone on Point Pelee, on the Upper Lake, added another gruesome chapter to the history of marine disasters on the Great Lakes.

Six lives were lost and twelve were saved. The steamer was not insured.

WE ERRED.

We do make a mistake now and then. Errors will occur. Our buyer this fall erred in ordering twenty-five pieces of Victoria lawn. The error was in asking for pieces. He ought to have asked for twenty-five ends of twelve yards each. What arrived from England was twenty-five pieces of sixty giving us one thousand five hundred yards instead of three hundred, as this is far too much Victoria lawn for us to sell in the regular way, we purpose giving Church Sewing Circles and other ladies interested in white sewing for the coming Spring and Summer a rare genuine snap. It comes in three qualities 14c, 20c, and 25c. Clearance price 10c, 15c, 18c. James Paton & Co. 10—15dtf.

The daily average circulation of The Guardian, for week ending October 9th, was 7285 copies a day. The circulation of The Guardian is greater than that of all the other Daily newspapers on Prince Edward Island combined. Attention is called to the statement in another column.

While digging the cellar in the new store for G. A. B. McDonald, city, on Great George Street, the workmen came across an old well. This well was in perfect condition and the stone work was a splendid example of the old time well-diggers. It is estimated that this well is probably about eighty years old.

At a meeting of a committee, appointed by the Teacher's Association to consider the subject of drawing in the schools of the Province, it was decided to offer certificates to schools which do good work in drawing for the present school year. One specimen from each pupil in attendence to be submitted about the first of June next. Text book, Hints on Drawing Latta. Educational Pub. Co. Toronto. Full particulars will be given in a circular to be issued shortly.

Pastor Russell lectured to a crowded house in the Market Hall last night on the subject: "Where are the Dead." He interviewed imaginary representatives of all the different beliefs, including the heathen, securing answers from them as to other ideas of his topic. Pastor Russell characterized them all to be wrong. He claimed that the dead were dead, and would be so till the resurrection, when all mankind would be given a chance to obtain eternal life, those who rejected it would be destroyed.

Henry McAleenan has the honor of announcing the marriage of his daughter, Josephine, to Dr. Joseph M. Creamer on Thursday, the seventh day of October, 1909, in the Lady Chapel of St. Patrick's Cathedral, in the City of New York. The groom is the grandson of the late lamented Honorable Justice Denis O'M Reddin, of Charlottetown, whose daughter, Katie was married to the late Dr Joseph M. Creamer in 1875. Dr Creamer practised in Charlottetown for some years, afterwards removing to New York, where he held the responsible position of Coroner. His son, Dr Creamer, was born in Charlottetown, and received his earlier education in the public schools here and St Dunstan's College. After graduating, following in the footsteps of his father, he opened an office in New York, and has been very successful in his profession. The bride is one of New York's leading society young ladies, and is very popular.

Yesterday afternoon quite a gale was blowing and there were several schooners lying at anchor in the harbor. The Joseph McGill broke from her moorings and bore down on the Sweet Marie. These two then worked over to the Laura Cox and the three were in a tangled mess for some time. When, at last, the three got cleared away the Joseph McGill was minus a jib-boom and got a severe shaking up. The others were not seriously damaged.
