STOLE HIGH IN FASHION

New York—The stole seems to put the finishing touch on today's college wardrobe. Without it, you simply don't ring the bell. It requires some practice to wear a stole artfully. (Wine it about your shoulders, tuck its ends in your belt in a forthright fashion, or drop it gracefully in picturesque abandon as a line of beauty low on your arms—but it's most effective. Stoles often push the little jacket right out of the picture. They are effective when made of tweeds and fringed; of wool jersey and lined with velvet and finished with ball fringe. Stoles will be worn from morning to night. And of course those in the evening scene carry all the glamor imaginable, being made of crushable taffetas and satins as well as the finest nets and chiffons and metallics. However well you do in your courses, make your mark easily with a stole.

WILLIAM BOYD
"FALSE PARADISE"

A preparatory service was held in Murray Harbour North Presbyterian Church on Friday evening, Rev. Charles D. Henderson, the minister conducted the ceremony and Rev. F. N. Young of Montague delivered the sermon. Rev. Young chose for his text the 3rd verse from the 83rd chapter of Isaiah the Prophet. Four new members were added to the communion roll including Miss June Clow by Profession of faith, Mrs. L. Irving, Mrs. A. MacLeod and Mrs. E. Alby by certificate from neighboring churches. The regular autumn observance of the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was held in the church on Sunday morning. Despite the stormy weather, a large crowd was in attendance. The service was conducted by the minister who also preached the sermon which had for its theme the verse "This do in remembrance of me" Luke 22:19. The sacrament was later conveyed to several shut-ins in the district. The service of Thanksgiving following the sacrament was held in the evening. A large crowd gathered for this service. The minister chose for his text a portion of the third verse of the epistle of Jude: "Content earnestly for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints." The choir rendered special music for the occasion including a duet by Mrs. Chester MacLure and Mrs. David Millar entitled "In the Land where we'll never grow old." A unique part of the evening service was the memorial service for the young men from the district who lost their lives in both world wars. While the

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Aid of the Murray Harbour North Presbyterian Church was held at the home of Mrs. Harry C. Reid on Tuesday evening, with sixteen members and nine visitors present. The meeting opened by singing hymn 212, followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. The scripture lesson was read responsively from Matthew chapter 7, verses 7-20. The exposition on the lesson was given by Mrs. Cameron Clow followed with prayer by Mrs. Harry D. Millar. Roll call was responded to by a verse of scripture. Minutes of the October meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Harry Reid. The financial report given by the treasurer, Mrs. Malinda Henderson, showed a favourable balance on hand, $200 was given towards the installation of the new running water system in the local Mansie. There was no correspondence to be read. The meeting closed by singing hymn 494, followed by the Missal Benediction. At the close of the Ladies Aid meeting the members under the direction of the Women's Missionary Society packed a box of clothing, toys, stationery and toilet accessories for shipment to their port worker in Halifax to be distributed among displaced persons and immigrants arriving there.

"GOLDEN WEDDING DAY — On the evening of November thirteenth, a large number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Stewart, Murray Harbour, on the occasion of their golden wedding. This young couple took their solemn vows of matrimony at Beach Point on November fourth, twenty-two years ago. Today they are blessed with ten children, nineteen grand-children and two great-grand children. Their course was set with definite ideals, and today their friends are numerous indeed. The evening was spent in music and song, after which a well filled purse and bride gifts were presented to the bride and groom. A sumptuous lunch was served to the ladies, followed by heartfelt good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Stewart for many more years of health and happiness. When the burdens of time have stooped the shoulders low, and the years have turned the hair to grey, let every one remember that most of the one remember that most of the sugar is at the bottom of the cup."

"POST-NUPTIAL SHOWER — On November 12th approximately one hundred friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robertson, Kingsboro, to tender a miscellaneous shower in honour of Mrs. Robertson's brothers and brides, Arthur and Myrtle, Robert and Irene Dixon. After both couples were seated under an arch of white and pink streamers, the Rev. H. R. Bell called the gathering to order, stating briefly its purpose. A miniature bride and groom, Joan Dixon and Weston Rose carried in the heavily laden baskets. The gifts were opened by Mrs. Alexander Robertson and Miss Helen MacLean. Verses and best wishes were read by Mrs. Walter Dixon and Miss Arlene Robertson. Each couple in a few brief words expressed their appreciation for the many beautiful gifts and best wishes extended to them. All joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." Lunch was served by the hostess and assisting her were Mrs. Colin Dixon, Mrs. Walter Dixon, Mrs. Major Young, Mrs. John Dixon, Mrs. Harry Dixon, Mrs. Alexander Robertson, Mrs. Kenneth MacGregor, Misses Arlene Robertson and Helen MacLean. The rest of the evening was spent in instrumental music and song led by Mrs. Clinton Stewart and Kenneth MacLean, after which all left for their respective homes, wishing the young

Miss Florine Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Conour at Montague, was guest of honour at a miscellaneous shower Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Elsie Waterworth. The young bride-to-be, whose marriage is soon to take place, entered the living room to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, played by Mrs. Waterworth. She was then led to a chair-of-honour which her friends sang "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." A group of songs were sung by two young ladies, Misses Joanne Waterworth and Pauline Nicholson. Joanne was gowned in a pale blue floor-length dress of blue taffeta, while Pauline was dressed as her young swain in evening clothes and top hat. This was followed by a piano solo by Joanne who received a very hearty applause. Dressed in their tartans, three young ladies, Misses Joan Johnston, Shirley Stewart and Florine Higginbotham, danced a Highland Fling, a special feature of the program was a mock wedding which proved to be hilariously funny, especially when the frowny girl entered the scene. This part was well played by a male member of the Presbyterian choir, dressed in a pink gown with bonnet to match. Others taking part were Laura Higginbotham as the bride, Anne MacEachern as the groom, Jean Currie as the bride's father, and Roma Dunning as the minister. During the ceremony a humorous song was sung to the tune of "The Campbells Are Coming." The gifts were then brought in and placed on a table in front of the guest of honour, and were opened by Mrs. Waterworth, Mrs. Walter Beer and Miss Roma Dunning, while the accompanying verses were read by Mrs. Duncan Robinson. Included with the gifts was one from the members of the Presbyterian Church choir of which Florine was a valued member before leaving Montague about two years ago. Florine expressed her sincere appreciation for the many lovely gifts and good wishes of her many friends. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by a number of the ladies. An enjoyable social evening was brought to a close with a rousing sing-song with Mrs. Waterworth as accompanist.

PARAGON
In malice he never has uttered a word: He tastes neither fresh meat nor liquor. With eyes for no woman, though some have averred. Their pulse in his presence goes quicker. Espousing no creed, yet his custom persists. In keeping each day as if Sunday? You doubt such a paragon really exists? He'll be a week old, as of Monday. —Dolph Montague
