MRS. ISAAC BURNS

There passed peacefully away after a short illness at her home in Lower Freetown on March 23rd, Mrs. Isaac Burns in her 73rd year. She was formerly Miss Margaret MacFadyen of Riverdale, P. E. Island.

Although in failing health for a number of years, her passing came as a shock to her relatives and friends.

All through her days, her thoughts were ever of others and she was always ready to give a helping hand or a word of encouragement to all in need of such.

Besides a son Ralph S. and his wife with whom she lived, and by whom she was tenderly cared for, she leaves to mourn the loss of a loving mother two daughters: Anna Mrs. Russell MacDougall of Fairview, P. E. I., and Marion, Mrs. William Smale of Benton, Alta. Her husband predeceased her some years ago. Also surviving are the following brothers and sister: Peter K. and Findley of Riverdale, P. E. Island; Neil of High Prairie, Alta., and Annie of Balfour, B. C.

The funeral was held on March 25th from her late residence, the service being conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. H. Bishop. Psalms sung were the 23rd and 121st, also the 54th paraphrase, which were favorites of the deceased. Interment was in the Church of Scotland Cemetery, Cape Traverse.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. Roy Burns, Ray Limestone, Fred Rooves, Russell McCarville, Harold Lefurgy and William Cousins.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. Isaac Burns, Lower Freetown, wish to extend their sincere thanks to all their friends, neighbours and relatives for the kindness shown them in their recent sad bereavement. Also to those who sent messages of sympathy.

British Prepare For Outburst In Palestine

(By W. E. Curtis)

JERUSALEM, April 14 (AP)—British troops mounted double and triple guards tonight as the Holy Land braced itself for threatened reprisals for the pre-dawn hangings of Dov Bela Gruner and three other members of the Jewish underground at Acre Prison.

Approximately 500,000 Jews—five-sixths of Palestine's Jewish population—were placed under virtual house arrest as a precaution against outbreaks of violence. The curfew measure was perhaps the most stringent ever imposed in the Holy Land.

An atmosphere of sullen resentment cloaked Jewish communities. British civilians were notified to move into special security areas established early this year. Jewish resentment centred on the fact that no Rabbi was present at the executions of the four Irgun Zvai Leumi members and that the death penalty was imposed while a last desperate legal battle was still pending.

British authorities replied that the prison chaplain had refused to comply with the request of prison authorities to attend. As to the legal angle, they disclosed that a regulation became effective Tuesday which denied any appeal from a judgment of a "military court or of a general officer commanding."

Gruner and his three fellow underground members went to the gallows defiantly, singing the Jewish national anthem.

Gruner, 33, was hanged first, at 2 a.m. The others mounted the gallows at half-hour intervals—Don Ben Salman Rosenbaum, 24; Eliezer Ben Zion Kashani, 23; and Mordecai Ben Abraham Alkachi, 21, in that order.

Gruner, a Hungarian war veteran of the British Army was sentenced Jan. 1 by a British military court which convicted him of participating in an attack on the Ramat Gan police station, in which two policemen were killed and Gruner wounded.

The other three executed were convicted of having arms and whips in their possession on the night that a British major and three sergeants were flogged by the underground in retaliation for the whipping of an Irgun member.

SAMUEL DAVID JAY

A well known and highly respected citizen, Mr. Samuel D. Jay passed away Monday morning, March 31st, at the Prince Edward Island Hospital. Although in failing health for a number of years he did not become seriously ill, until a week before his death. Born, August 14, 1868, at Fanning Brook, Prince Edward Island, he lived his entire life in this Province. For a number of years resided at Fanning Brook, Marie and Clarktown, and then moved to Charlottetown where he was employed as janitor of Prince of Wales College for a number of years. Later he was employed with the firm of Carter & Co., Ltd., until his retirement a few years ago.

Mr. Jay was the youngest of a family of seven, all of whom have predeceased him. His wife, formerly Priscilla Jane Leard, and one daughter Una, (Mrs. Wilfred Gay) Brookline, Mass., and son Leard, of this City, are left to mourn. He also leaves five grand children whom he loved very dearly.

Mr. Jay was a loving husband and a devoted father, a sincere Christian man, and was a member of Trinity United Church. Of a genial and friendly disposition, he was always bright and cheerful, and will be greatly missed.

A short funeral service was held at the McLean Funeral Home on Wednesday, April 2nd. The service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. T. E. McLennan of Trinity United Church. The pall bearers were: Ira Shaw, A. C. Sinclair, Roy White, Alex. MacLeod, Peter McMillan and Finlay McKinnon. The remains were then taken to Mt. Stewart United Church and the large number of people, who in spite of the almost impassable condition of the roads, gathered to pay their last respects, attested to the esteem in which the deceased was held. Rev. Mr. Meyer, assisted by Rev. P. E. McLennan conducted the service and gave words of inspiration and comfort to the mourners. The Mt. Stewart United Church choir sang very feelingly the favorite hymn of the deceased, "My Jesus I Love Thee." The floral tributes were many and beautiful. The pall bearers were six brothers-in-law of the deceased, Fred Jay, Ira Clark, Roy Leard, Fred Leard, George Leard and Daniel Birt.

As a candle that has burned within a single room, Warming hearts beside its flame, Lightening the gloom, Is carried by a sheltering hand Through a distant door Into a larger, brighter room Than that which was before.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Samuel D. Jay and Family wish to thank their friends and neighbors, also the matron and staff of the P. E. Island Hospital, for their many acts of kindness, also those who gave flowers and sent letters and cards of sympathy, during their recent sad bereavement.

Ellen's Diary

By an Island Farmer's Wife

Mystery of Life. All have the most wonderful expressions on their marble faces. As we stood there a small humming bird hovered and flew down to drink. We also passed by the Court of David—a copy of the statue of David by Michelangelo Buonarrate. It is 16 feet high and most impressive and beautiful.

Now to the story of "The Last Supper Window," a reproduction of Leonardo Da Vinci's masterpiece. In spite of the fact that many kings of Italy tried at times, to restore the picture of The Last Supper, at Milan, painted on plaster, it is fast crumbling and actually is being lost to civilization.

The Chairman of the board of trustees of Forest Lawn asked Rosa Moretti, the last of a famous family of stained glass makers, to make a reproduction of the picture. After seven years of work, it was completed and sent to Forest Lawn, where it has been hailed, as one of the greatest contributions to modern art. Its colors are beautiful beyond words, and it is said that not even the original painting was more sublime. As we drove down the hill and out to the beautiful wrought-iron gates, past a lovely fountain and pool, in which swans were swimming, I could not help thinking of a poem I had learned in school—my quotation may not be entirely correct as I have not seen it in print for many a year:

"Life I know not what thou art, but know that thou and I must part."

But how, or when, or where we met, I own to me 'tis secret yet. Life, we've been long together, through pleasant and through stormy weather.

'Tis hard to part when friends are dear, perhaps 'twill cause a sigh, a tear.

Then steal away, give little warning, Choose thine own time, say not 'good night'!

But in some happier clime, Bid me 'Good Morning'.

"I enjoy every minute here" this delightful letter continues. "I have had such a good time and have seen so many interesting things and places—that I never expected to see and am coming home feeling fine. It will be lovely again." There it is again! That Home-Sweet-Home feeling that James and I find disturbing, when we are a distance from Alderles. Until tomorrow—Diary—Good-night.

MALARIA CARRIERS

SYDNEY, Australia—(CP)—Discovery of five cases of malaria in New South Wales during the past year has aroused attention. A large number of Australian servicemen returned from tropical service with malaria and mosquitoes who bite them might carry the disease to others.

INDIES WELFARE MEET

BRIDGETOWN, Barbados—(CP)—A social and probation conference attended by officers from all British Caribbean territories was held here recently. The place of social welfare in the machinery of government, rural welfare work and training for social work were discussed.

PAPER FROM STRAW

LONDON—(CP)—Clean wheat straw, good only for bonfires on the prairies, is worth $4 12s ($18) a ton delivered to paper mills in Scotland. All straw for paper making is bought from the paper control and sold for a uniform price.

Two youths escaped from this car when the Grand river broke its banks at Galt, Ont., and swept through streets paralleling the river. The river rushed through Galt with a great roar after the Shand dam gates were opened.

Brantford feared waters would pass peak of disastrous 1929 flood, but they stayed four inches below previous high. Wilfred Good, shown with his nephew, Bill Good, had to go by boat from his home in Birkett's Lane, Brantford, to milk cows which were marooned on a hill.
