FINANCE

By Frederick Gardner Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, March 26—(AP)—Traders continued to bid up speculators in today's stock market while permitting most leaders to drift moderately lower. The bet news of the day came after the close when U. S. Steel directors surprised Wall Street by voting a dividend of $1 a share on this issue first payment on this issue since December, 1937. Chairman Stettin explained the decision as a "bonus" on the corporation's earnings during the recent months.

In the Canadian section Bell Telephone dropped two points to 126 and International Nickel 1 3-8 points to 32-8. Fractional losses were registered for the Mines, Imperial Oil, Hollinger and Dome Mines were steady.

Stock dealing was of a haphazard character throughout with trends in variance in the majority of departments. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks finished off 1-2 points at 49.3. Transfers amounted to 622,700 shares against 594,990 the day before.

That the dividend action of "Steel" board caused the financial sector napping was shown by the fact the company's junior stock was slightly under water. The corporation's greater part of the session. It finished off 5-8 of a point at 51 3-8 and Bethlehem was 1-8 in arrears at 74.

Left Climb a fraction to a new 1940 top. Gains of a point at 185 were held by White Rock, Nat on Dillers and Crown Cork, all of which touched new year's highs. Declines were posted for Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Montgomery Ward.

In Memoriam

MRS. ROBERT SIMMONS

Crapaud was saddened to learn of the passing of one of its highly respected citizens in the person of Mrs. Robert Simmons on Tuesday morning, March 26th, at the age of 80 years. Just a month ago the deceased suffered from a paralytic seizure and all that tenacious nursing and loving kindness could do was of no avail and she passed away on the above mentioned morn. The last words that she uttered were "Saviour Thy Will Be Done." She was the daughter of the late John and Margaret Sumner of a family and lived in Westmorland until her marriage to Robert Simmons of Lot 16, where she lived for some time. Her grief at the sudden passing of her husband nine years ago grew more intense with the passing years. She warmly welcomed all those who went to her home and was a regular attendant at the Baptist Church of which she was a loyal member. She was also a member of the Women's Missionary Society of the Westmorland Branch. She died peacefully at her home on Tuesday morning, March 26th, at the age of 80 years. Her husband was a member of the Baptist Church and she was a member of the Women's Missionary Society of the Westmorland Branch. She died peacefully at her home on Tuesday morning, March 26th, at the age of 80 years.

The funeral services were held from her late residence on Thursday afternoon and was largely attended by a good number of friends and relatives from the Island. Her pastor, Rev. S. D. Bites officiated the service speaking words of comfort to the bereaved ones and basing his thoughts on the words, "Where Enoch walked with God, he was taken; he was not found because he was taken." The funeral procession wended its way to the little Baptist Church Westmorland where the deceased was buried. Many friends and relatives waited there to pay their last respects to a loving friend and relative. The pastor spoke very feelingly from Psalm 136 verse 1-5: "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." The hymns at the church were, "Shall we gather at the River," "Sweet by and bye," and "Asleep in Jesus." She was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery adjoining the church beside her husband who predeceased her nine years ago.

The floral tributes were beautiful and many were held. The high esteem in which she was held is evidenced by the fact that she was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery adjoining the church beside her husband who predeceased her nine years ago.

The funeral services were held from her late residence on Thursday afternoon and was largely attended by a good number of friends and relatives from the Island. Her pastor, Rev. S. D. Bites officiated the service speaking words of comfort to the bereaved ones and basing his thoughts on the words, "Where Enoch walked with God, he was taken; he was not found because he was taken." The funeral procession wended its way to the little Baptist Church Westmorland where the deceased was buried. Many friends and relatives waited there to pay their last respects to a loving friend and relative. The pastor spoke very feelingly from Psalm 136 verse 1-5: "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." The hymns at the church were, "Shall we gather at the River," "Sweet by and bye," and "Asleep in Jesus." She was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery adjoining the church beside her husband who predeceased her nine years ago.

The floral tributes were beautiful and many were held. The high esteem in which she was held is evidenced by the fact that she was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery adjoining the church beside her husband who predeceased her nine years ago.
