Community Spirit Behind Abbies Is Evidenced In The Nightly Attendances At The Big Fair.

Team spirit in any hockey game is worth one goal, the shrewd coaches say, and community support given unstintingly is worth how much. It is impossible to calculate to a nicety the moral value, but the resounding success of the Carnival now going on at the Forum—for which all credit must go to the fans—can be reckoned up in dollars and cents.

Suffice it to say that the financial returns, if the attendance continues, will bridge the gap which confronts the Abegweit Club on the eve of the most momentous campaign in its history. Never before did the club say, as it does now, that the Allan Cup is within striking distance. The famed silverware is not beyond our reach, not a castle in Spain but a prize which our powerful team is well-equipped to lift.

Seemingly Charlottetown is aware of our strong hockey position and is most anxious to help, else the rain of last night would have seriously interfered with the attendance at the Carnival. It did, but the drop was only fractional.

Gridiron Notes

That Intermediate Team

The formation of an intermediate Abegweit squad was suggested early this season, and at that time was seen as the solution of the problem of providing material for future senior teams, and of providing practice at the present time for the first fifteen. Under present conditions the athlete who leaves the city schools and does not continue his education at Prince of Wales, St. Dunstan's or at a mainland school, is lost to the game. Only the occasional youth who is of senior calibre when he leaves school for good is encouraged to continue. An intermediate team which would include in its line-up all the young or undeveloped players of promise who are now going into retirement is now eminently desirable.

Some Kicker

A valuable addition to the Mount Allison backfield this season is Hiyiski, who played last year with Caledonia. This rugged youth just out of high school is reported to be able to boot a drop kick over the bar from a distance of fifty yards. A constant menace such as that while a team is on the defensive, is sufficient to cause any squad much anxiety.

Windsor Back

The town of Windsor, the home of Kings Collegiate School, has once more cast its lot in the rugby pool, and is putting a squad on the field this year. This action is just another indication of a greater interest than ever this year in rugby in the Maritimes. It is several years since Windsor had a football team.

Champions Strong

The Wanderers squad, which brought the Maritime championship to Halifax last year is very strong again this year with about three players trying out for each position. Their first engagement is booked for today with a picked team from H. M. S. Heliotrope and H. M. S. Challenger. On Monday the Redland warriors meet the strong Mount Allison University squad in an exhibition game.

Mt. A. Shows 'Em

The opinion entertained for some time that Mount Allison was putting a fast and aggressive team on the field was proved yesterday to have foundation when the Garnet and Gold squad defeated Dalhousie by a score of 10-4 on the Sackville campus. Coach Lister has driven the players to the limit in practices. It is authoritatively reported that every man in the backfield is able to do the "century" in less than 11 seconds, and that the scrum is almost as fast. The forwards average 172 pounds in weight. Among them are Hickie, MacKenzie, Trites, Goggin, Miller, Robinson, Stothart, Taylor and Bishop. The halves are Jack Cook (Captain), Brodie, "Spec" Peebles and Austen. The three-quarters are Brady, Hiyiski, Laidlow and Andrews.

Abbie Practice

The Abegweits will hold a practice this afternoon immediately after the West Kent-Summerside High game. As this practice is the last before the exhibition game with the Saints on Monday, all players should be on hand.

and other points in the upper St. John valley, left this city for Saint John and later will go to Nova Scotia and thence to Upper Canada and across to the Pacific Coast. The representative of the London firm already has interviewed several of New Brunswick's leading operators, but as far as is known has not conferred with government officials. Conditions in the British lumber market at the present time, said Mr. Lundwall, point to a situation favorable to the Canadian trade within a 12-month period.

Maritimes Have Good Chance

Most of the lumber consumed in Britain is small timber of the type produced in the Atlantic provinces of Canada. Baltic countries heretofore have supplied the market extensively, but recently importations from these countries have been decreasing due to depression with the exporting countries. New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Quebec stand a very good chance of supplying the timber formerly obtained from this source.

The question of price will be the outstanding one for the producers

Don, Veteran Steed Of Brig. Gen. Gunn, Fittingly Honored In Death — Had Long Career.

(Special to the Guardian)
BEAVERTON, Ont., Oct. 7.—Don's fighting days are over and now he sleeps his last sleep on the banks of Lake Simcoe.

Charger for Brig. Gen. John A. Gunn, he had known the joy of the hunting field, had smelled the smoke of battle, had carried gentlemen cadets at the Royal Military College at Kingston and knew what it was to have ribbons pinned on him at the Royal Wnt. Fair and at the open air horse show in Toronto.

Small wonder, then, that his proud owner gave him a royal burial.

Gen. Gunn had a special casket made for his equine friend. It was silk-lined. Don's head was placed to rest on a pillow of down feathers. He now lies buried on Dunrobin farm, Beaverton, the old Gunn family homestead.

Don, a dark bay charger, was 23 years old. A year ago he went blind and the services of the best eye specialists were requisitioned without avail.

Away back on Oct. 14, 1914, friends presented Don to General Gunn. The horse was sent to Toronto and was there while the 24th Battalion, C. E. F. was in training. Then he was sent to Liverpool, England, with several hundred remounts and thence to West Sandling. In due course he arrived in France and knew what it was to be right up in the front line with his master.

Don served in France and Belgium with General Gunn and was wounded at Diekebusch. He was not returned to Canada until 1921 and then he went on the strength at the Royal Military College. Donald Gunn, son of the general, was one of the gentleman cadets at the time and always rode his father's horse. Patrons of the Royal Winter Fair will remember how Donald Gunn rode Don in the fine tattoo at the Coliseum.

Tennis

From recent Quebec papers it is noted that Miss Julienne Dugal again successfully defended her women's singles tennis championship and the Foye Trophy by defeating Mrs. Herbert Lancaster in three straight sets.

The report goes on to say that Mrs. Lancaster could not stand up against the steady driving of her opponent, Miss Dugal, and was frequently forced to overdrive or hit into the net.

Miss Dugal made many friends here during the Tennis Tournament, and they will be glad to hear of her success in the Quebec Tournament.

Gleanings From Tryon and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lord of Charlottetown were visitors to Tryon Sunday. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gamble, Mrs. Walter Crockett of Calgary, Alta., returned to town with Mr. and Mrs. Lord and intends remaining for a few days.

The annual convention of the young People's Societies of the United Churches of Prince County was held this year in Bedeque on September 23rd. There were three sessions, morning, afternoon and evening. Each meeting was very interesting and inspiring and a large number were in attendance. Some of those in attendance from the Tryon Society were: Mrs. Lorne Mabey, Mrs. Kenneth McDonald, Misses Elma Inman and Florence Mabey and Messrs Austin Smith and Archibald Thompson.

Mrs. (Dr.) Callbeck, Miss Edith Beard and Mr. Harold Harvey of Crapaud attended the Young People's annual convention in Bedeque on Sept. 23rd.

Congratulations are being showered on Mr. and Mrs. James Murray of Augustine Cove on the birth of a daughter.

Mr. Russel Thompson of North Tryon recently had the misfortune of having a barn burned, containing a quantity of hay and grain. Mr. and Mrs. Neut Dawson, who lived nearby also lost a number of silver foxes and some poultry. Their friends regret that their loss is such a heavy one.

School stopped last Friday for a three-week holiday so the children can assist in harvesting the potato crop. The potato crop seems very fair in this district, although not as heavy as last year the potatoes are numerous and free from rot. The weather at present is ideal for digging and everyone is busily engaged in "making hay while the sun shines."

Miss Victoria McLean, Principal hearty.

Says Gov'ts. Running Ahead Of Themselves

(Canadian Press)
MONTREAL, Oct. 7.—W. L. McGregor chairman of the National Committee on public finance of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, told interviewers today work of the committee showed governments appeared to be running ahead of themselves in the matter of expenditures.

"Since Confederation," Mr. McGregor said, "the population of this country has trebled and yet in this same period Dominion and provincial expenditures increased 30 times." "Practically all this increase is noted since 1904," he added. "Today," he said, "our population is 78 per cent larger than in 1904, but our expenditures, Dominion and provincial, are 666 per cent larger."

Conduct Branded As "Inhumane"

(Canadian Press)
MONTREAL, Oct. 7.—Conduct of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police was branded as "inhumane" by Judge Victor Cusson in Court of Sessions today when their counsel insisted that a woman of 85 years of age should immediately begin serving sentence of one month's imprisonment for being in possession of liquor.

Judge Cusson granted the woman a week's respite in order that her counsel might communicate with the Minister of Justice. The woman, Mrs. Madrone Augusta, had been sentenced to one month's imprisonment and a fine of $200 and costs for illegal possession of liquor.

DATES NAMED FOR THE 1933 EXHIBITION

The directors of the Provincial Exhibition Association met yesterday and selected dates for the Provincial Exhibition of 1933. The week of Aug. 21st to 25th was selected and plans will be prepared during the coming winter with a view to staging the greatest of all Provincial Exhibitions on the above dates. After all the reports had been gone over and discussed, the opinion was expressed by President Paton, Secretary Boulter and the other directors that this year's exhibition was the greatest success we have ever had in exhibits and in many other respects.

Young Boy Makes Fight For Life

(Special to the Guardian)
TORONTO, Oct. 7.—Eight-year-old Robert Marshall, 530 Dundas St. E., who is in the Hospital for Sick Children with paralysis of the lungs and chest, the result of acute diphtheria, is now able to mutter a few words. This fact is an indication his condition has improved.

For the past 11 days Robert has been kept alive by the use of the Drinker respirator. When first placed in the respirator he was unable to say a word.

The Drinker respirator works like a lung. With each fluctuation the diaphragm rises and falls, supplying the movement that Bobby's nerves have ceased to supply.

Hospital attendants say Bobby is a courageous lad. As air is propelled in and out of his lungs, he smiles happily, for he believes he will get better.

QUEEN MARY ENGLAND'S GREATEST WOMAN

TORONTO, Oct. 7.—(By The Canadian Press)—Queen Mary is the greatest woman in England according to Beverly Baxter, short story author and managing editor of the London Daily Express. Addressing the Women's Canadian Club of this city, he said that the British people were just beginning to realize fully place which would be taken by Her Majesty when the history of the difficult transition of years in England was written. With society turned upside down, the home life of Buckingham Palace had been a rallying centre of moral force.

The speaker believed England, like Turkey, was a man's country. He spoke of the charm and cleverness of such women as Lady Astor, the Duchess of Athol or Ellen Wilkinson, but did not feel that they had made special contribution to political life. He spoke of Mrs. Baldwin as doing more for maternal welfare than for hat designers.

Torch Singer Wife Who Is Charged With His Death, Not Mentioned In Bequests.

(Copyright, 1932, by the Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—A will executed by Smith Reynolds less than a year before he was fatally shot at Winston-Salem, N. C., is to be filed for probate here soon, leaving his entire share of the Reynolds to his two sisters.

From a source close to the Reynolds family it was established today that the will was drawn during the summer of 1931 while young Reynolds was occupying a Long Island cottage near the summer residence of Libby Holman, Broadway-torch singer now under indictment for his murder. He was not yet married to Miss Holman at that time, however, and she is not mentioned in the will.

It was learned that there is a bequest of $50,000 to Smith Reynolds' friend, Albert Walker, who is also at liberty under bail awaiting trial for the murder of Reynolds. There are also said to be bequests of $50,000 each to Anne Cannon Reynolds II. Reynolds and his first wife were divorced shortly after the will was drawn and it was reported at that time that he had made a financial settlement of approximately $1,000,000.

Great Britain's noise bill runs to about $250,000,000 a year, according to Professor Henry Spooner, famous scientist, who estimates that this represents the economic loss to the nation by preventable noise in modern London and the industrial centres of the country. "At least fifty per cent of the noise under which we suffer could be, and should be, prevented," he declares.

In his opinion noise is the heaviest overhead cost in modern business. One serious aspect of noise fatigue is the great loss due to the impairment of working capacity and efficiency in city and in industrial life, he says. A further loss is due to illness and accidents caused directly and indirectly by working in an atmosphere of distracting noise. Professor Spooner also points out the alarming depreciation in the value of house property and land on or near the main traffic routes of the cities and their suburbs.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—(A.P.)—It was learned late today that former Gov. Alfred E. Smith will campaign actively for the Democratic ticket and will make speeches in at least four states, New York, Rhode Island, Connecticut and Massachusetts.
